

Lincoln County Leader.

Oregon Historical Society
City Hall

VOLUME 20

TOLEDO, LINCOLN COUNTY, OREGON, FRIDAY, JUNE 28, 1912

NUMBER 19

COUNTY NEWS

News of each Community Gathered each week by Our Rustling Associate Editors

Waldport

The residents of Drift Creek have agreed to get together sometime in the near future for the purpose of removing snags, etc., from the creek. This will be a welcome improvement.

The Wilhelmina and Patsy visited the bay last week. The Condor made a trip to Newport.

F. C. Barnes of the Barnes cannery visited Waldport last week. The cannery is being fitted up for the Fall run of Salmon. A small addition will be built.

P. X. Johnson left Tuesday for Portland but expects to return in a short time.

Chas. Johnson, newly appointed postmaster at Lutgens, expects to put a launch on the bay for the summer traffic.

A sad accident occurred at Tidewater last Sunday afternoon. Dee Kent was drowned while attempting to swim across the river. Two other members of the swimming party got safely across but Mr. Kent, who had a weak heart, sank in ten feet of water after swimming a little over half way across. The body was recovered in a short time and every effort was made to resuscitate the unfortunate young man, but without success. Dee Kent was the son of Russ and Alice Kent of Waldport. He was a handsome young man with no bad habits and was a leader among the young men of Waldport. The funeral was held Tuesday morning.

Glen

Jim Crooks has completed his new blacksmith shop.

Mrs. Wm. Davenport spent a couple of days visiting with Salado friends.

Tom Smith and family and Clare Moore spent Monday and Tuesday at Toledo.

J. E. Crooks went to the Valley Friday on business.

Lottie and Flossie Conibear of Toledo spent a very pleasant week with Clare Moore. They returned home Tuesday.

Ray Calkins and Tom Daniels spent one day last week with Glen friends.

Rupert Stewart spent two nights with Alva Moore last week.

George Davenport made a business trip to Toledo last Friday.

W. R. Moore returned to the camp Monday, after a day's visit with his family here.

T. C. Smith and family, Mrs. Moore and Alva, spent a very pleasant Sunday at the home of George Davenport.

Alva Moore and Rupert Stewart were Eddyville guests the first of the week.

Abe Lincoln School.

P. X. Johnson arrived from Portland last week for a short stay. He reports the fishing good, having caught nearly the limit in one day.

C. H. Miller has a new engine in his launch and is ready to try speed with anyone.

Mrs. A. K. Oiler has been having quite a siege with erysipelas and boils, but is improving.

John Olson and family and Miss Phillips spent Sunday with Mr. Hendrickson of Bayview.

Lee Johnson came near having a serious accident Saturday by having a wagon tip over on him.

County Surveyor Derriek came up from Waldport one day last week and settled the dispute between ex-County Commissioner Thompson and M. S. Durbin, very much in Mr. Thompson's favor, making a difference of over twelve acres that Mr. Durbin was trying to appropriate for a ranger station.

Otis

Yes sir, Otis is still alive; still water runs deep, you know.

Miss Anna Murry was visiting her mother Sunday.

C. S. Parmele and family made a trip to Sheridan Tuesday bringing Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Phillips of Medford back with them. They intend to spend a few months amongst us.

Alvin Thorp hauled a load of cheese to the Valley last week.

Mr. Resch's little daughter is gradually improving and will be able soon to run about, we hope.

Victor Hill returned from the Valley where he has been working for a while past.

Mr. McDonald is very ill with muscular rheumatism.

Clarence Parmele is hauling lumber for Mr. Hill this week. Mr. Hill intends to have a fine house in the near future.

Henry Curl has sold a piece of land for $2000 in money and a fine team, harness and wagon and is now in Portland having a good time.

Mr. Morris has been shearing his sheep this week.

Mr. Cosper is getting the logs ready for his house. He will have an up to date log house.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Bowers are with us again to remain till after fishing season.

Tidewater

Mrs. Anna Hosford who has been visiting her mother on Five Rivers has returned to her home in Waldport.

Mrs. John Thissell and children were guests of Mrs. Hal Thissell Sunday.

Austin Thissell moved his family to Mr. Fletcher's place at Tidewater Sunday.

Miss Helen Stouder was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Austin Thissell Monday.

Mr. Flescher and family and Mr. Baird and his family left Monday for Central Oregon.

Miss Juanita Webb and her mother were visiting Mrs. Eva Smallwood Sunday.

