S. ROMTVEDT, SR, KILLED

Wednesday evening while chopping down trees on his farm three miles north of Toledo on Depot slough Sondre Romtvedt, Sr, was killed, his body being found some time during the evening.

The accident apparently was caused by his ax catching on a limb, turning the ax and striking him in the arm severing an artery, causing death by loss of blood. He was working alone at the time of the accident.

Mr. Romtvedt was one of Lincoln county's most worthy men. He had lived on this farm with his family for many years and was a most highly honored citizen, and his sudden death is a shock to his many friends in all parts of the county. Mr. Romtvedt was about sixty years old and had a family of several children most of whom are grown.

Funeral services will be held to morrow at two o'clock at the residence, with the sermon preached at the cemetery.
