Mr. and Mrs. Albert Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Johnson, T. C. Jackson, Charles Blacketer and C. W. Orton of Siletz went to Portland yesterday morning as witnesses before the Federal grand jury. Lee Doty of the Waldport stage line had a runaway one evening last week, which very nearly resulted in the drowning of four of his horses. He arrived at the point on south beach opposite Newport with a four-horse team and a half dozen passengers. While the latter had dismounted and Mr. Doty was unloading freight, the horses became frightened and headed for the water at the end of the sand spit. One of them fell down and became entangled in the harness. The others went on, however, and the whole outfit, horses, wagon and harness went in the water. The wagon tongue snapped off and the horses turned and scramble back to land. Some of the baggage was water-soaked and the damage was only normal—Signal.
