Waldport.
Miss Ellis Williamson attended the teacher examination at Toledo last week.

H. L. Stelling was down from Edenton last week on business.

The Tyler ranch on Ten Mile Creek has been sold to Valley people, Paul Brown attended the examination and made the trip on foot.

A. W. Fisher who is interested in the local saw mill was in town last week.

Andrew J. Hill attended school last week looking for a position for The Waldport Lumber Company.

Mr. Johnson is making good progress in clearing the brush and building a new barn from G. H. Gilman. Charles Mander and family spent last week visiting Carvill Bartlett and with the latter.

Joe Paterson, the genial representative of the Oregonian, was in the city last week and gathered up a number of subscriptions.

J. B. Hays returned last Saturday from a business trip in the Valley.

P. D. Washoe calls on the local people that handle real estate in the Valley came in last week with some parties who are looking for property.

There was an algebra class last week on solutions of ordinary equations. Our school was not discussed Christmas week as to allow for this.

Fred Washoe is again on the jump. Quite a number of transactions have taken place the last ten days.

Up to this time there has been no appointment made to fill the vacancy in the postmaster's chair. Those who wish those that be' are taking their time in the matter.

Mr. F. W. J. Singh, who represents the County, is in present at the legislative session in Salem.

There is no question as to the hospitality of the move this last trip to Frtails in the piano business.

The Lumber Company always has a big house on days Sunday. They were caught by a strong current and were carried by that current.

The Court clerk reports the Waldport district for the week $214.24, and the real estate for the district $513.24. These two items of the Waldport district

There is desired habits of getting together among the members of the local band. Win. Jorgenson in particular has been doing fine work here lately. This has been on Tuesday from 7 to 30, and if the boys in the evening. As Will washoes about the town this week, we think this is the worst we have ever had in Waldport.

Meadow Creek
We have no news to report for this week, everything is quite usual.

C. A. Webb is expected to go to his bed this past week with a pimple and sciatica.

The Lady picturesque went to Toledo on business last Monday.

The three little girls of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hays returned from the Salem trip with their father.

George Gwynn has rented 80 acres of land in the same district. We have not heard yet what Mr. Stewart intends to do with this.

Ray Calkin has rented C. C. Bowers' place on his farm and intends to move in.

Tom Daniel went to Toledo last week but was so busy at the ranch he didn't get away.

Don't forget the model horse show at J. A. Child's Friday night, the Mills, and A. H. Truss moved.

The Sunday school at the Ginn school is progressing well. We are glad to have something to interest the little folks as well as the older folks.

C. C. Bowers is building a house on his farm this week.

Kernville
Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Smith moved Mr. F. D. Reid last week and it is with his coming we have the news.

Miss Ethel and children are taking quite an interest in the school.

Mr. Crockett has sold his horse this week with the stomach staggers, but his goods are his gift was in his old stand yesterday.

P. O, Shiley, Grant Standard and W. F. Wheeler were registering telephones this week. These gentlemen were in town for the first time, but they made it, just the same.

Bay View
Arthur Hulbert expects to spend a few days at the Kittingham home at Monmouth Tuesday or Wednesday, Mrs. Earnest W. Haines is a sick bed for a few days this week.

R. E. Leland came on Tuesday afternoon and M. F. Washoe went to Toledo Friday.

The H. Perry family are visiting in the Bay View part of town.

The two Twentieth Sunday service at the Bay View.

Paul McMillen is in the sick list this week.

Hand and Fred Washoe went to Newport to attend the zinc napor.

Little Elk
There has been some street fighting in account of the short and shut off.

The Little Elk telephone line is in quite good and all subscribers have been stopped for the month.

There was two gentlemen from Dallas visiting Mr. Colby. They were looking at some land that is for sale.

Ben Gorrie is making a trip to Blodgett's ferry last Tuesday. Ben is away from home this week.

E. E. Vater of Nortonsville has bought the store in the Nortonsville district and will take possession of the first of May. We are sorry to see him leave. Mr. Vater intends to move to the city.

Irwin Morse had a fair game of cards last week. He won $25 from a friend.

W. H. Turner's farm is 80 acres on the top of the hill. He does not want it to find a buyer as long as he can tend it.

Washoe Daisy has been under the weather during the week, and don't want I want it to find a buyer as long as he can tend it.

They are having a close-up telephone line up. Mr. McLane has been working very hard this week, he expects to put it up and ready for a while as it is in the house.

Jim Hudgins and wife will go to Mr. Grunt's, Mr. Hodges has been visiting with the house last week. Mr. Hudgins was trying to get an order on the Merrill telephone line.

The Heflin Development Landing and Canal Company were in the city last week and will be at work on their project.

Mr. McCoy, representing the Pacific Company, and Capt. Burns, associate the House, withhold them, and both had their propositions to make to join his house with line, but neither was decided.

R. L. Smith and wife went to the house in the cow pasture around the sale last week.

The Board of Corvallis were visiting at R. P. Grunt's Sunday. While returning home in the evening they went through a bridge again, wagon stuck.

Donald Smith and wife went to the new house in the cow pasture around the sale last week.

Mr. Cato was in town this week.

Our debating society is well attended. At the last election the following were elected: Sheriff Shiley, president; John Hsu, vice-president; Phil Shiley, secretary; P. J. Shiley, treasurer.

The local children are taking quite an interest in the school.

Mr. Crockett sold his horse this week with the stomach staggers, but his goods are his gift was in his old stand yesterday.

P. O. Shiley, Grant Standard and W. F. Wheeler were registering telephones this week. These gentlemen were in town for the first time, but they made it, just the same.

Benneker Riverside Drive Pines Produce Company.

Get the goods, and the timber.

The debate on the subject of what is strange was a success.

Let's not forget our friends all over the country on the 4th of July.

This week the news was quite full.

We have the soil, the climate and the rainfall, and if the fruit is right that should enough grown.

The growth of the Hood River Pear is in quite good shape, and this year yields a large crop of good fruit.

The Deer Creek Orchard is in a state of development, and the fruit is not yet ready for the market.

Just a word about fruit growing as a business enterprise will close this letter in a short time.

We have the soil, the climate and the rainfall, and if the fruit is right that should enough grown.

The growth of the Hood River Pear is in a state of development, and the fruit is not yet ready for the market.

Just a word about fruit growing as a business enterprise will close this letter in a short time.

We have the soil, the climate and the rainfall, and if the fruit is right that should enough grown.

The growth of the Hood River Pear is in a state of development, and the fruit is not yet ready for the market.

Just a word about fruit growing as a business enterprise will close this letter in a short time.

We have the soil, the climate and the rainfall, and if the fruit is right that should enough grown.

The growth of the Hood River Pear is in a state of development, and the fruit is not yet ready for the market.

Just a word about fruit growing as a business enterprise will close this letter in a short time.

We have the soil, the climate and the rainfall, and if the fruit is right that should enough grown.

The growth of the Hood River Pear is in a state of development, and the fruit is not yet ready for the market.

Just a word about fruit growing as a business enterprise will close this letter in a short time.