CALL FOR WARRANTS

Notice is hereby given that all warrants drawn on the General Fund of Lincoln county, Oregon, and endorsed "not paid for want of funds," up to and including Nov. 12, 1913, are hereby called, and the interest stopped thereon this date. G. B. McCluskey, County Treasurer. Dated April 12, 1915.

Hon. J. K. Weatherford of Albany was a Toledo visitor Sunday.

Samuel Brassfield of Siletz was a county seat visitor Tuesday.

Born—Tuesday, May 18, 1915, to Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Small, a 12 pound girl.

Mrs. T. Dowling, postmaster at Yaquina, was a Toledo visitor yesterday.

B. W. Jones of Sheridan has been in the city several days this week.

Capt. Henry Nice of Lutgens passed through to the Valley on Wednesday morning's train.

Dr. W. M. Berry, the dentist, went to Portland Wednesday morning. He will return tomorrow evening.

Miss Opal Brassfield of Siletz, after a visit with friends near Elk City, returned to her home Wednesday evening.

Ralph Salvage went to Albany Monday morning for a visit with his parents, returning Tuesday evening.

Mrs. O. A. Tozier, who has been visiting at the J. D. Hamaker home the past two weeks, returned to her home at Corvallis Monday.

The regular monthly social meeting of the Ever Ready Bible Class was held at the parsonage last Friday evening.

A big bunch of Newport people came up on the Ollie S. to attend the Moose dance last Friday night.

Quite a crowd of young folks from Elk City, Pioneer and surrounding country came down on the Transit to the Moose dance Friday night.

Mrs. Bertha M. Fraude, who has been at the hospital in San Francisco for some time, has returned and is staying with Mrs. J. I. Butterfield.

Several of the Toledo Band boys have been assisting the Newport band in entertaining the Oddfellows and Rebekahs grand lodges in convention in Newport this week.

James McDonald, the bee man tells us that the drone bees are eating all the honey this season. Those who have bees had better catch the drones and destroy them or they will have no honey.

O. G. Dalaba, formerly of Toledo and Elk City, but now of Portland, was in the city last Saturday shaking hands with old friends. Mr. Dalaba will remain in this section for about two weeks.

Gus Ridgeway of Yaquina was tried in Justice Court here Tuesday, charged with assault and battery upon his wife. He was found guilty and fined $25 and costs, being unable to pay the fine is spending twelve days in the county jail.

The Southern Pacific railroad company has just issued a most attractive booklet "Oregon Outdoors." The booklet is profuse with illustrations of scenes of the different sections of the state. It is certainly a beautiful work and everyone should procure a copy and send it to friends in the East.

The Moose dance given at Oddfellows hall here last Friday night was one of the big events in the amusement line in this city. Some two hundred people enjoyed a full night of dancing. The music, furnished by the Band orchestra, assisted by Messrs. J. W. Pickens and R. C. Collier of Newport and A. C. Freilheit, bass and trombone player, of Portland, was certainly fine and enjoyed by everyone present and the supper given in the banquet rooms by Chef Bob Mann was the finest ever. The success of this dance was largely due to the efforts of P. A. Laferty, general supervisor. The next Moose dance will be announced later.
