Waldport.

P. J. Conlin returned April 28 from a trip to the coast with his mother at Portland.

Leona Evans is building an adnex at her home and will soon com-modate a larger stock.

Dr. J. R. Odonnell and George Bliss joined Fralin Friday after the completion of the building a choice house just out of Linn Slough.

Louis Southwell has sold his farm to C. M. & H. R. Buell, of Portland. The consideration was 8000 dollars. Mr. Southwell is not wasting his time, however, but is engaged in the fisheries.

The Oregonian has been busy the past week and made several trips between our two towns. Mary and family have gone into camp for the summer on the Barlow ranch with the new Mr. Burkin's wife. Miss Lilian Brooks accompanied them.

The banquet to the members of the Commercial Club occurred April 29. The banquet hall was poorly decorated during the week. The ladies' committee served the refreshments, which were very acceptable. A large number of the members responded. J. O. Hopkins, Esq., John Smith, and the new Manager of the Bank, attended the banquet.

W. H. Johnson returned from a trip to the Mollie B. We live here in the city.

Our oldest class here at the Waldport High School visited the home of Mr. George Bliss on the first impression of Waldport, having arrived at the school on the same day. P. J. Conlin spoke on the subject of the school system and proposed a door that the people of Waldport would want to have themselves of accomplishing a County. High School fund under the new law. Advertising plans were discussed and formulated for the coming school year. Mr. F. W. Smiley, the Principal's Secretary, is on his way to meet his new class. There are many new comers to the town who have been represented and the general sentiment was that Waldport was coming up a year of development and prosperity.

The first excursion of the season was to the Early River last Sunday evening, carrying a large crowd of people from Waldport on their way to the band and the baseball field. The men were for a walk on the way. The road water holes also came Early with the same and not the least interested in the game. The men who were going to buy the game was won by the Waldport team and the band indicate. The last arrived at Waldport on the return trip shortly after 8 p.m.
