COUNTY NEWS

News of each Community Gathered each week by Our Rustling Associate Editors

Waldport

At Tuesday's election there were many surprises. The heavy Socialist vote had been predicted, but we did not hardly expect it.

A straw vote at the public school carried the precinct dry by a large majority, but the real voters did not see it that way, which goes to show that the youths of today are getting a better education.

A great deal of sorrow is being expressed over the drowning of Chester Johnson at the wreck of the Osprey. Chester was well and favorably known to nearly all in this community.

Two basket ball teams are being formed and will soon be ready for engagements.

Principal Bert P. Lovett of the Waldport High School, assisted by the district board, entertained the High School pupils and their friends at the home of Mrs. Wm. F. Keedy last Saturday evening. The occasion was intended as a Halloween party and quite a program of games and tricks was enjoyed. Music also occupied a prominent place on the program and several selections by Miss Lucile Berry of Portland were greatly appreciated. Mrs. Leslie H. Evens played and sang, delighting all with her sweet voice. After the program delicious refreshments were served. Miss Mary Harrison and Mrs. S. W. Koeller of the Grammar School also assisted Prof. Lovett with the program. We are assured that this will not be the last of the High School good times.

Kernville.

Messrs. Dodson & Cook are still away from their place of business.

The Southern Pacific railroad men did not come to survey a railroad, but the mud flats claimed by them.

Parmele boys are delivering lumber to Louie Holt, who is building a house near the Lake.

The cannery company cut the fishermen down one cent per pound on fish so nearly all quit fishing and went home.

A bread and sugar famine stares the people of Siletz bay in the face. The schooner Patsy has been expected in for some time.

Harry Thorp went to Willamina the first of the week.

John Rickenback went over into Tillamook county and got five cows to put on his ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Larsen have gone to the Agency to make a visit. They will leave their daughter, Ina, there to attend school this winter.

Charley Hyde thinks of remaining here to gather milk on the Siletz river and its tributaries, for the Kernville cheese factory next Summer.

The cheese factory at Kernville is still running. From April 19th to October 1st they made and sold $1400 worth of cheese and raised 25 calves all from the milk of 32 cows.

Farmers, bestir yourselves. Plant kale, sow grass, get a few cows and make a living independent of everything else.

Walter Bones and family are visiting Lee Bones the past week.

Mrs. Thorp and children are visiting Mrs. Carrie Parmele this week.

Yaquina

Jesse Reeder received a telegram from Astoria recently saying that his boat, the Orabelle, was in port near the mouth of the Columbia. The Orabelle left here some time ago with Enoch Olson and George Chambers on board. The wheel became loosened and the men were obliged to hoist the sails and sail into harbor.

The Hallowe'en party given by Misses Pearl Gates and Leola Hewett was thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended. The young ladies proved to be good entertainers and the games played were interesting and amusing. Later dancing was enjoyed by some of the guests and last, but not least, delicious refreshments were served.

The wife of H. M. Osborn of West Yaquina has been seriously ill for some time, but is now slowly improving. Dr. Carter has been in attendance. The family intended to return to their home in Lebanon some time ago, but owing to Mrs. Osborn's illness the trip was postponed until the latter part of the month.

The last meeting of the Choral Club was held at the home of Miss Edna Leo in West Yaquina. Many of the members were absent, owing to illness.

The barge Nehalem arrived in Yaquina Friday evening in tow of the tug Vosburg. Men were at once put to work loading it and it is now awaiting the arrival of the tug L. Roscoe, which will tow it to Coos bay.

Supervisor R. R. Miller visited the West Yaquina school Wednesday afternoon.

O. Middlekauff arrived in Yaquina Monday evening from Corvallis to serve as judge of election in this precinct.

Whooping cough is prevalent all around Yaquina. Until recently the attacks have been very light, but now they are more serious and many children are absent from school on that account.

Glen

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Crooks and family went to Albany last Friday on a visit. They expect to make this quite an extended visit.

Gerald Calkins and Vance Daniel of Big Elk spent last Saturday at Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Moore's.

Jesse Davenport went to Toledo to work last Monday.

Mrs. Coleman of Oklahoma was in this neighborhood this week looking for a place to locate. We hope she will be successful in finding her a home here.

Miss Ione Glines spent last Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Brown.

Mrs. S. J. Stewart visited school last week, also visited her mother, Mrs. Wm. Davenport.

Rupert Stewart went to Toledo Saturday.

Miss Edith Davenport visited her sister, Mrs. S. J. Stewart Saturday.

Nortons

Still it rains and from the looks of things we are all thinking it will rain forever.

The election seems to be the most important affair in this vicinity.

Z. M. Derrick has returned to Toledo after spending about three weeks surveying here.

Joe and John Ergish of Nashville were Nortons visitors Tuesday.

"Bob" McFarlan, who has a farm near Summit, came down Tuesday to cast his vote for President.

Fred Wagner has been on the sick list but is able to kick again.

Andy Parrish came over from Sugar Loaf for a few days' visit with friends.

W. E. Rutter has again commenced work on the section, after a short lay-off.

Section Foreman Lew Hamar made a business trip to Albany Friday, returning Saturday.

Mrs. F. H. Schimdt of Rocca passed through here Monday, on her way to Berkeley, California, where she will spend the winter with relatives.

