COUNTY NEWS News of each Community Gathered each week by Our Rustling Associate Editors

Waldport.

C. R. Evans has been up the Alsea looking after some logs for the Lumber Company.

Antone Jensen came in on the 25th to look after some property he recently purchased.

The C. J. Smith Realty Company has moved its office so as to give Christen Jensen possession of the property the company formerly occupied.

A one thousand candle power lamp has been ordered for the band hall and will arrive in a few days. This will be a great improvement over the present lamps.

The dance given in the dance hall Thursday evening was well attended. As the band progresses their music is very much appreciated.

The masque ball given on the 22d was well attended and a success in every way. A large number of visitors came in from Newport and Tidewater and added to almost all of Waldport's population, they filled the hall to overflowing. The band furnished the music. Financially the dancing club was considerably ahead.

The committee which attended the Port meeting at Newport came home with the report that the plan was unambiguously defeated, as Newport had quietly got busy with a petition to form a port of their own and thus had the County Port headed off. The committee also advised that the residents of the Alsea form a port and thus be in a position to derive some benefit from the immense body of timber in the south end of the county. J. H. Glines circulated a petition and secured 34 names which is in excess of the number required by law to put the plan before the voters of the district. The petition was then sent to the county court. The district to be embraced in the port of Alsea is all that part of the county lying south of the township lines between townships twelve and and thirteen. The district will therefore be bounded by Benton County on the East and Lane County on the South. These port petitions may make it necessary for the County Court to readjust the precinct lines as in few cases will the precinct lines correspond with the exterior limits of the ports, but in any case the law provides that the court must call the special election within certain limits as to time. The Alsea petition was filed February 24th so we may expect an election sometime between April 15 and May 5th.

Kernville

We are having quite a scare. George Thompson of Willamina came in here to do some trapping. Fred Butterfield got him to look after his things while he was away on business and his wife and children were visiting relatives. George was staying in Fred's house and came down with the small pox. Fred's wife and children are still visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Payne bought the Alec Catfish place that joins Mrs. Payne's place on the east. They also bought Fred Butterfield's homestead on the Siletz river.

James Lynde who sold his farm on the Yaquina river last Fall and moved to the Valley near Cottage Grove, writes, "Lincoln County for me, I am coming back."

There have been several land buyers in and more send word they are coming.

Mr. Jess Farrin returned from Toledo. He says he could not find a place at Toledo that suited him. Now he will try Sheridan. We think that Mr. Farrin cannot find a better place than he has here.

Dick Anderson and Jesse Stone bought most of Mrs. Walter Bones' household furniture.

Jesse Stone has begun work on his place getting ready to milk ten or fifteen cows for the cheese factory.

Miss Julia and Emmie Parmele have their quilting factory running. They will be found on 330 Russell St., Portland.

All that attended Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bones' sociable report a fine time. Mrs. May Butterfield prepared the dinner for 27 and supper for 37. She had as fine candy as could be made by any one. The company made three comforts and quilted one quilt. All worked their initials on the quilt. May we have many more such social gatherings.

Bay View

The beautiful wind and rain is still raging.

Ole Olson and Henry Hendrickson went to Yaquina Wednesday.

E. S. Oakland and family returned to his ranch at Bay View.

Miss Hester Hill has been on the sick list the past few days.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Burt Twombly, February 27, 1910, a 9 pound son. Mother and son doing well.

John and Fred Strake have been spending a few days at the Bay.

Mrs. Jim Taylor has been spending a few days at Burt Twombly's.

C. McCracin was a visitor at Bay View Saturday.

Hazel Kirkland went to Beaver Creek Sunday.

Mrs. K. Hendrickson is down for a few days.

Harlan

Mr. Davison is still very low.

Mrs. B. F. Grant is about well again.

Messrs. McClellan and Cameron went to Corvallis last week for supplies. They had quite a time. Had two run-a-ways, broke down twice, upset once and pulled the bottom of the road all on top and finally came home horse-back. They went back the next day after their wagon. They had copper rivets, sugar, baking powder, oat meal, Neats' Foot oil and various other things all mixed up in one conglomeration in the upset, and they report the roads as not very good.

The loggers all started their logs for Elk City, and the last report we had they were getting along fine. They have about six hundred logs in the drive. Jim Hodges, Delbert Hodges, Willis and Lester Grant and B. O. Young are doing the driving.

The warm rain is starting the grass a little. Looks like we might have Spring after while but none to soon, for feed is getting mighty scarce.

The supervisor has replaced the bridge that went down with Ben Young and team.

Miss Sarah January has got back to Harlan again. Mr. Martin went to Summit after her and one of his horses got sick on the way and he had to leave it.

Stock Holders meeting.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Lincoln County Transportation Company will be held in the City Hall, Toledo, Oregon, Tuesday, March 8th at 10:30 a.m. All persons having subscribed for stock are requested to be present or send proxies to the Lincoln County Bank. Object of meeting is to form the organization, elect officers, etc.

Signed, Capt. Geo. Tyler. Representing the Incorporators.

The people of Oregon, Washington and the Pacific Northwest, will have an opportunity to see a "man-bird" in actual flight. Lots of us have read about flying machines and it is the desire of every one to see one of these soaring across country, disputing for space in the heavens with the clouds, and making speed that will put the fastest bird in the world to shame.

