

Years of Suffering

Catarrh and Blood Disease—Doctors Failed to Cure.

Miss Mabel F. Dawkins, 1214 Lafayette St., Fort Wayne, Ind., writes: "For three years I was troubled with catarrh and blood disease. I tried several doctors and a dozen different remedies, but none of them did me any good. A friend told me of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I took two bottles of this medicine and was as well and strong as ever. I feel like a different person and recommend Hood's to any one suffering from catarrh."

The Overamused Children.
Don't make your children blasé by giving them too many treats. Young children do not need amusements; the more simply and quietly they live the more chance is there that they will grow up strong and healthy. Overamused children are never happy; they are always craving for more excitement, and, consequently, are discontented.

A Single Exception.
"Do you think a memory for dates helps a man?" "Sometimes," replied Farmer Cornstassel. "But not when he is selling spring chickens."

UMC NITRO CLUB and NEW CLUB SHOT SHELLS

During fifty years, four generations of shooters have sworn by the "old yellow shells"—UMC NEW CLUBS.

They have never been found wanting where, wary, hard-to-kill game is concerned. Misfires are never thought of with these old reliable, hard hitting shells.

A smokeless powder shell equally popular in its class is the NITRO CLUB Steel Lined Shell. The powder charge protected by the steel lining guarantees a uniform load when hunting under the most severe weather conditions.

MAN DISSIPATED TOO MUCH

Indulges in Soda, "Penny Dip" at Church Social and Stayed Out Until Nine O'Clock.

"Yes, I'm dissipating too much," said the red-faced rustic, as he rubbed his head despondently.
"Dissipating?" gasped his friend.
"That's the word I used. You've heard that expression about 'burning the candle at both ends?' Well, that's my case exactly. To tell the truth, I have been having too gay a time. Last night I went down to the Blue Moon and drank a soda. Then some traveling man offered me a cigar. Of course I had to take it."

"You don't mean it?"
"I mean just what I say. Then I bought a ham sandwich. I ate it and actually forgot myself and took another. On my way home I dropped into the church social for a few minutes. Some of the young ladies made me try the 'penny-dip,' and I drew a blank."

"Such extravagance!"
"That's exactly it. Extravagance and dissipation will kill me. It was nine o'clock before I reached home."

"Nine o'clock!"
"Yes, I must be sowing my wild oats. Well, I've finished now. Night before last I called on my girl. She wouldn't let me leave until I had taken her out and bought chocolate creams. Talk about pleasure hunting! I'm simply worn out after these nights of wasteful debauchery."

Why He Didn't Dare.
The pretty sales girl in the department store was standing before a mirror.

"There," she said as she wiped a tiny smudge of soot from her cheek, "my face is all right again."
The solemn looking floorwalker overheard her.
"I see it is, Miss Pearl," he said, in a low tone, "and it's very tempting, but some of the other girls are looking this way."

"You wretch!"
An Uncharitable Division.
Teacher said charity begins at home. Do you know what that means, mamma?
"Yes."
"Did you know it means that Aunt Jane is a wicked lady?"
"Why, George!"
"Yes, it does. Aunt Jane has got a bucketful of hair an' three switches—an' Uncle Jim is most as bald as an egg."

SURE THING.

Wrong Diagnosis.
"There goes a girl," remarked the candy drummer, "who looks like she might lead a man heavenward."
"You're entitled to another guess," replied the grocery clerk. "Her specialty is steering a man up against an oyster dispensary. See?"

Get an Order.
"Did you call on Mrs. Styles?" asked the manager of the girl solicitor.
"Yes," replied the girl.
"And did you get an order?"
"Yes, she ordered me out of the house!"—Yonkers Statesman

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and so GIVES HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO THE WHOLE BODY.

You cannot afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Ingredients printed on wrapper.

The "Six" Senses.

In a primary school examination one of the questions was with regard to the five senses. One of the bright pupils handled the subject thus:
"The five senses are: Sneezing, sobbing, crying, yawning and coughing. By the sixth sense is meant an extra one which some folks have. This is snoring."—Woman's Home Companion.

Kow-Kure

is not a "food"—it is a medicine, and the only medicine in the world for cows only. Made for the cow and, as its name indicates, a cow cure. Barrenness, retained afterbirth, abortion, scours, caked udder, and all similar ailments positively and quickly cured. No one who keeps cows, whether many or few, can afford to be without Kow-Kure. It is made especially to keep cows healthy. Our book "What to Do When Your Cows Are Sick" sent free. Ask your local dealer for Kow-Kure, or send to the manufacturers, Dairy Association Co., Lynonville, Vt.

A Cough Medicine

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is a regular cough medicine, a strong medicine, a doctor's medicine. Good for easy coughs, hard coughs, desperate coughs. If your doctor endorses it for your case, take it. If not, don't take it. Never go contrary to his advice.

We publish our formulas. We banish alcohol from our medicines. We urge you to consult your doctor.

The dose of Ayer's Pills is small, only one at bedtime. As a rule, laxative doses are better than cathartic doses. For constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia, sick-headaches, they cannot be excelled. Ask your doctor about this.

Made by the J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.
