

Warren Hall came over from the Agency yesterday.

Ted McElwain was a passenger for Portland this morning.

Mrs. Lola Crusen returned to her home at Albany this morning.

Billy Graham was called to Kings Valley this morning by the illness of his father.

Chrs. Lillard of Harlan was in the city Wednesday evening getting repairs for his shingle mill.

Mrs. John Rattay and little daughter returned Wednesday evening from a visit in Portland.

John Salvage will hold a public auction at the Graham Livery Barn tomorrow, to dispose of a large list of household goods.

Charley Brown and family, who have been living for the past year at Dayton, returned to Toledo and will again make their home here. They have rented the Sondre Romtvedt house.

Subscriptions received this week are J. C. Dixon, Elk City; J. E. Coleman, Portland; James Withycombe, Corvallis; Jesse Reeder, Yaquina; C. C. Brown, Toledo; B. D. Leathers, Bremeton, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon and family of San Pedro, California, arrived in this city last Monday evening and have taken up their residence in the John Salvage cottage. Mr. Gordon will assist George Walker in the shipyard.

L. D. Bissett of Newberg arrived in this city Wednesday evening and his family will follow in a few days. Mr. Bissett has traded for a ranch about three miles north of town on Depot slough and will go into the dairy business.

L. J. Dimmitt has leased the Grady building adjoining the Peterson Jewelry store and expects to open up a butcher shop. Mr. Dimmitt has been in the butcher business before, and will undoubtedly make a success of his venture here.

The steamer Newport returned to the lower bay Thursday afternoon under her own power. The new gas engine works fine and it is thought will give entire satisfaction. With the changing of the Newport from a steam to a gas type of vessel, we are left without a steam craft on the bay.

A. Welch and several prominent Portland attorneys were in the city Wednesday closing up the deal for the taking over of the Lincoln County Telephone and Telegraph company's lines and the lines of the Mutual company. While the transaction is not entirely completed as yet, still it is far enough advanced to assure a deal, and we are satisfied that the two lines will soon be under one management.

The first social meeting of the Methodist Social Club was held at Oddfellow Hall last Friday evening, about sixty being present. The Club now has about 50 members. This is one of the best social features inaugurated in our town. It affords a place for our young people to meet and enjoy themselves in unquestionable social recreation. Those who do not believe in dancing, card playing and other such amusements will find great pleasure in these club socials.

Jay W. Dunn, in this issue announces his candidacy for the nomination for the office of Sheriff of this county on the Republican ticket. Mr. Dunn is just about as well known throughout this county as any man residing herein. To those who do not know Mr. Dunn we will say that he has been a resident of the county since early boyhood; he is a prosperous, progressive farmer; is and always has been to the fore in all public matters. He is a young man, well educated and thoroughly competent to handle the affairs of this important office.

Chesley L. Morrison announces his candidacy in this week's issue, for the nomination for the office of Sheriff of this county. Ches Morrison is, as everybody knows, a mighty good Democrat. There is not a man in the county who is better or more favorably known. If he secures the nomination at the hands of his party he will make a strong fight for the office at the November election. If the next Sheriff is going to be a Democrat—and we are sure such is not the case—we don't know of a man we would rather see in that position than Mr. Morrison.
