COUNTY NEWS News of each Community Gathered each week by Our Rustling Associate Editors

Newport

James H. Mattice, a retired merchant from Vancouver, Wn., his wife, daughter and nephew, came in Sunday on the excursion train and went to the Nicolai hotel. In the evening the party went to the Woodford restaurant for a lunch. This was about 7 p. m. At 8 o'clock they returned to the hotel. In starting down the stairway at the back of the building leading into the hotel, Mr. Mattice made a false step and fell to the bottom of the stairs, a distance of about twelve feet. When his nephew got to him he was dead. His wife thought when he made the step he mistook the step of the stairs for the floor of the hotel. It was cloudy and some rain was falling and it was quite dark at that place. Death was sudden. There were no bruises on the body and the neck was not broken. Drs. Minthorn and Carter were called and they thought his death must have been caused by heart failure or a broken blood vessel in the brain. He was sixty-three years old, large and fleshy. He is survived by his wife and daughter who were completely prostrated by his sudden death. His body was embalmed and will be shipped East for burial.

Died, at the home of his son, W. J. Smith, Allen Smith, aged 75 years, 10 months and 23 days. His body will be embalmed and shipped back to his old home in Michigan for burial. He is survived by a son, who is a resident of Newport.

more business and increase the population. Newport will soon have a splendid city dock of 600 feet and the benefit of an open sea. With co-operation, energy and push we can get government aid to deepen and broaden the channel from Newport to Elk City. The mill business is mainly at Toledo, and under the new management the pay roll will be increased to about $30,000 per month. The great body of timber on the Siletz will be taken out this way over the Yaquina bar, because it can be done so much cheaper.

Ona

George Selby made a trip to Toledo Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lissy, Misses Lois Ohmart, Neta and Helen Phelps, Reynolds Ohmart and Clifford Phelps spent Sunday at the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Weber made a trip to Yaquina Friday.

Mrs. J. H. Wolfersperger, who has been visiting at the Commons ranch for some time, left for her home in Hillsboro Friday.

Miss Lois Ohmart of Salem is visiting her brother, R. W. Ohmart, of this place.

Fred and Lloyd Commons delivered two fine hogs to Newport Thursday.

Miss Leta Dancy visited Miss Daisy Ferr from Friday until Tuesday.

Tidewater

Well, the rain wagon arrived and is delivering its cargo to the expectant ranchers and all others concerned.

Ludemmn & McMillan are busy sawing and delivering planking for the road work on the road from Waldport to Canal creek on the Alsea river.

Miss Hallie Glines who has been teaching the lower school, has given her last month's work over to Miss Irene Branch of Yaquina. Miss Glines has returned to her home in Waldport where she is preparing to go to Corvallis to attend school at the O.A.C. this winter.

The children are still whooping around here.

Mr. McMillan, who was so low with pneumonia, passed away Monday, August 31, at 10 a. m., at the age of 62 years. He was laid away in the Tidewater Cemetery Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Silas Howell of Ocean View conducting the ceremony. Mr. McMillan had been a resident of this community over 27 years and was greatly respected by everyone and we feel we have lost a dear friend and a good neighbor. We all extend our deepest sympathy to the bereft family. He leaves a widow and five sons and many other relatives to mourn his absence. But he has only crossed the hill that's left for us to climb, that breaks the echo and the thrill of life's eternal rhyme. Another one to join with those who have gone on before, to welcome you with open arms when you, too, reach that shore.

Upper Beaver

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Schirmer, of Poole slough spent Sunday visiting at the Peterson ranch.

K. D. Martin and Fritz Fallman took a load of cream to Oysterville Thursday.

H. A. Emerson of Oyster City was in our neighborhood Thursday.

A. Peterson made a trip to P. Shermer's Thursday.

Tracy Fallman was on the sick list last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Huntsucker and son, Kenneth, visited at I. N. Hewett's Sunday.

Mrs. W. C. Martin visited her daughter, Mrs. I. N. Hewett, and family Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. M. Wachsmut and Mrs. Edith Lewis of Newport visited at the Peterson ranch Thursday and Wednesday.

Fritz Fallman has been seriously ill for the last few days.

Fiegles Creek

Miss Georgia Kessi came home Friday for a short visit.

Fred Scheddler and George Titus are here looking up a location for a new building on their homesteads upon which they lately made final proof.

