COUNTY NEWS

News of each Community Gathered each week by Our Rustling Associate Editors

Newport

On July 13th, the weather was fair and pleasant. The school house was occupied by the pupils from 10:00 to 12:00, during which the children were engaged in making the best use of their time. The weather was fine and the children enjoyed themselves very much.

Taft

Elder Starrett from Dallas has returned to his home.

West Yaquina

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cox of Portland will return to their home.

Upper Beaver

Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Martin and Mr. J. H. Bowers visited Grandpa S. K. Martin.

Oysterville

John Harper left for Portland Thursday morning to enter a sawmill. His family has been following him for some time and he hopes that they may be able to visit him before the holidays.

Bayview

Rev. E. J. Miller and Miss B. E. Miller held services at the Gideon's Lodge for the benefit of the Gideon's Lodge.

Gladys Freeman

Drowned

Last Wednesday night, about 1:00 a.m., Gladys Freeman, an 11-year-old girl, was drowned in the Siletz River near the mouth of the Yaquina River. The body was recovered by the police and the coroner's jury will hold an inquest. The cause of death was asphyxiation.