

Reply to News-Reporter.

Newport, Or., March 12.
 Editor LEADER:—In reply to an editorial published in the last issue of the News-Reporter in relation to a shipment of potatoes made from Elk City in an early day, would say the shipment was made in the Fall of 1872 instead of 1892 as appeared in the LEADER. The number of sacks was 500 instead of 5000. The mistake, no doubt was a misprint. The name of the schooner that took the potatoes was the Lizzie, built at Alsea by Mr. Titus and named after his wife. The editor of the News-Reporter don't seem to be very well posted in the early history of Yaquina bay, or he would have known this.

From the report of the committee appointed to take soundings of the river at low water from Toledo to Oysterville it was found that the channel was much deeper and better than a good many men, who pretended to know, said it was.

At an early day the ranchers at Elk City raised more potatoes than they do now. The soil was new and rich and produced most luxuriantly all kinds of vegetables. The purpose of the article published in the LEADER was to show that the channel of Yaquina was much deeper in an early day than it is now, after being filled with mud and sand washed in from the rock quarries located along the river and from the brush and trees cut from the banks of the upper river washing down, sinking and forming bars in the channel. Before this was done vessels braving from 8 to 10 feet of water could go easily to Elk City the head of navigation. The T. M. Richardson, drawing 6 or 7 feet of water, frequently went to Elk City, the General Wright, a government vessel, went to Elk City once or twice. She drew 8 to 10 feet of water. The Volanta, a fast running little steamer, built on the Bay, made a number of trips to Elk City. She drew 8 1/2 or 9 feet of water. The tug Tenquin, Capt. Loll, took from the rock quarries at Elk City in one summer sixteen thousand tons of rock to be used in the jetty work at the mouth of the Bay. She never had any trouble going up nor down the river towing two large barges.

The logging on Depot slough also had much to do in breaking down the banks of the slough, the mud and sand washing into the river forming shoals and sand bars thus obstructing navigation. Then again there is a number of snags and submerged logs in the channel that should be removed.

The cost of improving the river in this way so that vessels drawing from 10 to 12 feet of water would be $6000 or $8000. This would permit vessels of the above draft to go to Elk City and Toledo without any trouble.

It is a proper thing for the people of Toledo to take the initiative in this matter and demonstrate to the world by actual work that Yaquina river can be made deep enough by a small outlay of money to do a large business in the line of shipping lumber from Toledo and Elk City to the markets of the world. The Editor of the News-Reporter don't believe this but I am sure it can and will be done.

The Great Spirit has placed this beautiful river and harbor here for the purpose of navigation and we should use it.

A boat now drawing twelve feet of water can go to Toledo.

Onions.

How about raising onions? I have never seen anything in the papers regarding onions in Lincoln county, it is all apples. Now, when onions are nearly always from 90c to $1.50 per bushel why not give onion raising a little boost?

We have hundreds of acres of the very best soil in the world for raising them. We do not have to irrigate and all we do have to do is to pick a piece of sandy ground along any of our streams and put on some barnyard manure to warm the ground early in the season, as they should be planted as early as practicable after the first of March, although I have seen good onions raised that were planted after the first of May, but that will not always do to risk.

Mrs. J. January is the Onion Queen of Harlan. She raises all the way from fifty to three hundred bushels every year and has gained a reputation for her onions to such an extent that where she has sold, she tells me, she can get fifty cents more on the bushel than other onions sell for. They grow large and are very mild flavored.

STIFF NECK.

Stiff neck is caused by rheumatism of the muscles of the neck. It is usually confined to one side, or to the back of the neck and one side. While it is often quite painful, quick relief may be had by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. Not one case of rheumatism in ten requires internal treatment. When there is no fever and no swelling as in muscular and chronic rheumatism, Chamberlain's Liniment will accomplish more than any internal treatment. For sale by Toledo Drug Co.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Lincoln County.

Mrs. Annie Jones, Plaintiff, vs. Laura McCullum, Esther McCullum, Edith McCullum, Golda McCullum, Peter McCullum, Flora McCullum, Sarah McCullum, Townsend McCullum and William N. Burden, Defendants. To Laura McCullum, Esther McCullum, Edith McCullum, Golda McCullum, Peter McCullum, Flora McCullum, Sarah McCullum and Townsend McCullum, eight of the above named defendants:

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON You are hereby required to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint on file herein on or before the first day of April, 1910, the same being the last day in the time prescribed in the order for publication of this summons, and you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint as herein required, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in her complaint, viz:

For a decree adjudging the amount due on plaintiff's note and mortgage to be the sum of $1,000.00, together with accruing interest thereon to the date hereof at the rate of ten per cent per annum; that $100.00 be adjudged a reasonable attorney's fee; that the plaintiff's mortgage be foreclosed and the real property therein described as follows: Beginning at the N. W. corner of the SW 1/4 of the SW 1/4 of Section 28, Township 10 S., Range 11 W. of the Will. Mer. in Lincoln County, Oregon, running thence south 20 rods, thence east 80 rods, thence north 20 rods, thence west 80 rods to the place of beginning, be sold as by law upon execution and that the proceeds therefrom be applied as follows: First to the payment of costs and disbursements of this suit, the accruing costs and attorney's fees; second: to the payment of amount due to plaintiff as found and determined by the court; third: the overplus if any be paid into court, to await the further order of this court, and a further order that each and all of the defendants be forever barred and foreclosed from any right, title, interest or claim of, in or to said real property or any part thereof.

The time prescribed in the order for publication of this summons is once a week in seven consecutive and successive issues of the Lincoln County Leader, a weekly newspaper, published and of general circulation in Lincoln County, Oregon.

The date of the first publication hereof is February 18th, 1910, the date of the last publication is April 1st, 1910, the date of the order directing publication is February 11th, 1910. Dated this 12th day of February, 1910. L. M. C. J., Atty for plaintiff.
