Newport

The Newport I. O. O. F. and Rebekah lodges celebrated the 96th anniversary of the organization of the order in America at the Baptist Church Sunday evening. A special program had been arranged. The two lodges met at the I. O. O. F. Hall and marched to the Baptist Church on May street. The choir had prepared a special song service for the occasion. Prof. Taylor, teacher in the High School, presided at the piano. A recitation was given by Miss Hill. The address was made by Rev. B. C. Black, pastor of the Baptist Church. The address was eloquent and full of the spirit and teachings of Oddfellowship and the good the order is doing for humanity in the world. He spoke of how the order had grown from five members, 96 years ago, to be now the greatest fraternal and benevolent society in the world, numbering now 2,200,000, over 500,000 of this number being Rebekahs. The order has spent since it was organized over $1,000,000 for relief of its members in sickness and distress and teaches the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood and also a belief in the Creator and Supreme Ruler of the Universe.

Died—In Portland, Or., April 24, 1915, after a long illness, Lloyd Chatterton, aged 21 years, 10 months and 15 days. Five or six years ago he had a severe attack of pneumonia from the effects of which he never fully recovered. He went to California and then to Eastern Oregon for the benefit of his health, but he never received any permanent benefit. He was on his way home accompanied by his two brothers, Paul and Blaine, when he died. His brother, Paul, had been with him pretty much all the time during his sickness. His remains were brought to Newport by the Monday's train. The funeral services were held in the Presbyterian Church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. George E. Pratt. The interment took place in the Eureka Cemetery. The funeral services were attended by a large number of friends and neighbors. The floral offerings were beautiful, attesting the esteem in which deceased was held by his neighbors. The pall bearers were Guy Satterlee, Cecil Wygant, Lloyd and Ray Colver, Charlie Kisor and Buz Ingalls. He is survived by his father, mother, four brothers and one sister.

Died—In Newport, Or., April 26, 1915, Oren Ruperts, aged 71 years. Deceased had been badly afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism which rendered him almost helpless. For the last fifteen years he had been a county charge. Before coming to Newport he had lived a good many years in Albany, engaged in the saddle and harness business, and had accumulated a considerable amount of property. When a boy he and Ira Miller were partners in the wood business. He was well known in the business and social circles of Albany and had a great many friends. He was an exempt fireman. He had a sister and two brothers, but they are not living now. He was never married. Adrian Ford looked after him during most of his sickness. The neighbors were also very kind to him and assisted him in many ways. He came to Newport thirty years ago and lived here up to the time of his death. A few days before he died and knowing the end was nigh, he sent for the priest, Father Forget and had the last rites of the Church performed. Father Forget conducted the services in the Church and the body was laid to rest in Eureka Cemetery. It is said Mr. Ruperts had quite a sum of money, found in the house in a bureau drawer after his death, also a number of notes on persons who had borrowed money from him. Where this money came from no one seems to know.

The annual institute for the teachers of Lincoln county is now being held in the High School building. About 75 teachers are present and more to come Wednesday evening. The State Superintendent will be present and other prominent teachers from the Valley are expected to be present. Much interest is being taken by all the teachers and this promises to be the best institute ever held in the county. Superintendent Goin has charge of the institute and is as usual doing all he can to make it a success. Prof. Dawkins, assisted by his corps of teachers, are planning to give visiting teachers social entertainment.

Dr. H. J. Minthorn has returned from California much improved in health.

The Rod and Gun Club gave the annual rhododendron dance at their hall Wednesday evening. The hall was decorated with the beautiful rhododendron flowers and all the flags and ensigns of the world. The hall looked very beautiful, lit up with a dozen electric lights and the room crowded with the elite of the city and surrounding country. Many of the teachers who are attending the institute were present. The orchestra furnished excellent music and all seemed to enter into the spirit of amusement and pleasure. Some sixty couples were on the floor at once dancing. The ladies served light refreshments—ice cream, cake, sandwiches and coffee. The proceeds will be used to improve the Ladies' Reading and Rest Room. The ladies take special pride in making this one of the most pleasant places in the city, not only for the home folks, but for visitors as well. The idea is to make everyone feel at home.

