Waldport

The New Year came in very quietly at Waldport.

Quite a number of our young folks went to Newport to attend the New Years' ball.

Last week's storms damaged several launches and small boats about the Alsea bay.

A letter from Congressman Hawley announces that he has succeeded in having the survey of the Alsea bay and bar provided for in the river and harbor bill, which is to be acted upon at the present session of Congress.

Our football team went to Newport for a game January 1st.

Waldport Grange is to erect a hall for their own use.

A number of Waldport citizens will wait upon the County Court at its next session to discuss something vital in the way of roads and road matters.

Eddyville

Last Saturday was a lively day in Eddyville. It had previously been advertised that several important meetings were to be held on that day, so everyone came to town, bringing their dogs with them, and several even bringing their wives and sweethearts. The first thing pulled off was a meeting of the Ysquima Bay Mutual Telephone company, which was engineered by our old friend Ches Morrison of Elk City, who by the way is general manager of that system, and seems to be the right man in the right place. The meeting was called to order in Mr. Kolkow's store as the time clock on the schoolhouse door was set for 1 o'clock p. m. After some discussion of the affairs of the company it was thought best to be more strict in collecting phone dues, and upon motion it was voted to disconnect all phones of those that had not paid up by the 10th of each month. After the motion was carried it was discovered that several present who had been finding fault with others, had not paid their dues for months past. Even one or two of the officers could not remember when they had paid up last, but were certain they had paid up to January, 1912. The meeting was a hummer and everyone was pleased when it was over.

The road meeting was held at the schoolhouse and a special tax of 1 1/2 mills levied. As W. F. Wakefield, the supervisor, was not present W. J. Cline was elected chairman. Mr. Cline was also elected supervisor for 1913.

The Eddyville Grange held its usual meeting Saturday at the Hall. They elected officers for the ensuing year.

Chitwood

Happy New Year to all.

Married, at the home of the bride's parents near Chitwood, Or., on December 25th, 1912, Miss Nora Wood to Mr. Walter Irwin, Rev. Cleo officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Emma Wood of this place and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Irwin of Brush Prairie, Washington. Both the bride and groom are well known here and their many friends wish them joy. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Irwin were passengers Tuesday morning for Albany where they expect to make their future home.

Titus Kurtichanov was a passenger Monday morning for Gatzon, where he is attending school.

Mrs. Lena Phillips left Monday for Dallas where she has been working the past few months.

Mr. and Cecil Sanford returned home Saturday evening.

Mrs. R. A. Wood and children returned Saturday evening. Mrs. Wood has been visiting a few days with her mother, Mrs. Hymes, of Summit.

Mrs. Cooper met with quite a serious accident last Tuesday. In some manner while working near the stove she fell, striking her head on the corner of the stove and cutting a deep gash just over the right eye. After furling she laid in a semi-conscious state for about two hours before being found. Mr. Smith, who's store is only about 50 feet from the Cooper house, wished to see a certain copy of the Leader and stepped over to Cooper's to borrow it, and after rapping several times, opened the door and found her. She was so weak from loss of blood that she could scarcely move or speak. Dr. Morris was called to dress the wound.

Deo Cooper left Monday for Southern Oregon, where he is teaching school. He had been spending the holidays with his parents here.

Mr. Steinmetz returned Monday from Portland, where he went to spend his Christmas.

Nortons

Andy Parrish and daughter Myrtle came up from Eddyville Thursday.

G. W. Wilson's son is visiting him from Philomath.

Bob Harris and Lloyd Porter attended the Nashville debating club Saturday evening.

Oscar Mays of Rocco passed through here Wednesday on his way to Portland.

L. E. Chantel, who is working on the railroad here spent Christmas at his home near Rocco.

Ed Hamar is assisting in the store here while they are taking the annual invoice.

Mrs. H. S. Porter and daughter, Mildred, are visiting relatives at Chitwood this week.

J. K. Shields, Albert Beers and Chris Widmer attended grange at Eddyville Saturday.

James Jones of Salem is visiting with his son, E. S. Jones, of this place.

Riverside V

As it is Winter and we are not so busy we will come back to our old paper, which we should never have abandoned.

F. H. Lang and family moved in from Portland and are now building them a small house to live in for the Winter.

R. L. Calkins and family and Ted Daniel returned from Portland this Winter to live on their ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Daniel and George Lang returned from Portland. They are now working at Toledo.

Wm. Scarth, the Bell telephone proprietor, was up to investigate the switch board Friday.

The Riverside boys (not girls) spent a nice evening at the dance at B. F. Grant's.

Christmas was passed by a fine dinner at Mr. Daniel's home. Everybody enjoyed a good time.

Victor Folmsbee returned from Washington, where he has been working.

It is almost time for the girls to give up. The New Year is about here; but it is not so bad as it was because Oregon has gone women suffrage. Bingo!

Little Elk.

Christmas is over and all had a good time.

