

Years of Suffering

Catarh and Blood Disease—Doctors Failed to Cure.

Miss Mabel F. Dawkins, 1214 Lafayette St., Fort Wayne, Ind., writes: "For three years I was troubled with catarh and blood disease. I tried several doctors and a dozen different remedies, but none of them did me any good. A friend told me of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I took two bottles of this medicine and was as well and strong as ever. I feel like a different person and recommend Hood's to any one suffering from catarh."

Hope of Japan at Coronation.

There will be no more interesting royal guest at the coronation than the crown prince of Japan, who, it is now definitely decided, will represent the mikado on that historic occasion. The prince will visit England in greater state than any other royalty, for he is to be escorted by a formidable squadron of warships—the pick of Nippon's navy.

The Imperial highness bears the sonorous name of Yoshihito Haromiyu. He is the only son of the mikado, is in his thirty-first year, and is the hundred and sixty-second in the Imperial line, the hope of a dynasty which has ruled Japan for nearly 2,000 years.

Prince Yoshihito admirably typifies the newer generation in Japan. He speaks English and French extremely well, and is a close student of the methods and manners of the west.

One of his characteristics is a fondness for wrestling, apropos of which it is related that during his school days he suffered the indignity of being beaten, in the presence of his father, by a powerful schoolmate. People expected the emperor to be displeased but, on the contrary, he called the victor to him and heartily congratulated him.

"My son," said the mikado, "will one day need many such men as you."

OTTUMWA WOMAN CURED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Ottumwa, Iowa.—"For years I was almost a constant sufferer from female trouble in all its dreadful forms; shooting pains all over my body, sick headache, spinal weakness, dizziness, depression, and everything that was horrid. I tried many doctors in different parts of the United States, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done more for me than all the doctors. I feel it my duty to tell you these facts. My heart is full of gratitude to you for my cure."—Mrs. HARRIET E. WAMPLER, 524 S. Ransom Street, Ottumwa, Iowa.

Consider This Advice.

No woman should submit to a surgical operation, which may mean death, until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

This famous medicine, made only from roots and herbs, has for thirty years proved to be the most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism. Women residing in almost every city and town in the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice is free, confidential, and always helpful.

Swedish "Church Boat."

The "church boat" is a popular institution in Sweden. It brings families to service from the farms around Lake Siljan to Leksand. The water route is the nearest and most convenient, and so the big boat goes from farm to farm along the shore picking up the churchgoers, who later return by the same route.—Wide World Magazine.

It was mentioned at the annual dinner of the Lancashire Farmers' association that there were 137,000 cows in the county—a greater number than in any other county in England. Lancashire, too, had the largest acreage of potatoes, with the exception of Lincolnshire, in Great Britain, having 43,000 acres under cultivation.

Hamlin's Wizard Oil, the World's best liniment, has been curing pain for nearly sixty years and can be depended upon just as surely as the old family doctor who may be miles away.

GIRL A TRUE SPARTAN

MOST AMAZING TRAGEDY IN ANNALS OF CRIME.

Los Angeles Girl Wants to Die With Foster Father and Forces Him to Shoot Her—Notes Effect of Shots.

Los Angeles.—In one of the most amazing and remarkable tragedies in criminal annals, Miss Eva Bovee, twenty years old, stood at the bedside of her foster father in a ward at the County hospital, in this city, and thrusting a loaded revolver into his hands compelled him to shoot her so that "she might go to heaven with him."

With a Spartan-like indifference, bordering on fanaticism, the girl noted the effect of each shot and ordered the man to keep shooting until she finally dropped to the floor. As a result S. L. Dania, sixty-five years of age, the foster father, is dead from wounds self-inflicted, after shooting his foster daughter. The girl died shortly after being shot.

On April 1 Dania shot and killed his six-year-old daughter, Ledania. He believed at the time of that shooting that he was about to die from injuries inflicted by George Koerner, with whom he was fighting a pistol duel. As Dania fell he recognized his six-year-old daughter and, believing he was about to die, he said: "I am going to take you with me," and shot and instantly killed the little girl. Practically the one friend to call upon Dania in the hospital was Miss Bovee, who posed as his foster daughter. She visited him almost every day and during their conversations urged him to carry out his promise to take her with him when he died.

On her last visit she bought a revolver and visited Dania again at the County hospital. She forced the revolver into his hands and stood up for execution. Dania fired once, the bullet inflicting a painful but not fatal injury, striking the girl in the head. With the spirit of a Spartan she remarked, "Shoot again, you didn't hurt me."

The Bovee girl then crossed her hands on her breast and Dania, moving to a better position, fired two shots rapidly. The second shot broke the girl's wrist, the third struck her in the breast. After the girl fell to the floor Dania turned the revolver upon himself, inflicting a throat wound. A fifth shot went wild.

LIMIT PUT ON WOMAN'S LOVE

Warden of San Quentin Prison Fixes Time at Three Years—Apt to Start Discussion.

Sacramento, Cal.—"The limit of woman's constancy is three years."

This astonishing statement is made by John E. Hoyle, warden of the state prison at San Quentin. It is apt to start a discussion up and down the land—this putting so short a time limit on the love of woman.

"The limit of woman's constancy is about three years," he repeated. "I have been at some pains to get at the facts, and our figures and observations show the three-year limit. When a prisoner is first committed his wife or sweetheart is very attentive. She visits him very often if given the opportunity. Her letters are many."

"But as the months roll on the visits become less and less frequent; the letters fewer and fewer. Then the visits cease and the letters are rare. Next thing we know, in case there has been a marriage, the wife gets her divorce and turns her thoughts upon another man. The sweetheart is of less constancy than the wife."

RARE BOOKS TO HUNTINGTON

Library of Late E. Dwight Church, Valued at $1,250,000, Purchased by Californian.

New York.—George D. Smith, a book dealer, announced the other day that he has purchased the library of the late E. Dwight Church, which is said to have cost its owner $1,250,000.

Mr. Smith did not give out the purchase price, but he said it was not far from the sum at which the library has been appraised. This is said to be the largest single transaction in rare books that ever has taken place.

In the collection are between 3,500 and 4,000 volumes, many of them first editions of English books from the time of Caxton, while the collection of Americans is one of the finest extant.

Mr. Smith bought the library for Henry Edward Huntington of Los Angeles, Cal., a nephew of the late Col. P. Huntington.

Matter Quickly Settled.

In an English opera company, formed for the summer months, it was found that the tenors were too light for the rest of the chorus. The manager protested that there were voices enough, and the leading tenor was questioned why he did not sing with more force. His answer to the remonstrances of the manager was: "I am paid summer wages, and I refuse to sing anything but my summer voice." The engagement of the tenor and his summer voice came to a speedy termination.

To Get the Best Light.

When using oil lamps the housewife is always very careful that every part of the lamp is scrupulously clean and the burner is boiled to remove any accumulation of dirt. She forgets, though, that her gas jet is just as likely to accumulate soil. Often there is quite a little collection of dust and if this is cleared away the improvement in the light is noticeable.

A Sacred Confidence.

Down at Southtown, Long Island, there's a hotel that welcomes the trout fisherman. It sends out a neatly typewritten announcement that the season begins on March 31, adds the necessary details as to sunrise and the state of the moon, and winds up with this remark: "Orders for worms from those who fish only with the fly will be held in sacred confidence."
