THE BONBONIERE

TWENTY-ONE YEARS

AGO TODAY

Merry Christmas to All.

Sheriff Landis had business in Newport Wednesday.

Miss Anna Hamar of Nashville is visiting friends in this city.

M. Hansen, the jeweler, intends going to Salem next week, where he will locate.

D. C. Rosebrook came over from Corvallis to see his parents yesterday.

The steam ferry boat, Rebecca, came up from Newport today after lumber for the Odd-fellow building at that place.

O. V. Hurt has traded for J. Glor's place, just across the Olalla from town and will soon make his home there, fitting up for a chicken ranch.

R. A. Benschell and S. G. Irvin went through to Corvallis today. We did not learn what they were after, but think they went out to bid on the railroad.

Dr. Rich burned a tumor from Mrs. Chapman's eye last Saturday.

Isaac A. Dick died at the residence of his son Charles A. Dick in this city Sunday, December 10, 1893, aged 81 years.

Grandma Card, 80 years old, walked from Newport to the lighthouse and back, a distance of ten miles, one day recently.

A. L. Hawley is pastor of the local M. E. church.

Merry Christmas to All.

TO SUBSCRIBERS

Every subscriber to this paper who gave us an order for the 18-cent club of four magazines can renew their subscription this year on the same terms.

This offer is open to every reader of our paper. If any of our subscribers failed to take advantage of this offer last year we invite all to come in this year. The offer is surely a bargain. Just Think of it! You can get four big monthly magazines with the Leader, all one year, for only $1.68. Don't miss this bargain. Just remind us that you want four magazines when you renew your subscription.

We don't make a cent on these magazines. The only reason we offer them to our customers is for the sole purpose of saving our readers money. It is our intention to give our subscribers the advantages we receive from magazine publishers. Every time you order magazines or farm papers from other publishers it will cost you more money than we charge. It is for your benefit alone that we offer you these four magazines at such a big reduction.

The four we offer this year are: Woman's World, Home Life, Gentlewoman and Farm Life.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Lincoln county. S. E. Coffin, Plaintiff, vs. Clari I. Coffin, Defendant.

To Clari I. Coffin, the above named defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit, now on file in the office of the County Clerk of the above entitled Court, on or before the last day named in the order for publication of this summons, made by the Hon. John Fogarty, County Judge of Lincoln County, Oregon, (being the County where the above entitled suit is pending in the Circuit Court for said County and State) which said order and time for answering said summons are hereinafter referred to, to-wit: on or before six weeks from the first day of publication hereof; and

You are hereby notified, that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint as herein required, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in said complaint, to-wit: for a decree dissolving and annulling the marriage contract now existing between plaintiff and defendant and for such other relief as the Court may deem meet and just;

This summons is served upon you by publication thereof by order of the Hon. John Fogarty, County Judge of Lincoln County, Oregon, made on the 12th day of November, 1914, directing publication thereof, once a week for six consecutive and successive weeks beginning with the issue of November 27th, 1914, and ending with the issue of January 8th, 1915, in the Lincoln County Leader, a weekly newspaper of general circulation printed and published in Lincoln County, Oregon.
