Outclassed.

Wearied with his everlasting hike, the Wandering Jew stopped to rest. "What's the use?" he exclaimed. "I can't keep up with old man Weston to save my life! He's forty miles ahead of me and going like the wind!"

Running a trembling hand through his flowing beard, he proceeded to heap a few choice maledictions on the day of his birth.

"In Norway," remarked the globe trotter, "no girl is allowed to have a beau until she can bake bread and knit stockings."

"In this country," rejoined the fussy bachelor, "there should be a law forbidding any girl having a beau until she is able to navigate the streets without the aid of a dog on the end of a string."—Chicago News.

What does that mean?

It means that the men that in a past generation would have been independent merchants are now the employees of these stores, and never can be anything else; employees on wages with time checks, fines, and their daily work dependent upon a manager's caprice. That is their prospect in life. It is hard (in some of its aspects), and we dislike to admit it, but it is the truth.

The gigantic department stores and mail order houses are built of the ruins of independent stores, just as the Christian churches of Rome were built of the fragments of the old temples, and each independent store destroyed is an independent merchant turned into a salaried employee.—Charles Edward Russell in Success Magazine.

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

Seeing Things Differently.

"What you lack, my boy," said his elderly uncle, "is the definite purpose, the steady aim, the overmastering impulse, the all-absorbing, all-compelling determination to force your way to the front, regardless of whatever obstacles may lie in your pathway."

"No, uncle," demurred the nephew; "I've got every one of those things—all I lack is the sixty horse power automobile."

Shake Into Your Shoes

Against the Law.

Sheriff—Hi, thar, what you doin with them thar worms?

Fisherman—I'm putting a new worm on my hook. That confounded perch got away with the last one.

Sheriff—I guess you'll have ter come along with me. Don't ye know that rebates is agin' the laws of these here United States?—Independent.

What's the Use?

"You don't take your doctor with you when you travel now, I see," said his confidential friend.

"No," said the financial magnate; "he's too tyrannical. Besides, it's just as cheap to have him fix me up after I've come back from one of my long trips."

Succinctly Stated.

Visitor—I have often heard of your "elevated loop problem." What is it?

Old Resident (who happens to be a stockholder)—The problem is how to get the most nickels out of it with the least expenditure of money on it.—Chicago Tribune.

LAZY LIVER

"I find Cascarets so good that I would not be without them. I was troubled a great deal with torpid liver and headache. Now since taking Cascarets Candy Cathartic I feel very much better. I shall certainly recommend them to my friends as the best medicine I have ever seen."

Anna Bazinet,
