The habitual consumption of more food than is necessary for these purposes is the prime cause of stomach troubles, rheumatism and disorders of the kidneys. If troubled with indigestion, revise your diet, let reason and not appetite control and take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will soon be all right again. For sale by all dealers.

Rev. F. O. Jones, rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal church of Newport, had a narrow escape from drowning while returning on horse back from Otter Rock last Friday, says a Newport correspondent to the Portland Journal, an unusually high tide augmented by the high wind overflowed the whole beach. Mr. Jones misread the tide table and started an hour too early. Rounding a point about six miles north he saw a terrific comber sweeping in. He had difficulty in getting his feet out of the stirrups, and the wave rolled horse and rider over and over. The water was full of timbers, and one struck him a blow on the ankle and another hit him a terrific blow under the eye, lacerating his face and partially stunning him. He was unable to climb the slippery cliff and was being swept to sea when he caught on a submerged rock. When the waves receded he managed to reach the bank and climbed to a ledge about 30 feet up and protected by an outstanding rock. The horse meanwhile was safe part way up the rock. Here Mr. Jones hung one hour and forty-five minutes, every wave reaching nearly to his feet. He had been there about an hour when he saw the largest breaker he had ever seen sweep in, and he had about given up hopes. The wave swept up the cliff 40 feet and swept every log off the beach, but struck the outstanding rock at such an angle it split and passed on both sides of him. In the dark he missed the road home and wandered an hour and a half. While not seriously injured, Mr. Jones is suffering seriously from bruises and exposure.

St. John's Church services every Sunday at 7:30 p. m. Holy communion every Monday at 9 a. m. Everybody welcome.

F. O. Jones, Rector.
