A Premium has been killed in America by regulations, the French do not know how to do it in their own work.

A earl or a senator in France is out of a job as soon as the premium is dead. If he has no other work, he will be an exporter of American goods, without a premium or a mandate.

People often ask me what I mean by "Americanism." I mean to say that a man who has been born in France does not have to go to America to be a success. People who have been born in France do not have to go to America to be a success.

A Premium has been killed in America by regulations, the French do not know how to do it in their own work.

A earl or a senator in France is out of a job as soon as the premium is dead. If he has no other work, he will be an exporter of American goods, without a premium or a mandate.

People often ask me what I mean by "Americanism." I mean to say that a man who has been born in France does not have to go to America to be a success. People who have been born in France do not have to go to America to be a success.

A Premium has been killed in America by regulations, the French do not know how to do it in their own work.

A earl or a senator in France is out of a job as soon as the premium is dead. If he has no other work, he will be an exporter of American goods, without a premium or a mandate.

People often ask me what I mean by "Americanism." I mean to say that a man who has been born in France does not have to go to America to be a success. People who have been born in France do not have to go to America to be a success.

A Premium has been killed in America by regulations, the French do not know how to do it in their own work.

A earl or a senator in France is out of a job as soon as the premium is dead. If he has no other work, he will be an exporter of American goods, without a premium or a mandate.

People often ask me what I mean by "Americanism." I mean to say that a man who has been born in France does not have to go to America to be a success. People who have been born in France do not have to go to America to be a success.

A Premium has been killed in America by regulations, the French do not know how to do it in their own work.

A earl or a senator in France is out of a job as soon as the premium is dead. If he has no other work, he will be an exporter of American goods, without a premium or a mandate.

People often ask me what I mean by "Americanism." I mean to say that a man who has been born in France does not have to go to America to be a success. People who have been born in France do not have to go to America to be a success.

A Premium has been killed in America by regulations, the French do not know how to do it in their own work.

A earl or a senator in France is out of a job as soon as the premium is dead. If he has no other work, he will be an exporter of American goods, without a premium or a mandate.

People often ask me what I mean by "Americanism." I mean to say that a man who has been born in France does not have to go to America to be a success. People who have been born in France do not have to go to America to be a success.

A Premium has been killed in America by regulations, the French do not know how to do it in their own work.

A earl or a senator in France is out of a job as soon as the premium is dead. If he has no other work, he will be an exporter of American goods, without a premium or a mandate.

People often ask me what I mean by "Americanism." I mean to say that a man who has been born in France does not have to go to America to be a success. People who have been born in France do not have to go to America to be a success.

A Premium has been killed in America by regulations, the French do not know how to do it in their own work.

A earl or a senator in France is out of a job as soon as the premium is dead. If he has no other work, he will be an exporter of American goods, without a premium or a mandate.

People often ask me what I mean by "Americanism." I mean to say that a man who has been born in France does not have to go to America to be a success. People who have been born in France do not have to go to America to be a success.

A Premium has been killed in America by regulations, the French do not know how to do it in their own work.

A earl or a senator in France is out of a job as soon as the premium is dead. If he has no other work, he will be an exporter of American goods, without a premium or a mandate.

People often ask me what I mean by "Americanism." I mean to say that a man who has been born in France does not have to go to America to be a success. People who have been born in France do not have to go to America to be a success.

A Premium has been killed in America by regulations, the French do not know how to do it in their own work.

A earl or a senator in France is out of a job as soon as the premium is dead. If he has no other work, he will be an exporter of American goods, without a premium or a mandate.

People often ask me what I mean by "Americanism." I mean to say that a man who has been born in France does not have to go to America to be a success. People who have been born in France do not have to go to America to be a success.

A Premium has been killed in America by regulations, the French do not know how to do it in their own work.

A earl or a senator in France is out of a job as soon as the premium is dead. If he has no other work, he will be an exporter of American goods, without a premium or a mandate.

People often ask me what I mean by "Americanism." I mean to say that a man who has been born in France does not have to go to America to be a success. People who have been born in France do not have to go to America to be a success.