NOTICE OF APPOINTMENT.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been appointed by the County Court of Lincoln county, Oregon, administrator of the estate of Butler Fairchild, deceased. All persons having claims against said estate are hereby required to present the same, properly verified, as by law required, within six months from this date at my office in Toledo, Oregon. Dated April 13, 1911. G. B. McCLUSKEY, Administrator of the estate of Butler Fairchild, deceased.

Chester Dixon of Elk City was in Toledo last Friday.

Miss Jean Bell spent Sunday with her parents at Pioneer.

A. J. Rader of Newport was a Toledo visitor last Monday.

A. J. Rader of Newport was up from Newport Sunday and Monday of this week.

Mrs. J. W. Alvers and children left Tuesday morning for Salem where they will join Mr. Alvers.

Mrs. John McCluskey visited at Yaquina last Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Litchfield.

A. Bradeson arrived over from Salem last evening for a visit with his son Charles and daughter Mrs. Ed Altree.

Superintendent Goin wears a peach of a black eye this week, which comes from too much ball playing in his old age.

Manager Richardson of the Lincoln County Telephone company was up from Newport Wednesday, looking after the company's interests.

Services will be held at the M. E. Church next Sunday morning at the usual hour. In the evening the hour has been changed from 7:30 to 8 o'clock.

Sam Conibear, brother of W. H. Conibear of this city, departed the first of the week for a visit to his old home in Batavia, New York. He will return here next Fall.

The Easter Exercises given by the children of the M. E. Church last Sunday were well patronized, standing room being at a premium. The little folks did well, going through their parts without hesitation, which speaks well for them and their instructors. The singing by the choir and the Reisinger family was also well received.

A launch party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Goin, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Newton, Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Wishart, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Akin, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Arnold, Miss Edith Harrison and R. H. Howell, went up the river Easter Sunday. After their picnic dinner they spent most of the afternoon in playing ball. The score card was too heavy to carry home.

G. H. Mulldorfer, map artist for the Harriman publicity department, was in Toledo the first of the week making maps and getting data for the booklets to be issued under the $1200 advertising scheme recently taken up by Toledo. A photographer will be here some time next week to take views to be used in illustrating the booklets. A writer will also be here in the near future to write up Toledo and vicinity.

Wanted good homestead location. Give full particulars, price etc. M. GOEHRE, 551 Union Av., Portland, Ore.