Fred Brock came over from Rocca Sunday.

The first dance of the season will be given at the Eddyville Hall, by Lou Hamar and Lloyd Porter as soon as arrangements can be made in regard to the hall. Look for the dates in the next week's issue of the Leader.

Willis Carter returned to his farm here Monday, after a short visit with relatives at Wells.

John Chamberlain came over from Steer creek Tuesday.

Elk City and Big Elk

Since our last writing our general merchant, Chester Dixon, made a business trip to Portland.

Lester Enos, who has been at Hoquiam, Washington for some time returned to his home two weeks ago.

Bill Enos has built an addition to his sawmill which makes it more convenient for his laborers.

Willie Bristlen returned to his home after five months' sight-seeing at Corvallis.

Earl Updyke, who had been working in Albany, has returned and is employed as an off-bearer in the Elk City sawmill.

Harvey Young, now of Corvallis, was visiting friends in the city this week.

J. P. Young of Bellingham, Washington, returned to his home after one week's visit with his brother and family, A. C. Young, on Bear creek ranch.

J. R. Coopey and family left on Tuesday morning's train for Corvallis, where he will take charge of the Corvallis Creamery.

B. Winkill returned home Tuesday in time for election.

Arthur Ramsdell visited at the Slocum home Sunday.

The Bear Creek Card Club met at the home of Mrs. Anton C. Young Monday night. A most enjoyable time was spent by those present.

The members of the M. E. church at Elk City have been delayed with their work on the church on account of the heavy rains.

C. H. Stadelman made a flying trip to Elk City Monday.

Frank Updyke was obliged to resign his position on the election board on account of his domestic duties.

Lauree Cordell of Eddyville, escorted by Patrick Hodges of Salado, were among the jolly crowd that tripped the light fantastic toe at the dance Friday night.

Mrs. Hall who has been visiting her daughter at Klamath Falls is expected home this week.

Miss Bristlen and the Misses Mary and Sophia Holen attended the dance at the Bear creek pavilion Friday night.

Miss Nellie King made a pleasant call on Miss Sarah Ross last Sunday.

Dellie Hodge of Salado passed through our burg on his way to Elk City.

Ottilia, David and Emma Young were dinner guests of Aubray and Lois Hall Sunday.

The dance given at the Bear Creek pavilion Friday night for the purpose of raising funds to purchase a school bell proved successful. Those attending voted it one of the most delightful dances they ever attended. The decorations were unique, the hall being transformed into a forest of fir trees and Autumn leaves while the fire burned low in the grate. The jack 'o lanterns provided a soft light over the hall. A sumptuous supper was served at midnight, while cider was served throughout the evening.

Harlan

Lester January and R. R. Black killed a bear near Mr. Black's place a short time ago.

Caleb Davis and Mr. Smith of Corvallis were in on Big Elk to finish the open season.

P. H. Martin made a flying trip to Portland recently. While gone he purchased a residence in Corvallis, to place his children in school there.

Giles January went to Corvallis and purchased an engine, wood saw and feed chopper. He is doing some work for the Blodgett people before coming on to Harlan.

Chas. Mulkey is keeping "bachelors hall" while Mrs. Mulkey and the children are visiting in Albany.

Mr. Kinney was a visitor to Philomath and Corvallis last week.

Dell Hodges of Salado was a visitor in Harlan last Sunday.

Mr. Tomlinson, formerly of Seattel, has taken a homestead about three miles northwest of Harlan postoffice, and moved in with his family last week.

Geo. Arthur had the misfortune to fall on an axe and cut his leg quite severely.

Chitwood

Eli Deboard has traded his place here for Salem property.

Mr. Cordell made a trip to Eddyville Friday, returning Sunday evening.

We see Mr. Sanford is in style now. He has a telephone.

R. R. Wilson was out doing a little photo work Sunday.

Prof. J. E. Davis of the Wells high school and Rufus Wood of Wren came home Sunday returning the same evening.

TEACHERS' MEETING.

There will be a teachers' and parents' meeting at Old Eddyville Saturday, November 23, 1912. The Grange is going to meet with the teachers and all who are neither teachers nor grangers are cordially invited to be present and assist us in the work that we are doing. We need your assistance and will be able to do our work much better with your help. Come out, give us your help, have a pleasant time and go home saying that you are glad you were there.

Don't forget the day, November 23, 1912.

Don't forget the place, Old Eddyville.

It is to be a Grangers, Teachers and Parents meeting. It is for you too.

R. P. Goin, Supt.

MORE THAN ENOUGH IS TOO MUCH.

To maintain health, a mature man or woman needs just enough food to repair the waste and supply energy and body heat. The habitual consumption of more food than is necessary for these purposes is the prime cause of stomach troubles, rheumatism and disorders of the kidneys. If troubled with indigestion, revise your diet, let reason and not appetite control and take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will soon be all right again. For sale by all dealers.

American Gentlemen and American Lady shoes at Fish's. As good as there is on the market.

"White Elephant" strawberry plants for sale. A wonderful variety, both plants and berries grow to be giants. Very productive, berries white or light pink when ripe; very good flavor. Flavor like pineapple or banana. Price 50c. a hundred by express.

E. A. Wildman, Chitwood, Or.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Lincoln.

Leon H. Fish and A. J. Hodges, plaintiffs,