John Rankin and Marion Walker go to Toledo the 25th of this month to make final proof on their homesteads. Very fast Lincoln county is becoming deeded land.

Ralph Darting took his wife and little girls to Summit yesterday for a week's visit.

Jack Frost made us a call a few nights ago, leaving his imprint upon potato vines and "sich." Probably the crop of this particular vegetable is a little short this year and now the much wished for rain will do the good hoped, much to the regret of those of Irish proclivities.

Sunday John Rankin entertained friends at luncheon and, oh! say, it is a pleasure to see our Fiegles Creek bachelors busy at the science of cookery. This one came away with the idea that it were better to send the women to war on the forefront of battle and spare the men to do the cooking. I am not "talking through my hat," either.

Those who partook of Mr. Rankin's generous hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mulvany, Miss Georgia Kessi, Miss Elizabeth Kessi, Will Kessi, Marion Walker, Blanche and Percy Mulvany. After luncheon Miss Georgia Kessi entertained with violin music. Perhaps her most pleasing selections were "B. Trevatore" and Mynarski's distinguished Mazurka in F.

Miss Kessi was a pupil of Dr. Chapman of the Pacific University.

Miss Thurza Boies who has been visiting Miss Kessi, returned to O. A. C. Friday to resume her studies.

Mr. Editor, am I not a hustling little news gatherer? Go, every locality and do likewise, as it helps us to all become acquainted and it helps the Editor to get subscribers and, well, I have known people to get husbands and wives through ads in the newspapers. I am married already, so let not your heart be troubled. "A little nonsense now and then," etc., etc.

Taft

The rain that we have long wanted has come at last.

Mr. Edward Peterson who has been working for D. R. Ring for the last year, left here for Salem, where he will visit friends and relatives. And he will go from there to Meadow Glade, Wash., where he will attend school this coming term. His many friends wish him success.

The Gerald C. came into Kerville from Astoria, loaded with provisions for winter.

Sam and Arthur Gorten from Rose Lodge visited here the first of last week. They were on their way to the hop yards.

The postoffice at Taft has a good supply of first class shoes on hand. It will pay you to call and look at them.

Oysterville

The long-wished-for rain has arrived at last.

Beryl King visited home folks Friday afternoon.

Louie Bain spent several days in our town last week.

The candy pull and dance that was held Saturday night at F. S. Shermer's ended up in trouble. To bad some men cannot go to homes for a good time without getting drunk and causing trouble.

Henry Shermer had the misfortune to be kicked in the face by a cow Friday at the home of his father.

J. Margson made a business trip to the valley Tuesday.

Mrs. Anna Detolla returned to her home Sunday after a busy summer at Newport digging rock oysters.

Little Elk

The water wagon has come at last.

Farmers are taking in the rain and getting ready to dig their potatoes.

H. O. Boynton and S. T. Loudon were over to Harlan last week getting exhibits for the coming fair. They report good prospects for exhibits.

Arnel Standard made a flying trip to the valley last Thursday, returning the next day.

Mr. Mathews of Portland is visiting his son, Clarence, and Oscar this week.

George Brown of Corvallis was buying sheep in this valley 1,000 head, paying from three to four dollars and fifty cents per head.

Miss Nina Gleason of Woodburn, Ore., is visiting her sister, Mrs. S. T. Loudon, this week.

Mr. John Kurtichanov of Chitwood was in this vicinity last Tuesday looking after school matters in the way of teaching.

W. F. Wakefield went to Toledo last Wednesday on county matters.

John Peterson was in this vicinity Wednesday on business, returning to Toledo on the evening train.

S. T. Loudon went to Toledo on the evening train Wednesday to finish getting the fair grounds in order for the coming fair. The prospects are very favorable for the best fair ever held. There will be good speakers of state-wide reputation. In fact everything that goes to make a good fair will be there and on the last day there will be a baby show. There will be competent doctors to judge the babies. They will be judged from a eugenic standpoint and a lecture will be given in connection with the show so come and bring your babies and help the good work along.

Person having children who will be six years of age between now and the first of January are requested to start them in school at once, as after the first of October beginners will not be received in the primary grade. Another class will be started the first of January to accommodate those who come in later. This is done to facilitate the work in the primary department as progress cannot be made when beginners are allowed to join the class any time during the school year.

