VOLUME 18
TOLEDO, LINCOLN COUNTY, OREGON, FRIDAY, MARCH 15, 1918.

COUNTY NEWS

News of each Community Gathered each week by Our Rustling Agricultural Editors

---

Waldport.

Banger Boys on duty again for last week on Sudder Mountain. C. B. Webb is delivering some feed this week and is reported to be having pretty good business at $1.50 per ton. Lots of Waldport freight is running daily to Captain Tyler’s store at the dock in Portland.

The Commercial Club has been meeting in the Waldport High School auditorium at the “Spirit of the Golden West” meeting during the First Festival during the week.

Little Elk.

Springs are here at last. Farmers are busy planting and sowing during this fine weather.

Irvis Mage and S. T. Louden moved in from Siletz on Wednesday and stayed at the Coen home last Monday evening.

Kerrville.

Word came that we would not get a hay in town with supplies very soon. So if the people get ready they will have to haul it in. H. P. and C. P. Parsons have gone to Newport after seed oats. C. L. Kellogg has joined them, which we are sure to see him at J. T. Dicken’s this week.

Jesse Farlee passed through on his way to his home on the other side.

A man was drowned in Salmon river the other day. Who was he we have not yet learned.

The Old school house is being dismantled and organized again next Sunday.

Prof. T. L. Lewis had a call Saturday to Ocean Park, to which place where they will visit friends for a while.

C. P. Strother and wife are visiting friends in Portland.

Dickie & Company are finishing building hay from Miss Kilman's.

Joe Dick has been busy the last few days herding cattle and moving up place.

We hear Miss Killman will start for Grand Sunday next week, which will be the last of her staying here. Mrs. P. G. Wheeler will start to the Coast Monday next week. We hear that she is feeling well and that she will enjoy her trip.

W. A. Mcdonald cut down a large tree for district No. 41.

They are all set for a good winter’s snow, and these dastardly weather conditions may make this winter a long one for the Waldporters. W. A. Williams said he had been to Washington to make final proof on her homestead last week, returning home Wednesday.

We are all looking forward to the winter weather by putting in our hay.

Dickie & Co. add two fully stocked freights this week.

O. M. McElvain, our new real estate agent, is busy with the district looking over the property.

Mr. Rack came to the Kerrville school after the school was done, who has been away since August.

George Thompson has returned from his visit to Portland.

Marko Castel is out in the Valley.

Ladies can be at Grand Hotel here to hear him.

School will start in the Win. disr.

the 25th inst.

B. E. O. Orict is teaching in Dist.

No. 3.

C. P. Pardee is doing a neat job of planting on the land he has rented.

Wm. Saunders is making himself a fine large redwood canoe.

C. P. Pardee is doing a neat job of planting on the land he has rented.

We have heard that the Kerrville school is doing a good job and is working well.

Vancouver.

Word came that we would not get a good load of hay in town with supplies very soon. So if the people get ready they will have to haul it in.

H. P. and C. P. Parsons have gone to Newport after seed oats. C. L. Kellogg has joined them, which we are sure to see him at J. T. Dicken’s this week.

Jesse Farlee passed through on his way to his home on the other side.

A man was drowned in Salmon river the other day. Who was he we have not yet learned.

The Old school house is being dismantled and organized again next Sunday.

Prof. T. L. Lewis had a call Saturday to Ocean Park, to which place where they will visit friends for a while.

C. P. Strother and wife are visiting friends in Portland.

Dickie & Company are finishing building hay from Miss Kilman’s.

Joe Dick has been busy the last few days herding cattle and moving up place.

We hear Miss Killman will start for Grand Sunday next week, which will be the last of her staying here. Mrs. P. G. Wheeler will start to the Coast Monday next week. We hear that she is feeling well and that she will enjoy her trip.

W. A. Mcdonald cut down a large tree for district No. 41.

They are all set for a good winter’s snow, and these dastardly weather conditions may make this winter a long one for the Waldporters. W. A. Williams said he had been to Washington to make final proof on her homestead last week, returning home Wednesday.

We are all looking forward to the winter weather by putting in our hay.

Dickie & Co. add two fully stocked freights this week.

O. M. McElvain, our new real estate agent, is busy with the district looking over the property.

Mr. Rack came to the Kerrville school after the school was done, who has been away since August.

George Thompson has returned from his visit to Portland.

Marko Castel is out in the Valley.

Ladies can be at Grand Hotel here to hear him.

School will start in the Win. disr.

the 25th inst.

B. E. O. Orict is teaching in Dist.

No. 3.

C. P. Pardee is doing a neat job of planting on the land he has rented.

Wm. Saunders is making himself a fine large redwood canoe.

C. P. Pardee is doing a neat job of planting on the land he has rented.

We have heard that the Kerrville school is doing a good job and is working well.

High School News.

The bowling season last Tuesday was well attended. Everyone on the program was prepared. In the debate, "Resolved, That women should be denied the ballot." the judges ruled in favor of the negative.

The speech "An American" for the affirmative and "An Englishman" for the negative.

The High School had its monthly examinations Friday.

Jessie Farlee returned from Portland Monday, and was at school Tuesday.

Several of the most industrious girls of the High School washed the dinner dishes, with much to the satisfaction of the students.

Mrs. Wagon has been absent on a trip to Portland to look after some of her business affairs.

A new group has been formed at the Kerrville school for the Winter sports.

Joel Beath, started school Wednesday.

Boys have taken place of leaving Tuesday.

The return of Hester Hill to school this week doubtless produced the number of the 15th Grade at the beginning of the school term.

The 11th Grade has finished "Contrary Tales" and is now reading a book of A. B. Chaffee's.

On the evening of March 10th, a group from the 9th grade, under the leadership of Mrs. Easter Grady successfully entertained her friends in the school. The evening ended with Miss Eleanor's 16th birthday.