The Patsy came in Sunday with forty tons of freight for Newport. She left Tuesday morning for Siuslaw. She also carried passengers.

We are all busy and don't have time for anything to happen in the way of news, so there will not be much this week.

Clarence Mathews is painting and paupering Irvin Magee's house this week.

Mr. Johnson of Junction City moved onto the old Dee Shirley place. He will stay there until he gets a house built on his own ranch. He brought in some fine milk cows. Mr. Johnson is a progressive farmer and we like to have such men come to our county.

It was decided at the last meeting of the Eddyville Grange to have a regular old-fashioned Fourth of July celebration, where there will be something doing all the day and part of the night. There will be fun for the old and young, so get ready and bring your wife and children and sweethearts and a well-filled basket and come and help us celebrate. Remember the place—Eddyville. The date—Friday, July 2d, 1915. Look out for large posters later.

There was a game of baseball played on the Eddyville diamond last Sunday between the McGee bridge crew and the Little Elk nines. Talk about fun! Well, it was there. Everything went well until the seventh inning. The score stood 10 to 5 in favor of the bridge crew and then Jack Ross of Toledo rushed to the box and oh, what a time! Well, anyway, at the close of the inning the score stood 10 to 20 in favor of Little Elk—then Jack hit the trail for California. Good bye, Jack, come again. The rest of the game was wild and full of bumbles and fun. Finally the game ended with the score of 12 to 28 in favor of Little Elk.

SCHOONER BUD FISHER LAUNCHED MONDAY

Last Monday morning the fishing schooner Bud Fisher was launched from the Walker shipyards here. Miss Iris Akin christened the boat as she slid down the ways into the water. This vessel makes the 18th sea-going vessel to be built and launched by George Walker on this bay.

The Bud Fisher was built for H. M. Bomberg and will be used as a fishing schooner and will work off the coast from San Pedro, California. An engine will be installed in the boat after reaching San Pedro, and she will go to that place in tow of the Colleen, which is now just receiving the finishing touches, preparatory to going to sea. These two vessels are the prettiest boats ever launched on this bay and are certainly good advertisements for their builder.

ODDFELLOWS CELEBRATE 96th ANNIVERSARY

The local Oddfellows fittingly celebrated the 96th anniversary of the founding of that great order in America last Monday evening at their hall in this city. Some one hundred Oddfellows, Rebekahs and their friends were present and a most interesting program was rendered.

Rev. W. T. Pearce of Siletz delivered a most masterly address on "Oddfellowship." In his address he went back to the founding of the order in America, by five men, in the city of Baltimore, April 26th, 1819, and told of the wonderful growth of the order until it now numbers more than a million and a half members of the Oddfellows and Rebekah lodges. He also spoke of the great good their order of brotherly love has done and is doing in every nook and corner of the earth. Mr. Pearce went back to the Garden of Eden, claiming that Adam was an odd-fellow, in fact, he said, one of the "oddest fellows" we have ever had. His address was interesting and instructive and was thoroughly appreciated by all.

The program rendered was as follows:

Opening Ode, by the Lodge
Piano duet, Misses Myrtle Paine and Clara Larson
Vocal solo, Mrs. H. H. Pratt
Address, Rev. Pearce.
Violin and piano duet, Judge and Mrs. R. R. Miller
Reading, Mrs. Roy Walker
Closing Ode, the Lodge

Forty of the friends of Fred Russell were entertained at the home of Peter Beyer last Tuesday evening, in a farewell party for the former. Bonfires were built and corn popping and marshmallow toasting were enjoyed for some time then the balance of the evening was spent in various games. Ice cream and cake were served by Mr. Beyer. Three captains were selected to choose sides and the party who got their fire going and the first corn popped received a prize. Miss Mary Geer won. The other captains were Miss Molly Ross and Miss Edna Plank. Mr. Russell leaves tomorrow for Roseburg to reside.

The ladies of the M. E. Aid Society will hold their monthly Bakery Sale next Saturday in Lester Waugh's Meat Market. Please bring donations early. The proceeds of these sales is paid the pastor on salary. Be generous in donations and patronage and help a good cause.
