W. F. Matthews of Portland was with us last week and made a trip down the beach to Florence.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kent spent a few days with us and were saluted Saturday evening in the usual "newlywed" style.

Cans are now arriving at the Lutgens cannery. The first load was brought down on the 24th.

R. P. Goin and wife spent Thanksgiving with relatives at Waldport.

O. V. Hurt and family of Newport were visiting a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson at Yachats.

The Yachats telephone company has decided to build a new line to accommodate some of the town subscribers and incidentally to relieve the other lines.

The school house at the Yachats which was being built by Geo. Bissell is now complete and has been accepted by the directors.

The Thanksgiving dance at Waldport was well attended. The band furnished the music, and now that fishing is over the boys will probably be called upon frequently.

The match at Waldport Thanksgiving was well attended and very interesting. Another is being arranged for December 24th and it is hoped to make it more attractive than the one just passed. Those in charge will make an announcement later.

Summit and Nashville

Mrs. Wade of Denver bought Mr. Desbrow's place here at Nashville. The lady has a foreman and a man here to take the place in hand and we expect to see a big change in the near future.

We have no school this week. Our teacher is busy at home taking care of the sick. Mr. Miller's children are all down with the measles.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Storm

Strouts, on the 27th of November, a big boy.

J. O. Davis was up to the station the other day looking for a good trade.

Bert Swalla soon intends to build a house on his homestead back of Mr. Curry's place.

There is strong talk of getting a switch at Summit. Why not encourage the scheme and connect with them.

Bay View

Married—At the home of the bride's parents on Thursday, November 24, 1910, Mr. Walter Kent and Miss Erma Trombly, of Bay View were joined in holy bonds of matrimony, Rev. R. R. Guyan officiating. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Burt Trombly, Mr. and Mrs. James Kent, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Goin, Mrs. E. C. Rowin, George Rowin, Mrs. L. L. Rowin, Andrew Kent, Ross Hayes and Percy Trombly. We wish them a long and happy life.

The storm and high tides have washed away a portion of our tramway. It looks as if the people would have to repair it or go on mud flats as of old.

Hendry Hendrickson is spending a few days in Toledo.

Miss Aldura Brigs has been on the sick list for a few days.

Percy Trombly has been quite ill, but is able to be out again.

There was a party at Bert Edwards' Saturday evening. Suppose every one had a good time.

Mrs. Ida Olson was a Bay View visitor Monday.

In spite of the rain quite a number turned out and serenaded the newly married pair last Thursday night.

E. S. Oakland fell and fractured a rib one day last week. He is able to attend business, though.

Little Elk.

Lame back comes on suddenly and is extremely painful. It is caused by rheumatism of the muscles. Quick relief is afforded by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. Sold by Toledo Drug Company.

Baby's shoes at Fish's

Rod and Gun Club.

Quite a bunch of Toledo's young men met at the store of the Toledo Drug Co. last Tuesday evening and organized what is to be known as the Toledo Rod and Gun Club.

Frank Newton was made temporary chairman of the meeting and I. R. Wishart, secretary. About fifteen signed up as charter members. Initiation fee was placed at $2.50, and monthly dues were placed at 25 cents.

The meeting then adjourned to meet next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the real estate office of Crosno & Christopher to perfect permanent organization, elect officers, etc.

The object of the organization is to afford entertainment and amusement for our boys. Tournaments—both fishing and shooting will be held. A shooting range will be fitted up on the Fair grounds, where shot gun and rifle shooting contests will be held.

Besides the field sports, a social feature will be added, smokers and other entertainments will be held. This organization will be the means of drawing our young fellows together and affording them recreation and amusements.

Every man and boy in Toledo and surrounding country is invited to join the club. Come out to the meeting next Tuesday evening and assist in getting the club started.

George Lewis of Winant was in the city Saturday.

John Olson came up from Newport Monday morning.

W. E. Lingenfelter was a passenger up the line yesterday, returning last evening.

Frank Thompson of upper Big Elk arrived in Toledo this morning, returning from a trip through the Alsea country.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Peterson returned Saturday evening from an extended visit at Portland, Vancouver, Elmira and other points.

Last Saturday morning the baggage car on the morning passenger caught fire from the stove. On the train's arrival at Toledo the hose was turned on the fire which was soon extinguished. The fire was confined to the floor beneath the stove.

Monday evening the C. & E. passenger train was derailed near Nashville. The accident was caused by the rails spreading. Fortunately no one was injured seriously, and the only inconvenience resulting to the passengers being in a delay of a couple of hours.

Masquerade Ball.

Rosebrook's Orchestra will give a grand mask ball in Toledo on Friday night, December 23. This promises to be the big social event of the season. The orchestra will be composed of several pieces, and promises good music. See posters later.