Miss Tressa Goodman spent several days at Alsea with friends. She returned home Monday, accompanied by Thomas Warfield.

Arthur Goodman went to Alsea with Mr. Warfield to help him take his cow home Tuesday.

Two men went through the country Monday looking at the beautiful scenery.

Mrs. Eva Smallwood's niece, Miss Taylor, has been staying with her for two weeks.

Tom Carns was thorough the neighborhood Sunday, looking for cattle.

Chester Goodman and Fred Thissell played ball in the Lower Five Rivers team last Sunday.

Clarence Barclay and family went to Waldport Saturday evening.

Earl McMillin went to Waldport Saturday with a large load of shingles and lumber.

Nate Webb went to Alsea Tuesday on business.

There were two men at Fall Creek Tuesday selling "Spalding Buggys."

Alfred Parker went up to Mr. Oglesby's Wednesday evening.

CALL FOR WARRANTS.

Notice is hereby given that the clerk of school district No. 31, Elk City, has funds on hands to pay all outstanding warrants. Interest on same will cease on and after this date. M. S. Updike, Clerk School Dist. No. 31, Lincoln County, Oregon. June 26, 1912.

Nortons

Mrs. G. E. Wilson is spending a week visiting relatives at Alsea.

Oscar Sampson and Maddy Brantner of Steer Creek were Norton visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Porter are visiting relatives in Corvallis.

J. K. Shields, Lloyd Porter and Albert Beers attended Grange at Eddyville Saturday.

A very exciting base ball game was played on the local diamond Sunday between the Cubs and Giants which resulted in a score of 4 to 6 in favor of the Giants.

The Norton and Eddyville ball teams will cross bats on the Eddyville diamond July 4th. Manager Porter and Captain Edwards expect to have a much stronger team than they have had in the past.

Lester Wilson of Steer Creek spent Saturday and Sunday here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rutter.

Fred Wagner is busily engaged shearing his sheep.

S. P. Kern of Summit formerly of this place was renewing acquaintances here Sunday.

The school election passed off quietly. E. G. Jones was re-elected director and Fred Wagner clerk. It was decided to have a nine months' school which is to begin the second Monday in September.

Olaf Erickson and H. S. Porter spent Sunday in Newport viewing the big salt, while J. J. K. Shield and G. E. Wilson witnessed the ball games at Elk City and Toledo.

Harlan

Strawberry season is almost over in this part of the county.

John Weburg and Sondre Romtvedt passed through Chitwood Friday on their way to their homesteads on Long Prairie creek.

J. E. Wilson made a business trip to Toledo Friday.

E. A. Wildman went to Toledo and back Tuesday.

Dr. Loggon of Philomath was over to call on Mrs. Parks, who has a bad case of sciatic rheumatism.

Miss Nora Queen went to Eugene last week to take examination for a life diploma. While gone she visited her home at Saginaw.

Miss Sweeney has returned from Portland where she went to take the examination for the Stanford University. She visited relatives at Tillamook before she returned.

R. R. Black has a fine crop of potatoes which he is disposing of.

Mrs. Mitchler visited with her daughter, Mrs. Cator, last week, while Mr. Cator went to Corvallis.

Messrs. Lillard & Lake got the contract for the new grade on Mitchler Mountain. They will commence work after the 4th of July. Mr. Lillard also has the contract for putting the road in shape from the county line to Philomath.

W. W. January's store building is going up. He expects to have it finished by the 4th. The young folks are planning to have a dance in it the evening of the 4th.

Chitwood

R. L. Wildman returned to Gaston Tuesday, after spending a few days on his homestead north of here. He is intending to come back again this Fall with a bunch of sheep or goats.

Mrs. E. L. Geer and family went to Elk City and back Monday.

J. Q. Adams went to Newport Sunday on the excursion.

R. R. Wilson went to Siletz Saturday to photograph the new cheese factory. He secured some fine views of the factory both inside and out.

Mrs. E. L. Geer received news that her daughter, Hazel, is quite sick so she left for Toledo Monday evening. Miss Geer has been working for Merchant Nulton.

BASEBALL SUNDAY.

Next Sunday the Siletz and Corvallis ball teams will play on Toledo diamond. These are strong teams and every lover of the sport will get their money's worth by attending. Game called at 2 o'clock.

FOR SALE.

2 teams and saddle horses. 2 wagons. 1 2-seated rig. 1 buggy. 1 buckboard. Toledo Livery Stables.

