Arthur Scott returned to his home at Brownsville Saturday noon, after a week's visit among old friends and acquaintances here and at Siletz.

Clarence Miller and friend drove down from Portland Wednesday in Mr. Miller's big auto and will spend several days here with the former's father, J. B. Miller, the logging man.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hoevet departed yesterday morning for Albany where they will make their home. Mr. Hoevet, we understand, will enter the sawmill business at that place. The Leader will keep them posted on Lincoln county affairs.

Jack Fogarty last Friday purchased the residence of J. H. McNeil at the corner of First and Grove streets. Mr. and Mrs. Fogarty have occupied this place since coming to Toledo to reside about two years ago, and will now make it their permanent home.

Every sidetrack in town has been full of loaded cars this week. The output of the sawmill. Yesterday it took two engines to haul the freight out, and yet the sidings are crowded with loaded cars. We will have to have more side tracks, more trains or stop the mills from sawing so much.

Word has just been received here that Cecil McNeil was married the 15th of June to Miss Mary Ronco, at Peedee, Polk county. After spending the summer on a farm in Polk county they will return to Corona, California, where they will make their home. Congratulations and best wishes of Cecil's many friends in Toledo are extended.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Bateman came over from their home on Lower Siletz the first of the week to make proof on their homestead. Leo returned to the ranch today, Mrs. Bateman and son will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ross, for some time before returning. Leo purchased fifty-two weeks more Leader before returning.

H. G. Weaver of Beaver Creek was in the city Wednesday and left an order at this office for one thousand circular letters. These letters contain a description of the beauties of Oregon and Lincoln county and tells what a good country it is to live in. It also contains a description of Mr. Weaver's ranch. Mr. Weaver will circulate these letters in the East and in this unique manner endeavor to find a buyer for his place. Mr. Weaver is too old for hard work.

The National Joy Smoke

is, of course, a cigar. He who knows what is good for him will smoke our famous Cigars, a fragrant, cool, delightful smoke that would please the most particular cigar critic. A single sample will leave you yearning for a box. They are mild, medium and strong; suited, in fact, to all tastes. Try one and you will admit they are cheap for the money. Try Al's Thoroughbreds.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank the many kind friends and neighbors for their aid and sympathy during our recent bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Preuitt.

Lambert Nelson was down from Pioneer last Saturday.

Mrs. Jacob Holgate died at her home at Lutjens Wednesday, July 9th. The body was taken to Portland for burial.

Surveyors are surveying for the extension of the Toledo-Siletz railroad, from the log dump on the Parrish place to the C. & E. bridge.

L. H. Payne was up from Newport Wednesday. He and Alie Read are building a large concrete reservoir for the Newport waterworks system.

H. L. Graves, chief forester of the United States, arrived here Wednesday, and in company with

I will have the celebrated Stayton Flour in stock again in a few days. R. S. Van Cleve.

The Ladies' Whist Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. E. M. Stanton last Friday afternoon.

Forester Cahoon and Buck of Eugene, went to Tidewater, going over the trail by way of Table Mountain. Mr. Graves is making an inspection of the forest reserves with a view to releasing all agricultural lands and allowing settlement as homesteads.

The state engineer issued two permits for the appropriation of water in Lincoln county during the quarter ending June 30th. These permits are as follows: B. F. Jones, as president of the Siletz Power and Manufacturing company, has secured a permit for the development of 10,000 theoretical horse power, with the waters of Siletz river in section 10, township 10 south, range 10 west. This is near the Agency. M. J. Slate of Alsea also has a permit for the generation of 12 horsepower with the waters of Slate creek, in section 2, township 14 south, range 8 west.
