

FREE

Beginning the First of January we are going to GIVE AWAY ABSOLUTELY FREE OF COST

50 Dinner Sets

To each person sending in five yearly subscriptions to the

"LEADER"

at $1.50 each will be awarded one of these sets.

It does not matter whether these are new subscriptions or renewals, as we believe our old subscribers are entitled to this premium as much as the new ones.

Or if you do not wish to get out and rustle subscriptions you can obtain a set of these beautiful dishes by paying up your own subscription for five years.

These dishes come securely packed each set in a case by itself which insures them against breakage.

They are beautifully flowered with roses and have a gold band around the edge, each set consisting of Thirty-two-pieces.

They are strictly first class goods and something which anyone may be proud to receive.

1000 Subscribers

Our subscription list in the county is now nearing the 1000 mark and in order to reach and pass this goal, during the year of 1912, we are giving these dishes away as a special inducement for you to assist us in securing subscribers.

These dishes may be seen by calling at the Leader office where we have a number of sets on hand.

Yours for One thousand Subscribers,

PUBLISHERS OF THE "LEADER"

Attorney Middlekauff went to Corvallis Tuesday.

Ed Wade left Monday morning for Bend, Eastern Oregon.

Superintendent Goin returned home from Salem Monday evening.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carson, in this city, Monday January 1, 1912, a boy.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Schenk were passengers for Bend, Eastern Oregon, Monday morning.

Lewis Montgomery of the Oregon Lumber and Construction company is in the city this week.

Warren Hail was over from Siletz Tuesday evening. He went to Portland the following morning.

W. E. Peterson has purchased the creamery building, adjoining the Leader office, of Stewart & Center.

George McCaulou returned Monday evening from a week's visit to his farm down in the Euchre Mountain country, where he is building a bridge on the county road.

Mr. and Mrs. Coquille Thomson came over from from Siletz Monday and the following morning took the train for Salem, where Mrs. Thompson will receive medical treatment.

The County Clerk now has the registration books open. If you wish to vote at the primary nominating election this coming April or the general election this Fall you had better register.

T. C. Jackson came over from Siletz Monday afternoon to send two of his children to the Indian school at Chemawa. The little ones departed for that place the following morning, being accompanied by J. F. Brown.

The storm which has been raging all over the Northwest the past week struck this Yaquina bay country last evening, and all last night we were shaken up by an unusually high wind, accompanied by a drenching rain.

H. D. Watson of Newport was a Toledo visitor last Friday. Mr. Watson, in partnership with L. C. Hockett, are putting in a first-class steam laundry in the Resort City, expecting to have the plant in operation on or before the first of February. These gentlemen are both experienced laundrymen, having worked at the business for a long term of years, and will no doubt turn out first class work. They will run a wagon to Toledo twice a week, to gather and deliver laundry. They guarantee the best of work at city prices.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Gardner of Rose Lodge have been in the city several days this week.

Sheriff Bert Geer went to Portland last Friday in response to a message advising him of the serious illness of his sister, Mrs. H. B. Dabney, wife of Dr. Dabney, the dentist formerly of this city. Mrs. Dabney was injured in a railroad wreck on the Goldendale branch of the North Bank railroad last October and had been gradually failing since and about a week before her death, which occurred at noon Friday; cerebro meningitis developed which caused her death. Burial was made in the family cemetery in the Waldo Hills Sunday, the 7th. Mrs. Dabney was the daughter of the late L. B. Geer and a cousin of T. T. Geer, ex-governor of Oregon. She was also a sister of Sheriff Geer of this county, and a cousin of Homer Davenport, the famous cartoonist. She was 32 years old. She was married to Dr. Dabney in July, 1906, and they made their home in Toledo until a year later when they moved to Portland where they have since resided. The many friends of the couple here deeply sympathize with the husband and other relatives in this sad hour of bereavement.
