"Did you have the soil of your back yard analyzed by the agricultural department?"

ATCHISON GLOBE SIGHTS.

The trouble with luck is it is mostly of the wrong kind.

Some homes always look as if the family has just moved in.

About the only vacation some people get is in interruptions in their work.

A woman is immensely flattered if her husband tells her she is "broad minded."

As soon as we get rid of one difficulty, we usually find another waiting to take its place.

The only people who really have a good time are those who enjoy being imposed upon.

Occasionally you meet a man who dislikes to attract attention. But such men are extremely rare.

There are a good many devils in the world, according to the man who always wants to give the devil his due.

The older people get, the less regard they have for looks in their "nighties," and the more for comfort.

Women use the same expressions of sorrow in telling of a disappointment in a dressmaker as of a disappointment in love.

A man was trying to speak of a pacifier to-day, and referred to him as "peaceflier." Why isn't "peaceflier" a good word?

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

Still Cheaper.

"Isn't it cheaper to move than to pay rent?" I inquired of the young married man.

"I suppose it is," he replied with a settled air, "but my plan is cheaper than either; I live with my father-in-law."

Hint at the Reason.

"The patient is much better today, nurse."

"Yes, doctor. You remember you didn't call yesterday."

Not Particularly Impressed.

Mr. Upsome—You had a good time seeing the Riviera while you were abroad, I presume.

Mr. Struckett-Ritch—Er—yes, but one performance was enough for me. I've seen it played lots better right here in Cincinnati.—Chicago Tribune.

Same Old Kind.

Ruggles—Have you a fireless cooker in your kitchen?

Raggles—Yes, but it's fireless because I can't afford to buy fuel for it any more.

THE KEYSTONE TO HEALTH IS HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS

The process of digestion and assimilation depends entirely upon the condition of the stomach. If yours is weak take a short course of the Bitters. It prevents Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Cramps and Diarrhoea.

SHEAR NONSENSE

Howard—Mrs. Holmes gets on much better with her husband than she used to. Coward—Same husband?—Life.

"Is that your mother-in-law over there, smiling at you?" "No. If she's smiling at me it isn't my mother-in-law."

She—Of course, I'm not as old as you think I am. He—I hope not—I mean you can't be—that is—how old are you?

"He's got no license to talk the way he does." "Oh, he's got a license all right. What he lacks is a muzzle."—Cleveland Leader.

"An optimist is one of them chaps, I guess," says Uncle Sam, "who don't care a hang what happens so long's it don't happen ter him."

Laffan—You are rich enough to buy an automobile. Why don't you do it? Grofat—Because I'm not rich enough to own one.—Chicago Tribune.

"That fellow seems to be extravagant." "Hopelessly. He spends his own money just as if it were the government's."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

"I'm going to marry Dick." "Why, you told me you weren't in love with him." "I'm not, but I've just heard that a girl I hate is!"—Cleveland Leader.

"What do you think, my dear? Such luck! We leave for Paris in an hour." "Really?" "Yes, we're going to Pasteur's. My husband has just been bitten by a mad dog."—Bon Vivant.

"Why are children so much worse than they used to be?" "I attribute it to improved ideas in building." "How so?" "Shingles are scarce, and you can't spank a boy with a tin roof."

"And did you really go to Rome?" asked the guest. "I really don't know, my dear," replied the hostess, just returned from her first trip abroad. "You see, my husband always bought the tickets."

Mr. Highbrow—It was Michelet, I believe, who observed that "woman is the salt of a man's life." Miss Keen—Quite true! Young men aren't half so fresh after they get married.—Boston Transcript.

"Hello, mate, 'ow is it you ain't workin'?"

"Well, it's like this: I works in a domino factory, and I puts on the spots, and they're making double blanks to-day!"

Wearly William—What did ye tell dat lady when she asked ye if ye wuz equal to de task o' sawin' wood? Tattered Tom—I tol' her dat equal wuzn't de word. I wuz superior to it.—Chicago Daily News.

"My steady looks exactly like Apollol!" sighed the sentimental one. "That ain't narten," sniffed the lass of the glove counter. "My beau is the original for the Peerless Perfection Dress Shirt ads."—Puck.

"Why did that picture cost so much?" "Well," answered Mr. Cumrox, "to tell you the truth, I have an idea it is because the dealer who sold it to me is a good business man."—Washington Evening Star.

"Clear out o' here, ye sassy little brat!" shouted the cook, thumping the table with a rolling-pin. The little girl gave the cook a haughty look. "I never allow anyone but my mother to speak to me like that!" she said.

Judge (sternly)—Three times in a month! What do you make of this, sir? Rastus (apologetically)—Deed I doan' make nuffin'. You fellows up here seem to be de only ones dat get any 'cunlary profit out of hauling me up.—Puck.

Her—Great heavens! My worst fears are realized! Him—What on earth's the matter? Her—I've got a telegram—Him—Yes—yes! What does it say? Her—I don't know. I haven't dared to open it yet!—Cleveland Leader.

"Scientists have decided that Methuselah was only seventy-nine years old." "That is more like it. It is absurd to suppose that any man could have lived to the age of 969 years." "Oh, I don't know—there were no automobiles in those days."—Houston Post.

"Jim," said an honest coal dealer to one of his drivers; "Jim, make that ton of coal two hundred pounds short. It is for a poor, delicate widow, and she will have to carry all of it up two flights of stairs, I don't want her to overtax her strength."—Philadelphia Kronikle-Herald.

Pompano—Why do you work so hard, Bagley? You slave from morning until night.

Bagley—I know I do. I wish to get

PACIFIC FLY REPELLANT
Drives away Flies, Mosquitoes and Gnats. It protects horses and cattle from attacks of insects, enabling them to feed and sleep in peace. It prevents loss of weight and strength from worry caused by attacks of insects, and from the irritation of their bites and stings. There is a satisfaction in the relief it affords domestic animals from the scourge of maddening parasites and flies, besides the profit in returns. Horses do more work on less feed and cows yield more and better milk when relieved from the frenzy incited by constantly fighting a swarm of voracious, insatiable insects.
Four sizes, 25c, 50c, 75c and $1.25. Ask your merchant for it.
