Harem Cheaper than Wife.

A few months ago King Edward announced that the distinctive feature of an American woman was her back. He could tell at a glance from the rear whether a woman hailed from this country by the way in which she was gowned.

This is all right so far as it goes, but it is a very slight instance. There are a good many other distinctions which go to make up the American women, notably her general outlook on life, which is that man was made for her amusement and her support. Our men do not dispute the fact. They are never permitted to talk back, so they simply grab a little harder to pay the ever-increasing pile of bills which come in.

It is estimated that a man in Persia or Turkey can maintain a first-class harem on half the sum that a single American wife costs a man of equal standing with the oriental. We give this for what it is worth, not that it bears upon the matter in hand. Americans are immune from polygamy, even if there were no other factor than the cost.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

One Glaring Exception.

"Is there anything the people of this country cannot do," vociferated the orator, "if they unitedly say it shall be done?"

"Yes," spoke up the fussy old person in the audience; "there's one thing they can't do."

"What is it, sir?"

"They can't get the battleship Maine raised."—Chicago Tribune.

One on the Doctor.

The Rev. Dr. Fourthly—Brother Hardesty, in view of your present spiritual coldness, how do you think you would feel if you were called upon to die?

Brother Hardesty—I think I'd feel a good deal of curiosity, doctor, to know whether all the things you've told me about the other world were quite correct or not.

Elaborate Revenge.

"Paw, wasn't that a horrible dinner?"

"It was, Tommy."

"But you handed the waiter a dime when we went away. What did you do that for?"

"I wanted to convey the idea to him, Tommy, as delicately as possible, that if he'd brought us a good feed it would have been a half dollar."