There will be a big Aviation Meet at Portland on March 5, 6 and 7, which will be the first chance that has been given the people of this part of the country to see this actual marvel. People who talked of flying machines five years ago were considered dreamers, but it is guaranteed by the business men of Portland who are lack of the flying machine meet that unless there are genuine cross-country and high altitude flights, ticket money will be refunded. Charles K. Hamilton, the daring aviator who, operating a Curtiss biplane, holds the world's records for high speed with a mile in 1:37, the world's slow speed, which is more difficult, with a mile in 4 minutes, will try to take the high altitude record at the Portland meet. Because of the stillness of the air currents around Portland he believes he can do this.

Mrs. Bailey went to Yaquina Monday evening.

Dr. Carter of Newport was a Toledo visitor Monday.

Miss Esther Copeland spent Sunday and Monday at Newport.

W. K. Merrill the telephone man was a passenger up the line Monday.

James McDonald returned Friday evening from a several day's visit at Chitwood.

Miss Ruth Ofstedahl has accepted a deputyship in County Clerk Wade's office.

Samuel Brassfield of Siletz returned Wednesday evening from a short visit to Corvallis.

Well, March sure came in like a lion, and now we are hoping it will wind up in a lamblike fashion.

Fred Romtvedt came over from Corvallis Monday evening where he had been taking the short course at OAC.

Service next Sunday at St. John's Church, at 11:00 a. m. Yaquina at 4:00 p. m. Everybody welcome.

Rev. Francis O. Jones, Rector.

Miss Gertrude Phelps of Ona was in the city Tuesday taking the teacher's examination so she could get a permit to teach.

Dangerous Bull.

All parties are warned not to go through the pasture of S. Romtvedt as the Jersey Bull confined therein is dangerous.

J. S. Copeland.

COLD STORAGE AND ICE PLANT

Toledo Meat Co. will Equip to Handle all Kinds of Meat, Fish, Etc.

Henry Gorke of Dallas, with Ed Paine of the Toledo Meat Company, have purchased the City Meat Market of Charles Hartman and have combined the two markets. Johnny Nye, who was a partner of Mr. Paine, will hold the position as meat cutter in the new shop.

The new company will build a cold storage and ice plant and run in conjunction with the meat and fish market. The market will be equipped with cold storage counter and all the latest modern improvements. They will handle all kinds of meats and fish, and will manufacture ice for the local Bay trade. It is the intention to begin work on the ice and cold storage plant within a few days.

St. Patrick's Dance.

The ladies of the local Rebekah lodge will give a St. Patrick's dance, in Woodman Hall, Thursday night, March 17th. The object of this ball is to raise funds for the Rebekah cause and to have a good, social time. Rosebrook's orchestra will furnish music. The ladies will serve lunch and refreshments in the banquet hall throughout the evening. Tickets for dance, $1. Do not fail to attend this dance, help the ladies out and enjoy a pleasant evening.

Henry Gorke of Dallas was in Toledo last week, closing the deal for the City Meat Market. He returned home Saturday morning, but will be here in a few days to start operations on the new cold storage plant.

G. L. McCaulou and Dye Wade came in from the big timber Tuesday afternoon, where they have been building a house on the former's homestead. Mr. McCaulou intends moving to the claim very soon.

Carl Davis returned Wednesday evening from Corvallis where he was called as a witness in the ejection cases of J. K. Weatherford vs. McKay, McCourt and Kyniston, which were taken from this to Benton county to be heard. Judge Harris has not rendered a decision as yet.

Mr. Irvin Replies.

Editor LEADER:—We commend the LEADER and the good people of Toledo in their united effort for the upbuilding of their town, and no one should find fault with any honest effort to make it the best town possible.

We have no better authority than the LEADER for the sentiment, that it is poor policy to attempt to build up a town at the expense of its neighbor. This is equally true of personal reputation. When one judges of the motives of another, they usually apply their own standard of measurement.

It is for the best interests of society that the people should not only take an interest in the public affairs of the county, but should express their opinions on such matters.

The LEADER has done a good service to the county in discussing its public affairs. Why then should I be censured and my motives misrepresented, for expressing an opinion, even if such opinion seems to be not in accord with some of the people of Toledo? Does Toledo claim a monopoly on private and public opinion as well as nearly everything else in the county? I would not ask Toledo to give us the sawmills, because they belong to private companies, and if we would get them we would have to deal direct with these companies. I would not ask Toledo to give us the county seat, because it belongs to the whole county, and they have placed it at Toledo for a little while until they find a better place for it. I would not ask Toledo for the high school, because that is under the control of the County High School Board, and we feel sure they will put it in the right place for the best interests of the county schools. I would not ask Toledo for any school or road district, because both of these matters are under the direction of the County Court, who will no doubt divide these districts with reference to the interests of the whole county.

There is no doubt but that "Toledo is on the map," but she is rather premature in presuming to be the whole county, with such things as county seat, county high school and road districts to give away. S. G. IRVIN. Newport, Or., March 1, 1910.

The loggers and mill hands are figuring on giving a big Loggers' Dance here the 12th.

The Fir & Spruce sawmill did not saw Monday and Tuesday on account of the storm.
