

Lincoln County Leader.

VOLUME 20

TOLEDO, LINCOLN COUNTY, OREGON, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1912

NUMBER 33

COUNTY NEWS News of each Community Gathered each week by Our Rustling Associate Editors

Harlan

B. F. Grant is out with a crew putting the roads in shape for Winter. This road district is getting some good roads which will compare well with any in the county.

W. W. January is improving. He is able to sit up some each day now.

Mrs. Mitchler and Mrs. Cater have returned from their visit to Corvallis.

Supervisor Miller visited schools in this vicinity last week.

A little boy of Chas. Bois wandered away from home last Thursday evening and was not found until 12 o'clock that night.

J. F. Barber and sons are back on the Creek looking after some things which they left here to sell. Mr. Barber has not located yet, but is thinking of settling near Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Martin returned home with Mrs. K. D. Martin to spend the Winter.

George Ridenor was a visitor to Big Elk last Sunday.

Tom Lasky and family are visiting Mrs. Lasky's brother, Chas. Mulkey.

Isaac Bois is preparing to erect a six room bungalow on his homestead.

Willie Kessi left last week for Hood River, where he will attend school in the Odell district.

Nortons

Mrs. Pearl Pepin came over from her home on Long Prairie Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Wilson returned from the Round Up Saturday.

Mrs. I. J. Pepin of Chitwood is visiting with her sister, Mrs. H. S. Porter of this place.

Joe Kerby, Cris Widmer and Lloyd Porter attended Gange at Eddyville Saturday.

E. T. Raddant of Upper Farm was transacting business here the first of the week.

Joe Wilson was up from Chitwood last week.

Miss Nellie and Ethel Stanton returned to Chitwood where they are attending school.

Mrs. S. W. Hager has returned from Corvallis.

H. S. Porter and Fred Wagner went to Chitwood Monday evening.

J. B. White has returned from the Valley where he was looking for goats.

Ed Wright and Maddy Brantner came over from Steer creek Saturday.

It is reported that J. A. Curry has sold his farm three miles east of here.

Lew Hamar is doing the act of spreading paper on the walls. He will soon be an expert at the business.

The Eddyville Grange is going to have an open grange in the afternoon on the second Saturday of October for the purpose of discussing the bonding issue, which is to be voted on at the coming election this Fall. And as their picnic of June 8th was a great success, have decided to have a Christmas tree and are commencing early so as to make it a success equal to the picnic. The members are all wide-awake and have a very enjoyable time at their meetings, which they hold at the Eddyville hall on the 2d and 4th Saturdays in each month.

Rock Creek

Mrs. W. Birdwell left for Falls City Sunday, September 22d.

Mr. and Mrs. Southwell returned from Falls City Thursday, September 27th, from a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Peterson returned from Portland Thursday evening.

George Record returned to Rock Creek Sunday evening.

George Horsfall and R. Plank spent Sunday at home September 29th.

Glen

W. R. Moore is hauling lumber for his new house this week.

Jess Davenport came over from Toledo for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Davenport.

John Davenport is visiting this week on Drift creek.

Miss Edith Davenport and brother, Richard, have been going to school at Riverside for the past two weeks.

Miss Clare Moore was visiting last week with her sister, Mrs. T. C. Smith, near Toledo.

S. J. Stewart and son, Rupert, and Mrs. Olive Brown of Drift creek were visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Davenport last Sunday.

W. R. Moore went to Toledo last Tuesday.

Alva Moore is visiting with his sister at Toledo this week.

Gerald Calkins passed through Glen last Friday on his way to Drift creek to look after some of his horses.

Mrs. T. C. Smith and children of Toledo were visiting last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Moore, of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Davenport started on a pleasure trip to the coast Wednesday.

Mrs. T. C. Smith and children and Miss Clare Moore went to Newport last Wednesday.

W. R. Moore went to Elk City Thursday.

C. W. Brown went to Elk City Monday.

Bayview

Rev. J. L. Burns held a series of meetings at the schoolhouse at this place this week.

Miss Lillian Strake was down from the Drift creek ranch Tuesday.

Mrs. George Prescott, who has been quite ill is able to be out again.

Mrs. Erma Kent spent Sunday with her parents at Bay View.

Blanchard Tullock returned home from Beaverton last Thursday. He was accompanied by his brother-in-law, Mr. Emmons.

The Olson boys of Drift creek attended church at Bay View Sunday.

Tom Carns of Corvallis has been buying cattle through this community this last week.

