Walport

Sheriff Rosen was in town last week serving warrants for Judge Gutsin. John H. Johnstone, walport's postmaster, and Waldport's Post office was visited by a U.S. Post Office inspector last week. John Stone will make his weekly visit to the post office this week.

Minnie Miller entertained many of her friends here last week with her home flat in honor of her 60th birthday. M. B. Perl and Mrs. B. B. Herrin were among those who enjoyed the event.

There is considerable speculation as to who will be the next mayor of Waldport. Several of the candidates have the support of the Lannon Furniture Co. among others. At the present time, a mayoral candidate is expected to be announced by the Waldport Union. The election will be held on the first Tuesday in June. If the election is not close, the new mayor will take office on the first Monday in July.

Superintendent Williams and others are working on the harbor near the Hays property. We understand that Waldport will celebrate the fourth of July, and also hold a regatta.

The Poets Society is holding a reception at the steps of their society. As promised last week we can report that the wedding of Miss Esther Williams to Paul Coulter of Waldport. Both are young people of this community and we understand that Paul Coulter has been a resident of Waldport for several years.

Although we have just received word of the engagement of Mr. and Mrs. Messenger, we have not confirmed it yet. As soon as we have more details we will report them.

Rock Creek

Our school teacher, R. E. Brown, is attending the institute at Raleigh, Ohio this week. He is studying agriculture and education.

We are happy to report that the school district has received a large donation of books and supplies from the School Board.

Kerenville

Mrs. Rosie Farm will accompany the children on their way to school. They will go next Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Johnson have moved to the farm where they will continue their farming operations. They will be away for a short time.
