FIELD SPORTS
When you keep a boy interested in football, baseball, tennis, and the like, you lessen the chances that he will get interested in things not so good for him.
The Youth's Companion, since its enlargement, gives generous space to this matter of athletic training and gets the best coaches in the country to write for it.
How to practice to become a first rate pitcher, how to train for a race, how to learn the newest strokes in swimming—these and a hundred other topics of the greatest interest to boys—to girls, too, for that matter—are touched upon in this important department of The Companion.
And this is only a small part of the services which The Companion renders in any home which it enters. It has points of contact with a hundred interests.
If you do not know the Companion as it is today, let us send you one or two current issues free, that you may thoroughly test the paper's quality. We will send also the Forecast for 1915.
Every new subscriber who sends $2.00 for the fifty two weekly issues of 1915 will receive free all the issues of the paper for the remaining weeks of 1914; also The Companion Home Calendar for 1915.
