WALDPORT AS A BUSINESS POINT

DR. LINTON TELLS OF HER SCENIC BEAUTIES AND HER WONDERFUL RESOURCES

(Taken from the Waldport Watchman) Perhaps no other city in Oregon has greater natural advantages than Waldport, situated as it is on the famous Alsea Bay—one mile from the ocean bar. The fresh water supply of the river is ten times greater than that of Yaquina river, larger than Siletz, Nestucca, or Tillamook and only lacks a few strokes of the hand of man to make it a deep water harbor second to none outside of the Columbia river. Adjacent to our city vast forests of virgin pine wave their lofty heads in salute to the industries of home and foreign markets, and as much as 20,000,000 feet of merchantable lumber stands unscarred on a quarter section of land.

Skippers of coasting vessels visiting our port assert that Waldport is undergoing a healthier growth than any other small city on the coast. The dairy ranches dotting our fertile valleys are stocked with the best grade of cattle, and our dairymen are receiving the highest tests of cream and flattering letters of commendation from the experts of our agricultural colleges.

Alsea Bay is the banner salmon stream south of the Columbia river, our canneries pack upwards of thirty thousand cases of choice fish yearly, besides an immense quantity of cold storage fish for foreign markets. The beaches and mud flats are teeming with clams of every variety and crabs, cockles, mussels, rock oysters and other shell fish find their natural home.

The City of Waldport with its churches, sawmills, high schools, canneries, creamery, two large general merchandise stores and two large modern hotels, with newspaper and drug store, jewelry store and a dozen other business houses, claims a place on the map seldom conceded to small coast cities. Coasting vessels make regular trips here, and the freight rate between here and Portland is as cheap as from many Valley cities.

We do not lack for entertainment. A large modern theatre with moving picture entertainments of an up to date character along with first class dances weekly and the grand joint stock company in comedy and drama gives us entertainment for every night in the week.

Hugh bonfires and clam bakes on our beaches during the Summer months, makes the sylvan shimmer of the lazy moon remind you of fairy land and perpetual youth. A Thousand speckled trout tiring of the holes and retreats in the bosom of the stream can be seen any day flashing over the surface of the water, defying the Isaac Walton's and the artificial flies of commerce. On our street corners may be seen the youth and maiden complacently chewing a hunk of jerked venison in lieu of Beeman's gum and the fire in their eye and the color of their cheeks indicate that it is more nutritious.

The U. S. Government realizing the importance of this locality is expending thousands of dollars on a Coast Scenic route from Tidewater to Florence by way of the famous Yachats. Hundreds of pleasure seekers visit this point by team and auto each season, and the completion of this road this Summer means thousands of delighted visitors instead of hundreds as heretofore.

I have visited nearly every Pacific Coast city between California and Siberia, and I can say with absolute truth that Waldport has more natural charms to the square inch than any other city on the coast line of four thousand miles. Wild fruits and flowers mingle their perfumes with the ozone of the sea, bringing health and happiness, and it is believed that when the judgment day comes the old men of this locality will have to be shot as none of them have ever died. A visit to this "Garden Spot of the Gods" will prove that there is no fact exaggerated in this feeble attempt to describe our city, and the citizens of this place join me in a cordial invitation to pay us a visit. We offer you the freedom of our city and the keys to our gates are ever yours. Trusting that many who read the above will visit us during the coming season, and assuring you a bounteous welcome and a glorious outing, I am,

Very sincerely yours,
Dr. Linton.

M. E. CHURCH NOTES

The Sunday School of the Methodist Episcopal Church is going to have a contest for the securing of new members. The school will be divided into two divisions and each is to try to get the most new members. The losing side will banquet the winners. We hope that you will co-operate with them by accepting the invitation to come to Sunday School. We have an excellent corps of teachers, and in these days of education you cannot afford to miss the opportunity to learn something about the Bible and the problems of life. We earnestly solicit the help of parents in getting the children into the Sunday School and hope that you will come yourselves. You will find it worth while.

Sunday is Palm Sunday and it will be observed at the Methodist Episcopal Church. In the morning the pastor will preach on "The Triumphal Entry" and in the evening the choir will give a musical program. We hope you will come to these services. We need your co-operation and we feel sure the Church has something for you which will make you appreciate life more.

Next week is Passion Week. There will be services at the Methodist Episcopal Church each evening, except Saturday. From the questions that are being asked the announcement of these services is creating quite an interest. We want that every person in Toledo should attend at least one of these services. Life will mean more to you, and you will be able to see more of the real joy of living by attending. So we invite you to come not once but every evening. There will be special music each evening. In the sermons the pastor will take up the events of the last week of the life of Jesus and show the bearing of these on our life today and the problems of today. None of us appreciate enough the work that Jesus did. Let us take time next week to consider what his coming means.

On Easter Sunday we plan for a big day. In the morning at the hour of worship the pastor will preach on the "Resurrection." While we are not one of those who believes in having our eyes fixed on the future life that we do not properly appreciate this life, we cannot help but believe that our belief in the resurrection has an important bearing on our life here. In the evening the Sunday School will give their Easter program.

Robert H. Allen, Pastor.

THE GOOD JUDGE LEARNS FROM THE ARTIST

TOBACCO satisfaction—a chew of "Right-Cut," the Real Tobacco Chew. The comforting taste of rich, mellow, sappy tobacco comes—and it lasts. Made of ripe, mellow tobacco—seasoned and sweetened just enough. "Right-Cut" goes twice as far as any other tobacco for the same money. Get a pouch and see for yourself.

Take a very small chew—less than one-quarter the old size. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just nibble on it until you find the strength chew that suits you. Tuck it away. Then let it rest. See how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies without grinding, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is The Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end.

It is a ready chew, cut fine and short so that you won't have to grind on it with your teeth. Grinding on ordinary cut tobacco makes you spit too much.

The taste of pure, rich tobacco does not need to be covered up with molasses and florice. Notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste in "Right-Cut."

One small chew takes the place of two big chews of the old kind.
