Mrs. Joseph Swearingen went to Corvallis Tuesday for a visit with relatives.

Mrs. C. B. Croano and daughter, Mrs. Carl Gildersleeve, visited at Elk City Wednesday.

R. R. Wilson and family have moved down from their farm near Chitwood and are occupying the Day cottage above the Oddfellow Hall.

Miss Winifred Spencer has been unable to teach this week owing to a severe attack of tonsillitis. Miss Nellie Baird taking her place in the school.

The Ladies' Whist Club again entertained their husbands and a few invited guests at the I. O. O. F. Hall last Saturday evening. Some forty persons were present and spent the evening at cards. At about 11:30 a luncheon of coffee, cake and sandwiches was served. Mrs. D. J. Sides and G. R. Schenck won the first prizes and Mrs. C. H. Gardner and J. S. Akin won, or rather didn't win, very many points.

Now that the cranberry building is nearing completion and will soon be in operation, it would be a good idea for our people to begin thinking about a fruit and vegetable canner at this place. If there is a better vegetable and fruit—especially berry—country than this we don't know it. There is no better enterprise for everybody in the community than a cannery. There will never be an over supply of any product which can be canned. There could be a cannery as large as any on the coast right here if our farmers will devote a portion of their ground and time to raising vegetables and small fruit. Don't pass this opportunity up.

WANTED—Man or woman and wife to work on farm. Good steady work for the right party. Write box 112, Newport, Oregon.

FOR SALE.
Good work mare and 9-month's old colt; also two plows, cultivator, harrow and other farming implements, and household furniture. Call on W. F. McJunkin, in town.

Good Sports
The basketball games at Waldport last Saturday evening resulted in victories for both Waldport and Toledo. The boys' game was won by Waldport by the score of 25 to 5. The girls' game was won by Toledo, score 11 to 3.

When the Toledo bunch arrived at Waldport they were met by the Mayor and a number of citizens who bid them welcome, and gave them the keys to the city. After the game they were banqueted, taken to the movies and wound up with a dance. The next morning they were escorted over the city and shown a royal good time. The boys and girls are loud in their praise of Waldport and will ever have a kindly remembrance of their trip.

CIGARS ON THE BRAIN

Some of the most inveterate smokers have really got Cigars on the brain. They are all the time looking for the finest smokes. At least they WERE all the time looking for them until they accidentally bought one of Al's Thoroughbreds. Now, of course, these connoisseurs are regular customers of ours. You will be the same when you discover what an excellent cigar we give for the money.