W. F. Wakefield spent Christmas at home, returning to Portland the 26th.

Wheeler Cline spent Christmas at Chitwood.

George Colby has moved back on his own place. George says there is no place like home.

Mr. Moss had the misfortune to lose his fine mare one day last week. She fell over a steep bank hurting herself so badly she had to be killed.

Mrs. Cline returned home from Portland the Saturday before Christmas, where she had been for medical aid. Her daughter came home with her.

Miss Colby was visiting her brother, George, and family over Christmas. Miss Colby is teaching school at Shaw, Oregon.

There were some of the people of Little Elk attended the telephone and road meeting held at Eddyville Saturday, the 28th. We did not learn any of the particulars in regard to what was done at either of the meetings.

There was a Christmas tree at Eddyville schoolhouse December 24th in the afternoon, given by the Eddyville Grange and the people of Little Elk and Eddyville. It was a grand success in every way. The following is the program as given: Song, "America," by the audience. Recitation, Richard Girdler. Song, by five little girls of Eddyville school. Recitation, Kenneth Loudon. Recitation, Johnny McBride. Recitation, Elenor Girdler. Song, the Eddyville School Choir. Recitation, Bell Willoughby. Song, Lois Loudon and Clifford Wakefield. Recitation, Irene Magee. Dialogue, Roy and Loren Mauch. Song, Eugene Girdler. Drill by Six Girls of Eddyville school. Song, Little Elk school. Dialogue Five Boys of Eddyville school. Song Little Elk Choir. Song Eddyville School Choir.

The Eddyville Grange held their annual election at their last regular meeting Saturday December 28th. The following are the newly elected officers: S. T. Loudon master; Albert Beers overseer; Mr. Moss lecturer; Brown Wakefield steward; Roger Loudon assistant steward; Mrs. Girdler chaplain; J. D. Kirby treasurer; C. H. Wakefield secretary; Chris Weidmer gate keeper; Mrs. Loudon Ceres; Mrs. I. J. Peppin Pomona; Mrs. Colby Flora; Lois Loudon L. A. steward. Eddyville Grange has had a very prosperous year both in membership and financially and has made a good snowing in many more ways. We believe it would be a good idea for all the granges in the county to have a column in one of the county papers so we could let ourselves be known to the public and give encouragement for others to join, for there is nothing better to have in a community than a good live grange.

Siletz

The newly organized Dance Club gave their first dance Christmas night. It was a complete success, there being more than enough funds to pay for the new dishes bought by the Club, besides the music and refreshments.

The Siletz Government School gave their annual Christmas exercises Tuesday evening. The tree and program were very nicely arranged by Miss Raddant and school.

A very interesting Christmas program and tree was given at the M. E. church Tuesday, the 24th, by Miss Knauf and her pupils. Prizes for best recitations were awarded to William Knauf, 1st; Irene Kentta 2d, and Dewey Goodell, 3d. The judges were Misses Amy Hall, Claudia McDonald and Mrs. M. S. Collins. A large crowd attended.

The Indians held a feather dance in Metcalf hall Wednesday evening.

Invitations are out for a New Years' eve celebration and whist party to be held in the girls' dormitory.

Mrs. C. S. Davis and Elsie Raddant are spending a short vacation outside.

The Siletz Dramatic Club will give the three act drama "Little Buckshot" Saturday night, January 4th.

Mike Knauf has sold his Siletz ranch to Chris Larson of Dakota and expects to move to Newport soon.

One of the Kyniston boys trapped a large wild cat on Siletz last week. It measured five feet in length.

Newport

Ed Abbev has gone to St. Michaels Springs for the benefit of his health. He has not fully recovered from the effects of the injury received in the railroad wreck that occurred near Chitwood about two months ago.

Joseph Patterson has returned from his home in Pittsburgh, Pa., to spend the holidays at Newport, after which he will resume his duties as one of the city editors of the Oregonian.

The storm still continues with increased severity. It was the worst Saturday night Sunday and Sunday night than at any time during the season. The beaches are covered with sea foam. No damages as yet reported.

At the district road meeting held the 30th a two mill tax was voted for roads, but as the proceedings were a little irregular it may not stick. It is well understood in this county that land values as well as levies are too high as it makes the paying of taxes too burdensome on the people. One speaker at the meeting said a debt was a real blessing. This gentleman is a real boomer.

A committee of three was appointed at the meeting to attend the February term of Circuit Court to look after the interest of the district in a suit pending wherein certain persons refuse to pay their road and school tax.

J. A. Hill, president of the Hill Military Academy of Portland, accompanied by seventeen cadets, came over to spend the holidays at the Monterey hotel. A splendid place to spend a few days of rest and recreation. Mr. Hill has an option on the place for five years and expects to spend his vacations here. He is making extensive improvements on the property.

A mask ball will be given at the Elite Hotel on New Years' eve. A good time is anticipated by all.

W. F. White and V. A. Ranney of Newberg were visiting at the Whites home on Upper Depot the last of last week.