Mrs. Neilson of Waldport spent Sunday with Mrs. H. J. Simmonson.

Winant

Dr. and Mrs. Mentyre entertained friends at their home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hath were Toledo visitors Tuesday.

Miss Alice Huntsucker of Beaver creek visited with Miss Addie Lewis Friday, returning home Saturday.

Misses Cora and Alma Boone, accompanied by Zeb Blower, visited the home of Joseph Blower Sunday.

Mrs. Dora Huntsucker has on her ranch at Beaver creek strawberries as big as a dollar. This is something unusual even for Yaquina bay.

F. C. Barnes came up from Yaquina Wednesday morning, accompanied by Jack Vigers.

Yaquina

Many of the people of Yaquina were grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. L. V. Emmons lately of Portland. Mrs. Emmons, formerly Miss Nellie Tullock, was born and raised in Lincoln county and is well known here. Her brother, B. S. Tullock, returned to his home at Bay View Friday evening after attending the funeral. L. V. Emmons accompanied him.

Mrs. Amanda J. Casteel returned to Yaquina Saturday evening after a three weeks' absence. Mrs. Casteel has been visiting relatives and friends in Corvallis and Philomath.

After ailing for some time Paul Tellefson passed away at the home of his brother Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Sympathy is extended to the family by friends and acquaintances.

Walter Hagenbuch, with the firm of Dayton Hardware Co. of Portland, is spending a few days at the home of Mrs. Wm. Leo in West Yaquina. Mr. Hagenbuch will not return until he has caught a salmon weighing at least fifteen pounds. Under the circumstances it is probable his sojourn in these parts will extend over a period of some time.

An organization recently formed and affording much benefit and pleasure to its members, is the "Pleasant Hour Club." It is composed of the mothers and daughters of Yaquina. One evening each week is held, on Wednesday. The last meeting was held at the home of Mrs. S. A. Pruet. The officers are, Miss Sarah B. Hackley, president; Mrs. S. A. Pruet, vice president; and Miss Daisy Ferr, secretary.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bland of Lebanon, Oregon, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Osborn, of West Yaquina.

Friday evening most of the young people of West Yaquina gathered round a huge bon fire built on the beach. A merry time was spent with games and story-telling. Later the guests were served with hot baked potatoes and sandwiches.

Mrs. Allen, wife of the telegraph operator, has worn the proverbial smile that refused to come off for the last week. When it became known that her mother, Mrs. Lang, and her sister, Miss Frankie, of Corvallis had arrived, everything was explained.

The "Fremont" owned by M. Hackley crossed the bar Thursday. Ten miles out the shaft broke and she lost her propeller. After floundering about for sometime she was picked up by the Ollie S. and towed to Newport. It is understood she will remain here until her repairs are completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Avery went to Alsea Sunday to visit Mr. Avery's brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Reeder of Ashland are visiting their son, Jesse, at Yaquina.

Ona

Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Mulkey and two children from Dallas are visiting the latter's sister, Mrs. S. C. Denny.

Mrs. L. M. Commons and son, Fred, made a trip to Yaquina Tuesday.

Mr. Strong has commenced the building of Mr. Selby's new house.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gatens and Walter Weber and wife have returned to their homes here for a few days. Messrs. Gatens and Weber are fishing at Yaquina, but report a poor catch.

S. C. Denny returned from Portland Friday with a new team and buggy.

Miss Elva Guilliams and friend, Mrs. Warden of Portland are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Guilliams.

Sam Hill had the misfortune to take a serious fall from the barn loft and is now confined to his bed.

Andy Gallagher and Willie Harrison visited at the J. M. Bowers ranch on Upper Beaver Sunday.

A. H. Phelps and L. M. Commons and son, Fred, hauled lumber from Waldport Monday.

S. C. Denny and son, Earl, and John R. Coovert were in Yaquina Monday.

George Nelson, dairy inspector, was on North Beaver Tuesday.

S. C. Denny and family, C. Mulkey and family spent Tuesday at Sea! Rocks.

Riverside V

The denizens of Riverside and vicinity met with a view to discussing various items which are to be on the Oregon ballot to be voted upon at the November election. There were a number of speakers who at times became quite eloquent. Among these may be mentioned W. H. Daniel, John D. Folmsbee and J. T. Calkins. There seemed to be great unanimity on the various subjects discussed by the speakers. The speaking being over it was suggested that a straw vote be taken upon a number of items to appear upon the ballot. 1st Woman suffrage carried unanimously. 2d Graduated Tax also carried unanimously. 3d Uren's proposition against the University appropriation carried without a dissenting vote. 4th a vote on the Presidential candidates Wilson was elected by a small majority, Debs stood next with Tatf nor Roosevelt getting a single vote.

