Newport 18; Toledo 7.
The base ball game last Sunday was a very one-sided affair resulting in the score above named. Newport came prepared to win the game having one of the strongest aggregations of players ever gotten together in Lincoln county, then Toledo was unfortunate in making several very costly fumbles. Fenton of Dallas who was pitching for Newport was a host in himself, being the star player of the team. The Toledo boys have been practicing this week and expect to make a better showing Sunday when they play Elk City.

Married.
At the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. O. Smith, in this city, Tuesday, June 28, 1910, Mr. Luie Myers and Miss Eliza Volk, both of this city. Rev. C. R. Ellsworth officiating.

Miss Nellie Brown went to Corvallis to spend the Summer.
J. E. Wilson was down from Chitwood a few hours last Monday.

The first automobile from the Valley this season passed through Toledo for Newport this morning. In passing we might remark that those great and mighty rock obstructions which some of our knockers told us was in the river channel did not materialize upon a careful sounding and examination of the river. Maybe it was only a "rocky" dream after all.

Card of Thanks.
