J. C. Ludeman and wife of Waldport visited with S. Sagendorf at Linville Sunday. We also noticed the genial countenance of Charles Doffins, superintendent of the Elmore cannery, headed that way. The fishing season is open now and we have plenty to spare. Help yourself, Charley.

Estrayed—From somewhere east of the Cascade mountains, a snow storm. When last seen it was wandering around over Lincoln county looking for a place to locate. So far as known no damage was done, but we would rather have settlers with strong arms and Roosevelt families.

Ofstedahl—Nye.

One of the most brilliant weddings to take place in Toledo for many months was held last Monday morning when Miss Ruth Ofstedahl became the wife of Mr. Arthur Nye.

The guests, thirty in number, began to arrive at the bride's home at 5:30 in the morning, and promptly as the clock struck the hour of six Miss Esther Copeland at the piano began playing the wedding march, and the bride and groom to be marched into the room to the marriage altar in a corner of the room. The bride was dressed in a pure white tailored suit, large white hat trimmed with a long willow plume, and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Just before leaving for the train the bride threw the bridal bouquet to her girl friends, and it was caught by Misses Sara Crahen and Nora Krogstad. Rev. Jones secured the ring in the cake.

The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. F. O. Jones of the Episcopal church. Immediately after the ceremony the guests were ushered into the banquet room where an elegant wedding feast was served. The party then went to the depot to bid God speed to the newly wedded couple, who are now spending their honeymoon in Portland.

The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. Elese Ofstedahl, and one of the most popular young ladies of the city. She has been a resident of Toledo since early girlhood. During the past year she was Deputy Clerk of this county. The groom is a member of the hardware firm of Newton & Nye in this city. He is one of the social favorites and is a most worthy young man. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Nye, and has spent his entire life here.

The happy couple was the recipients of many beautiful presents from their many friends.

On the return from their honeymoon they will be at home to their friends at the Chambers cottage on Second street.

Congratulations and best wishes are extended by their many friends.

Bachmann—Walker.

A very pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Walker in this city Sunday afternoon, April 16, 1911, when Miss Ruth Bachmann became the bride of their son Roy.

Miss Bachmann is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bachmann of Eddyville, and is a most estimable young lady, she having made her home here at Toledo the past two years, during which time she has made many friends.

The groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. George Walker, and is an honest, industrious young man, and is well liked by everyone. He is employed at present on the dredger Chetco.

The house was decorated for the occasion with carnations and ferns making a very pleasing effect. The bride was dressed in light blue Mes-salin silk and carried a bouquet of white roses. The groom wearing the conventional black. Fourteen invited friends and guests were present to witness the ceremony and to do justice to the sumptuous wedding dinner which was served immediately after the ceremony. Reverend R. J. Devenport of the Methodist church officiated at the wedding.

The bride and groom left Monday morning on a honeymoon trip to Portland, after which they will return to Toledo, making their home on the dredger Chetco where the groom is employed.

The LEADER joins with their many friends in wishing them all kinds of good luck.

John Ebbe, the road man, went to Dallas Wednesday morning to start work on a large road contract he has in Polk county.

Miss Nora Krogstad returned to her home at Portland Wednesday morning, after a visit of several weeks with relatives and friends in this city.

Lee Bartholomew, the barber, has just had the interior of his tonsorial parlors decorated with paint and paper. It was a fine job. Allen Gill, the paperhanger, did the work.

We are now prepared to dispense soda water and ice cream to the satisfaction of all who may come to our store. Everything first class and up to date. At the Palace of Sweets. AL WAUGH, Proprietor.

W. H. Andross will have a public sale Friday April 28th, 1911, at which he will dispose of his household goods. The sale will be held at the City Float here in Toledo. J. H. Ross has been engaged as auctioneer.

John Scott Mills, special writer for the Oregon-Washington Railroad & Navigation Company, Southern Pacific lines in Oregon, arrived in our city last evening, and is securing the necessary data for the exploitation of our town and country, in the advertising enterprise recently undertaken by our Development League. Different members of the League and citizens of our town are showing Mr. Mills around and assisting him in every way possible to get a correct and comprehensive write-up. He will be taken up and down the bay and be driven out through the farming sections. Mr. Mills requests that the farmers, when in town, call on him and tell him what they are doing, as it is the actual accomplishments that interest the homeseeker, and it is these successes which he wishes to incorporate in his writing.

Baseball.

The Newport and Elk City baseball teams will play their first game of the season at Elk City next Sunday, the 23d. Fans from all parts of the Bay will no doubt be there.
