Well Meant, but Rude.

The wedding was over and the guests had departed, when a terrific din broke upon the stillness.

The tooting of tin pans, and the ringing of cow bells could be distinguished clearly, while agonizing screeches from unidentified instruments and the diabolical noise produced by drawing a scantling across one edge of a dry goods box contributed their share to the volume of sound.

The bride, a young woman recently from Boston, turned pale.

"Harold," she said, turning to the bridegroom, "those friends of yours doubtless mean well, and I appreciate their heartiness and sincerity, but I shall consider it a great favor if you will go out and request them to discontinue their epithalamium. It is quite too boisterous and may attract attention."—Chicago Tribune.

She Was Frank.

Miss Mary Morris, daughter of the late William Morris, poet and craftsman, said at a dinner in New York: "I like the American taste for its frankness. Better be frank, even if wrong. The pretty American girl was by no means hopeless whose comment on first seeing the incomparable glory of the Venus de Medici was, 'I wouldn't be seen dead with ankles like that!'"

Conceded It.

"Colonel, don't you think, as the result of your observation during many years of public life, that the holding of a government position tends to take away a man's independence and make him merely a machine?" asked the inquisitive acquaintance.

"Undoubtedly," said the internal revenue collector. "There was a time, for instance, when, if you had asked me such a question as that, I should have kicked you out of my office, but I have become used to such things now and don't mind them at all."

Too Slow for This Age.

"Grandma, you never took a joy ride, did you?"

"Yes, child, once; but you wouldn't call it joy riding nowadays."

"When was it, grandma?"

"Sixteen years ago. I took a ride in the Ferris wheel."

"How fast did you go?"

"The wheels made one revolution in about fifteen minutes."

"Shucks!"—Chicago Tribune.

Couldn't Fool Mrs. G.

They were looking at a famous collection of paintings, and had stopped in front of a "Portrait of a Lady."

"Why, that's a Rembrandt!" delightedly exclaimed Mrs. Upson.

"I'm not so sure about that," said Mrs. Gaswell, bringing her lognette to bear upon it. "It looks to me more like a Merry Widow."

A Cough Medicine

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is a regular cough medicine, a strong medicine, a doctor's medicine. Good for easy coughs, hard coughs, desperate coughs. If your doctor endorses it for your case, take it. If not, don't take it. Never go contrary to his advice.

We publish our formulae. We banish ailments from our medicines. We urge you to consult your doctor.

The dose of Ayer's Pills is small, only one at bedtime. As a rule, laxative doses are better than cathartic doses. For constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia, sick-headaches, they cannot be excelled. Ask your doctor about this.

Made by the J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

Since he has begun taking Cascarets he has never had the headache. They have entirely cured him. Cascarets do what you recommend them to do. I will give you the privilege of using his name."—E. M.