J. C. Carson of Ocean View was a county seat visitor last week, stopping off here while enroute to Portland where he was going to purchase an engine and boiler for his sawmill at Ocean View. While here he secured a contract from the County Court for some bridge lumber. He will use steam and water-power combined to operate the mill. A mill has long been needed in that section of the county and we predict that Mr. Carson will do well.

After a long delay it seems that George Walker, the shipbuilder, is about to secure a lease to the ground back of the Leader office. As soon as the lease is executed Mr. Walker will commence the fixing up of a shipyard. He now has the prospect of a boat or two to build this winter.

Raymond Dickson passed through on the train Monday morning enroute to Norton. Mr. Dickson has been engaged to teach in the Rock Creek school this winter. School commenced last Monday.

The dredge Lingo the first of the week did some dredging at the rear of the Merchants Hotel, for Dr. Burgess, who will move his house to this site.

Miss Clara Larson commenced a nine months' term of school in the Hiser district last Tuesday.

FOR SALE.

One hundred and fifty goats. Price $2.00 each. F. F. Foster, Norton, Or.

MARRIED

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Loudon, on Little Elk, September 8th, 1914, Clifford Wakefield and Miss Lois Loudon, were united in marriage, Rev. Davenport officiating.

The bride and groom are very highly respected in this community, where they have both resided for many years.

The bride was becomingly dressed in white, wearing a bouquet of white carnations. The room was decorated with ferns, asters and oleanders. The bride and groom were attended by Roger Loudon, brother of the bride, and Miss Anna Mauch. Only the immediate relatives were present to witness the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Wakefield leave next week for their home at Ona, this county.

The Leader joins the many friends of the happy couple in wishing them a long life and happiness.

BIG AUCTION

One o'clock third day of Fair, September 24, at Fair Grounds. Will sell one, two and three-seated rigs, buck boards, farm wagons, saddles, harness, horses, cows, etc. For cash or terms as announced at time of sale. Exhibitors and others who wish to sell stock make arrangements with auctioneer.

TOLEDO LIVERY STABLE, J. H. ROSS, Auctioneer.

C. C. Kubler came up from Newport yesterday.

Ed Altree and family moved out to the Camp on Depot slough the first of the week, where Ed will work during the coming winter.

Miss Maude Wakefield arrived over from Creswell Saturday evening and began teaching in our schools Tuesday morning.

Miss Grace Tiffany arrived Saturday noon from Eugene. She took up her duties as teacher in our high school Tuesday morning.

Just eleven days until the opening of the Lincoln County Fair. Have you those exhibits ready?

This next Fair should be the biggest and best Fair ever held in the county. It's up to us all to make it such.

The Board of Managers are doing everything possible to make our County Fair the best ever. Everybody should help best.

Jack Link who has been employed at the sawmill here the past several months, departed Tuesday morning for the Valley.

George Trowbridge, the greenhouse man, expects to make a display of vegetables and flower at the coming Fair. He has prepared flowers in boxes, to facilitate the handling of them, and lovers of flowers will be treated to a mighty fine display. Mr. Trowbridge is one of the county's most successful gardeners and florists.

Attorney Arthur Clark of Corvallis came over on the Labor Day excursion last Monday.

Mrs. P. Frederick and niece returned Monday evening from a week's visit at Portland. While in the city Mrs. Frederick purchased her Fall millinery.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Moore and baby arrived over from Salem Monday evening.

Steven Skaggs of Chitwood was a Toledo visitor Tuesday, going from here to Rose Lodge.

W. C. Fischer was up from Yaquina last Saturday. Mr. Fischer started another nine months term of school at Yaquina Monday, the 31st of August.

W. H. Dean was over from Corvallis the first of the week.

L. C. Mowery of Lower Siletz was a county seat visitor last Saturday. While in town he renewed his subscription to the Leader.

O. H. Haugann made some repairs to the county jail last week.

Horses

I am going to sell at prices that will surprise you, 4 heavy, 1 middle weight, and several light buggy and saddle horses. Come early and avoid the rush.

John Rattey, Toledo Livery Stables.

Lee Slyter was a passenger for the hop fields Saturday morning.

Dr. Clausius of the Agency was a passenger for the Valley Wednesday morning.