A gentleman who bought a piece of land of Mr. Langdon is now hauling lumber with a view to building a house and barn on the land.

With the last year a number of new dwellings have been put up on the Elk.

William Davenport and family returned from Waldport, after having bought a can of grease and doing some fine sliding. They report a good time.

Almost everyone in this locality has the whooping cough, some having it very bad.

Mrs. B. F. Grant and Mrs. W. W. Grant visited Riverside last Friday. They spent a pleasant day and returned in the evening.

During the last day or two we've had a few showers of rain, but no frost.

Kernville.

Mr. and Mrs. John Robbins have started on their journey toward Oklahoma. They will make several stops on the way home. They enjoyed their Summer's stay in Oregon and talk some of returning here to live in the near future.

Mr. Crisler has a lot of nice potatoes for sale. He is offering them for 75c per sack.

Jesse Farrin's are intending going to Toledo soon.

Mrs. Esther Stephens went out to visit her folks.

Mrs. Pearly Fuller is on the sick list.

Phinley Bones has sold the land that Mr. Stone let go back to a man in the Valley.

Mr. Stone has sold off all his cattle, intending to move to other parts soon.

Mrs. Frazier was over from Cloverdale to look at the place they bought of Joe Powers last Spring. She says they intend moving over on the place next Spring.

Mrs. S. Bowers from Cloverdale made the Parmelee's a visit and gathered some huckleberries to carry home.

Mr. Cutler built a small house in his city while in this Fall. He intends returning early in the Spring.

Harry and Avlin Thorp will drive some fat cows to the Valley this week.

The Parmelee boys are plowing and sowing grass seed. They intend milking 50 cows next year.

They have already made over $1000 worth of cheese since the 19th of April, from the milk of 37 cows.

Butter is quite scarce hereabouts.

Two men were capsized in the ocean yesterday and were in the water 30 minutes before anyone could rescue them. It is feared that someone will be drowned for so many go over the bar to fish.

Wm. Dodson, of the firm of Dodson & Cook, is hauling supplies from Toledo.

Mrs. Dodson is visiting her folks in Toledo.

Chitwood

The auction sale at J. E. Wilson's was not well attended and things went very cheaply. Dr. Carey acted as auctioneer.

Prof. J. E. Davis returned from the hop fields near Rickreal, Polk county. He left for Wells to take charge of the high school at that place.

Born--To Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Davis September 29th 1912 a girl.

J. E. Wilson and family left Wednesday for Red Bluff, California where they intend to make their future home. They will go all the way by team.

E. A. Wildman is at Eddyville working for Jas. Cordell.

Rufus Wood and J. E. Davis went to Corvallis last Friday. Mr. Wood took the teachers' examination there Saturday passed and started teaching Monday at Wren.

DEMOCRATIC CALL.

The Democrats of Lincoln county, or so many of them as can make it convenient, are requested to meet at the courthouse in Toledo, Oregon, on Wednesday, October 9th, 1912, at one o'clock p. m., for the purpose of organizing the county by selecting a county campaign committee, said committee to act as the regular County Committee until such time as a Committee shall be duly elected.

A. B. Clark, Elk City
John Fogarty, Newport
E. T. Raddant, Siletz
Jas. T. Bell, Pioneer
J. F. Stewart, Toledo
And Others.

Frank Thompson of Harlan was in this city on business Wednesday.

NO. 41 HEADS THE LIST.

Following is the standing of the contestants who have 10,000 or more votes in R. S. Van Cleve's $400 piano contest:

No. 41-45000	No. 15-13280
75-43690	17-13000
68-40090	26-13000
24-34690	20-12600
21-32655	14-12000
1-28905	22-12000
39-28360	27-12000
62-27930	31-12000
23-27680	108-12000
2-27490	11-11900
60-25715	48-11010
38-25325	5-10550
9-24945	23-10500
107-22215	104-10405
37-16800	3-10000
59-15580	32-10000
25-15500	36-10000
29-15310	47-10000
7-14600	69-10000
109-14000	106-10000
91-13505

Cut out this Coupon and present it at
R. S. Van Cleve's store and he will exchange it for Fifty Votes
in the Four Hundred Dollar Piano Contest

To each person bringing in a new yearly subscription or renewal to the Leader will be given three thousand votes good on R. S. Van Cleve's $400 piano contest.