

SAVED FROM AWFUL PERIL. "I never felt so near my grave," writes Lewis Chamblin, of Manchester, Ohio, R. R. No. 3, "as when a frightful cough and lung trouble pulled me down to 115 pounds in spite of many remedies and the best doctors. And that I am alive today is due solely to Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me. Now I weigh 160 pounds and can work hard. It also cured my four children of croup." Infallible for Coughs and Colds, is the most certain remedy for La-Grippe Asthma, desperate lung trouble and all bronchial affections, 50c and $1.00. A trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Toledo Drug Co.

SUMMONS.
In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Lincoln:
Felanise Munger, Plaintiff, vs.
John W. Munger, Defendant.

To the above named defendant, John W. Munger:

In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled Court and suit, now on file with the Clerk of said Court on or before six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, to-wit: on or before the 11th day of February, 1910.

And you are notified that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint as herein required, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in said complaint, to-wit, for a decree of said Court, dissolving the marriage contract now existing between the plaintiff and defendant; and further, that plaintiff be restored to her former name, to-wit: Felanise Eddy, and for such other and different relief as to equity seemeth just.

This summons is served upon you by publication thereof by order of Honorable Chas. H. Gardner, County Judge of Lincoln County, Oregon, made on the 20th day of December, 1909 directing publication thereof once a week for six consecutive and successive weeks in six issues thereof, beginning with the issue of December 21, 1909, and ending with the issue of the 11th day of February, 1910, in the Lincoln County Leader, a weekly newspaper of general circulation, printed and published at Toledo, Lincoln County, Oregon.

Date of first publication December 21, 1909.
G. B. McCLUSKEY,
Attorney for Plaintiff.

WANTED—Young lady to set type, experience unnecessary, apply at this office.

The tax rolls will be turned over to the sheriff today, and that official's office will be a busy place during the next several months.

W. O. Davis arrived Tuesday from Portland. Mr. Davis is an expert harness maker, and will open up a repair shop in this city.

Commissioners' Court was in session Monday and Tuesday. The matter of the readjustment of the boundary lines of road district No. 6 was the hard proposition for the Court. Ten sections were cut off District 8 and attached to District 6.

Trapping Pays Well.

Lincoln County, according to Charles Hyde, a veteran trapper, who makes this city his headquarters still abounds in game—the trapping of which is far more profitable than mining, says the Newport Correspondent in last Sunday's Oregonian. While talking about his work today, he said: "Fur-bearing animals are, of course, much more scarce than when I started trapping many years ago, but there are still enough to make the business worth while. Mink, worth from $4 to $8; con worth from $1 to $1.50, and wildcats and black bear worth up to $10 each, are still quite plentiful. Martin, otter, cougar and brown bear require considerable skill for capture but give good returns when taken.

"Otter haunt the low country, while most of the other animals are to be found in the green timber. I set my otter and fisher traps so as to drown the game when they get caught. Muskrats are seldom seen in this section, but are very valuable bringing 50c apiece. Wildcats, cougar and coon I prefer to hunt with dogs, reserving my traps for the other animals.

"The trapping season lasts from December 1 to the end of February, and in that time I usually consider as a fair catch, about a dozen otter, two dozen fishers, three dozen martens, 25 wildcat, maybe three cougar, 10 black bear and perhaps a brown one, a polecat and a muskrat and dozen coons. This should net me about $1400, with practically nothing for expenses."

All of which is going some.

Just arrived my large assortment of up to date shoes of all kinds. Call and see them. T. P. Fish.
