Tommy was studying one of the advertising signs in the car. "Mamma," he said, "isn't 'Reason' a funny name for a girl?" "Hush, dear!" "And her first name is 'Theresa'." Look at it, mamma. 'Theresa Reason.' Gee! I'd change that name if it was mine!"—Chicago Tribune.

After Twenty Years. Mr. Peck—This talking machine record is filled with a few remarks by Mrs. Peck. Oldbatch—It's wonderful to think that you can hear the voice of one who is not present. Mr. Peck—And more wonderful to think that I can stop it so easily.—Judge.

Electric Anesthesis. "If you want to knock your adversary out," said the physical instructor, "send a blow on that spot. That's the location of the solar plexus." "And if I only want to make him see stars," said Alby, "I suppose I must land on his lunar plexus. Where's that?"

Not a Boston Expression. She—That's Mr. Osborn over there. He married a million. He—You don't say. Well, that beats Solomon to a frazzle.—Boston Transcript.

Too Much to Lose. Manager of Touring Company—Here, buck up, Miss De Vere; else we shall lose the train. Leading Lady—But I've lost my reticule and my jewel case with my diamonds in it. Manager—O, let 'em go. We must catch this train. Leading Lady—But my reticule had $0 shillings in it.—The Sketch.

What Inspired Him. "The melancholy days have come"—So sang the weary bard; He'd just been raking autumn leaves Again from his back yard.—Chicago Tribune.

Helping Him Out. Stagestruck Young Man—I suppose the first thing for me to do will be to adopt a stage name. Have you a good one to suggest? Theatrical Manager (who has seen him act)—Yes; I think Dennis would be a good name for you.

Comparisons. Young Husband—Darling, you are worth your weight in— Young Wife—Gold, George? Young Husband—Well, let it go at that, love. In the wild enthusiasm of the moment, though, I was going to say porthouse steak.

For Old People. After reaching the age of forty the human system gradually declines. The accumulated poisons in the blood cause rheumatic pains in the joints, muscles and back. These warnings should be promptly relieved and serious illness avoided by using the following prescription which shows wonderful results even after the first few doses and it will eventually restore physical vigor: "One ounce compound syrup of Sarsaparilla; one ounce Tonic compound; half pint of high grade whiskey. This to be mixed and used in tablespoonful doses before each meal and at bedtime. The bottle to be well shaken each time." Any druggist has these ingredients or he will get them from his wholesale house.

Dangerous Risk. "Look out, HI," shouted the farmer's wife as the big balloon soared over the farm with a trailing anchor. "Them thar arynaughts will hook yeu up like a fish if yeu don't watch out." "Gosh, Mandy!" gasped the old farmer as he dropped his rake. "Yeou don't think they'd try to do sech a thing purposely, do yeu?" "Wouldn't trust them, HI. That tall chap looking down here with the eyeglass is one of them thar Indiana writer folks and he's working on a book called 'The Uplifting of the Farmer.' Reckon yeu better keep yeour eye on that anchor."

Shake Into Your Shoes Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder for the feet. It cures painful, swollen, smarting, sweating feet. Makes new shoes easy. Sold by all Druggists and Shoe Stores. Don't accept any substitute. Sample FREE. Address A. S. Olmsted, Le Roy, N. Y.

By Candle Time. "It did me good," observed a young girl who had just returned from England, "to see, in real life, one of the old customs my grandfather used to tell me about—the burning of the time candle at an auction. In Berkshire the old custom still prevails, and when an auction is in progress and an article is put up for bidding a short length of candle is lighted as the bidding begins. The shouting continues until the candle burns out, and the last bid before it flickers its last is the one that takes the cake. I don't know but it has an advantage over the 'going, going, gone' variety, but it is fearfully slow and un-American."

Promissory Salaries. The suspicion that the incomes of stage performers are not always so large as they are publicly represented to be is given concrete form thus by a writer in the Washington Star: "I understand that the manager is paying fabulous salaries to his leading singers," said the inquisitive reporter. "Not fabulous," rejoined the cynical press agent—"fictitious."

Getting the Facts. "How much money did the defaulter get away with?" "All the funds we had on hand." "How much did you have on hand, may I ask?" "The precise amount he got away with." "I mean, what was it in dollars and cents?" "It was all in dollars and cents."—Chicago Tribune.

A Painless Death. A teacher in the factory district of a New Jersey town had been giving the children earnest lectures upon the poisonousness of dirt. One morning a little girl raised her hand excitedly and pointed to a boy who seldom had clean hands. "Teacher," she said, "look quick! Jimmie's committin' suicide! He's suckin' his thumb."—Success Magazine.

The Professor Explains. "Why is it," inquired the doctor, "that astronomers, whose work must be peculiarly trying on their powers of vision, almost uniformly have strong eyes?" "My friend," answered the professor, "it is because they have strong eyes that they are astronomers."

Some people would drown with a life preserver at hand. They are the kind that suffer from Rheumatism and Neuralgia when they can get Hamlin's Wizard Oil, the best of all pain remedies.

Fitting Ideas. "So Mrs. Dumps wants her new house decorated to suit her own personality. How is the architect going to set about it?" "I heard him say since she was of such a worrying and nagging disposition, the ornamentation would be chiefly fret work."—Baltimore American.

Direct of Navy. If envy, like anger, did not burn itself in its own fire, and consume and destroy those persons it possesses before it destroys those it wishes worst to, it would set the whole world on fire, and leave the most excellent persons the most miserable.—Lord Clarendon.

Not Properly Conched. Mr. Tucker (having served the others)—Well, Tommy, what part of the chicken will you have? Tommy—Why, paw, you know I always take the back when there's company.

SOUR STOMACH

"I used Cascarets and feel like a new man. I have been a sufferer from dyspepsia and sour stomach for the last two years. I have been taking medicine and other drugs, but could find no relief only for a short time. I will recommend Cascarets to my friends as the only thing for indigestion and sour stomach and to keep the bowels in good condition. They are very nice to eat."