Fred Weatherford of Albany was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. U. G. Hart and little son went to Albany Wednesday for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Smith of Winant were Toledo visitors yesterday afternoon.

G. K. Freeman the painter was up from Newport yesterday looking after his property here.

Last Tuesday Deputy Wardens Gatens and Bremmer brought before Justice Booth of this city J. G. Nelson charged with killing deer out of season. Nelson was found guilty and assessed $50 and costs.

The new passenger launch, Transit, will make her maiden trip from Elk City to Newport on the morning of July 4th. This is a fine boat, and will be comfortable and speedy, and we predict success to her owner, H. A. Norton.

W. L. Depew lately of Portland has purchased the Nye restaurant. Mr. Depew is an old time restaurant man and solicits your patronage. Mrs. Depew will arrive down from Portland soon.

A Cantata given by the little folks under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society, at Woodmen Hall tonight and Saturday night.

A Dream of Fairyland

SYNOPSIS

Two little Orphans start out to find Fairyland and, growing sleepy, sit down by the wayside and fall asleep. Here they dream that the Fairies find them. There are Good and Evil Fairies and each band endeavors to have these Orphans enlist with them.

The Good Fairies get them and then the Evil Fairies lead them astray, and finally the Good Fairies get them back again, and also induce the Evil Fairies to go with them.

PART I

Opening chorus

Duet, by Orphans

Finding of the Orphans by the Good Fairies

Song, "Don't Go," by Good and Evil Fairies

Evil Fairies song and march; Neva and May decide to go with Evil Fairies

Angel's Warning, Mrs. M. Merrell, Mrs. Harding, Mrs. Walker

Song, "Better Be Good," Iris Akin and motions by Sprites

Recitation, Carrol McDonald

Music by Orchestra

Night Cap Song by number of Boys

PART II

Song "Sorrow" by the Good Fairies

Good Fairies try to get the Orphans to come home by singing to them

Orphans come home. Sprites dance

Song, "Victory," by Good and Evil Fairies

Close of Orphan's Dream

"Good Night," Chorus

ORPHANS

Neva—Katie Waugh. May—Edna Aلتree

GOOD FAIRIES

Fairy A—Winifred Swearingen; B—Anna Collins; C—Iris Akin; D—Della Paine; E—Frances Paine; F—Helga Larson; G—Ruth Larson; H—Margie Ball. Other Fairies—Inez Weaver, Grace Gill, Thelma Bingham, Virginia Aلتree.

EVIL FAIRIES

Fairy 1—Edra Plank; 2—Ilah Sherwood; 3—Dorothy Newton; 4—Mary Geer; 5—Myrle Collins; 6—Flossie Conibear. Other Fairies—Clara Harding, Dora Ebbe, Irma Nye, Lois Brown, Molley Ross, Una McJunkin.

SPRITES

Felice Avery, Catherine Collins, Myrtle Weaver, Ruby Weaver, Helen Cusack, Florence McDonald, Electa Bingham, Rebecca Morgan.

NIGHT CAP SONG

Carrol McDonald, Raymond Stewart, Vin Collins, Phillip Newton, Thomas Harding, Warren Stewart.

Assessor Ball has been assessing in Newport this week.

Dudley Trapp of Chitwood was a county seat visitor yesterday.

George King, the oysterman, was up from Winant Wednesday forenoon.

Jefferson and Toledo ball teams will play a game here in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Welter were called to Goble Sunday evening by the death of Mr. Welter's mother. They returned home Tuesday noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Zem Randall and little daughter returned to their home at Philomath yesterday afternoon, after a several weeks' visit here.

Reward—The Leader will give a year's subscription to each and every person who witnessed the thrilling and spectacular feat of "Fielder Brown" of the Albany team catching a fly on the cow's neck in last Sunday's game.

Walter L. Tooze, Jr., Republican candidate for joint representative for Lincoln and Polk counties, went down to Newport last Friday evening. Mr. Tooze accompanied his family to the Resort City where they will remain during the Summer, and Mr. Tooze will spend as much of his time with them as his business at Dallas will permit.

The thunder storms of the first of the week were the worst witnessed in Oregon for more than forty years, according to the oldest settlers. Anyway, they shook things up pretty lively, although no very serious damage was done. The electric lights were put out of commission in the east end of town for a couple of nights. Several trees in town were struck by lightning and several persons received slight shocks.