The Toledo meat market has again changed hands. Messrs. Paine & Gorke have sold out to Johnny and Ott Nye, who took charge of the business the first of the week. Johnny Nye has been in the meat business here for the past several years and our people know they will be well served as they have been in the past. Messrs. Paine and Gorke have not decided what they will do, but will soon find something to engage in.

Coos Bay cities will have a week of festivities beginning August 15th. Mayors of Oregon cities have been invited to attend the Coos Bay Carnival and it is expected a Mayors' Association will be formed. There will be all kinds of water sports, races, music, clam bakes, dances and many varied forms of entertainment for all who attend. Many are expected from Willamette Valley points and Southern Oregon, while Portland will send down a large delegation to participate.
