It's Different in Life.

"In novels the virtuous hero always waits twenty years for the equally virtuous heroine; in real life neither waits for the other more than 20 minutes, and sometimes not even that, if there is anything more exciting going on."—"Diana of Dreams," by G. B. Burgin.

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

His Parting Shot.

A local minister had had a serious time in fighting the saloon element in his town and had not been backed up in his efforts by the members of his own church. This with other troubles had led to his resignation, and in announcing his departure at his farewell sermon he said: "I am going to do something the devil has never done. I am going to leave O—."

ROUGH ON THE POOR TRAMP

Thirsty Traveler Unknowingly Pumps Water Into Cistern of Ingenious Lazy Individual.

The tramp had walked a good three miles and was particularly thirsty. A sudden turn in the road brought him to the foot of a steep hill, at the top of which stood a large house. The tramp paused a moment before attempting the Herculean feat of storming the hill. He felt hungry and thirsty. He glanced to the left. These words caught his eye: "Tarry, traveler, and refresh thyself." The tramp was sorry the sign was attached to a pump-handle. However, water was better than nothing, so he commenced to pump. The spout remained dry. He pumped with more vigor. Still no water. After ten minutes of hard work he said harsh things about the pump, and continued his journey. At the top of the hill he mentioned his grievance to a native. The latter pointed to the fine house across the road.

"The owner of that house," he said, "has some big water-cisterns which have to be filled from a stream in the valley. He is too lazy to fill 'em himself, though; so he rigged up that pump and connected it with his cistern, and now—"

But the tramp was already sprinting across the road to argue with the man who owned the pump.

Juror Catches Judge Asleep.

Men who are summoned for jury duty are ingenious in their excuses, and it often happens that the selections of a jury is the most diverting part of the case. One who was called in the county court here complained that he was deaf.

"You say that you are deaf?" said the judge.

"Eh, what is it you say?" said the man.

"I said, are you deaf?" observed the judge in a louder tone.

"You'll have to speak louder," was the reply, "or I can't hear you."

"I guess we'll excuse you," said the judge; "you can go."

The deaf man had no trouble hearing the court's last remark and sped out of the courtroom.

"I think that's one on the judge," observed one of the attorneys.

Making a Vote Count.

Louis M. Sanders, Republican candidate for alderman of the Second ward, Orange, N. J., is responsible for the following yarn:

It was election day in a small Michigan city, when a prominent politician happened to meet an old dorky servant of his.

"Well, Bambo," asked Mr. Smith, "how did you vote today?"

"I ain't voted yet, boss," said Bambo.

"Why is that?" said Mr. Smith.

"Well, boss, it's dis a-way. De Prohibitionists dey give me $10 to vote their ticket and the Republicans dey give me $5 to vote their ticket. Ah's goin' to wait to see how corrupt all de parties is 'fore I vote, en then Ah's goin' to vote for the leastest."

Got Nothing From Legacy.
The deacons of a Baptist chapel in Wiltshire, England, got a shock when they heard the contents of the will of one of the chapel trustees, who died in December, 1908. By a codicil he left a hundred pounds to the chapel for each deacon who attended his funeral. There were nine deacons, but not one of them attended; so instead of the £900 by which the chapel might have been the richer, the legacy was void.

Appeal Made Effective.
A certain Harford (Md.) farmer has hit upon a mode of relief from trespassing fowls belonging to his neighbors. On one end of a thread four inches long he fastened a grain of corn and on the other end a tag inscribed "Please keep me home." These were scattered where the trespassers were usually found, and a score or more of hens carried home the appeal.

Feminine Moods.
"Women will go far in certain moods, far beyond their own fears and nearer to the dictates of temper than a man would dare. Let the stress be great enough, and the kindest of them will become as the most cruel, the gentlest as the actually criminal."—"The Girl With the Red Hair," by Max Pemberton.

Stops Hair Falling

Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, will certainly stop falling of the hair. Indeed, we believe it will always do this unless there is some disturbance of the general health. Then, a constitutional medicine may be necessary. Consult your physician about this.

The reason why Ayer's Hair Vigor stops falling hair is because it first destroys the germs which cause this trouble. After this is done, nature soon brings about a full recovery, restoring the hair and scalp to a perfectly healthy condition.

PORTLAND CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

U. S. Cashier Co. Portland, Or., Nov. 3, 1910.
Dear Sirs—I have the pleasure in notifying you that at a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, held Nov. 1st, 1910, I was directed to state that the demonstration of your automatic coin paying machine convinced the Trustees of its excellence, that they consider it perfect in every way, and that a factory for the manufacture of these machines would be an unusually desirable industry for Portland. I am, yours respectfully, (Signed) E. C. GILTNER, Secretary.

LADD & TILTON BANK, PORTLAND, OR.
A device of this character has long been desired by the banks and is thoroughly practicable. I can readily see that with a machine as perfect as yours is at the present time that the natural evolution of the machine would evidently be something startling.
