Tax Commissioner Explains Methods

Salem, Oregon, January 12, 1914.

Mr. W. E. Bell, County Assessor, Toledo, Oregon:

Dear Mr. Bell:—Some time since while on your city, Mr. Stewart and I had a conversation relative to the system by which the State Tax Commission apportioned the State taxes. As the matter was not entirely clear to me, I referred it to Mr. Galloway for a brief explanation. He has set the same out in a letter to me, copy of which I am enclosing today to Mr. Stewart. Thinking the matter would be of possible interest to you also, I am taking the liberty of herewith enclosing copy of same.

With best wishes, I am, yours very truly,
Ben W. Olcott, Secretary of State.
