A Misunderstanding

MRS. HUMPHREYS CRAWFORD.

The engagement of the noted London beauty, Mrs. Humphreys Crawford, in Robert T. Harrington of New York, has caused much comment here. Mrs. Crawford is the granddaughter of the founder of the famous department store, H. & J. Crawford & Sons, and of Mrs. Crawford, the mother of the late James M. Crawford, of the British Consulate in New York.

It is said that the engagement took place at a London ballroom, and that the young man in question is a member of the House of Commons.

It is also said that the engagement was announced in a press conference held at the hotel where the couple were staying.

In an interview with the press, Mr. Harrington said that he was overjoyed at the news, and that he looked forward to a long and happy future with his betrothed.

Mrs. Crawford, in a statement, said that she was thrilled to be engaged to such a distinguished man, and that she was looking forward to a lifetime of happiness with him.

A wedding date has not yet been announced, but it is expected that the couple will marry in the early summer.

When asked about the rumors that the engagement was arranged by her family, Mrs. Crawford said that she had always been independent, and that she had made the decision to marry Mr. Harrington on her own.

The couple will reside in London, where Mr. Harrington is currently working on a project for the British government.

Mr. Harrington has been praised for his political and business acumen, and it is expected that his marriage to Mrs. Crawford will bring him even more success in the future.

The couple has been together for several years, and their relationship has been the subject of much speculation in the press.

The engagement has caused much excitement in the city, and many are looking forward to the wedding of the year.
