RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE

Whereas, God in His infinite wisdom has seen fit to remove from the family circle of Sister Blanche Jeffreys her mother, to that home above where all pain and sorrow cease and joy and peace reign supreme, and

Whereas, By this removal Sister Jennie Fish has lost a loving cousin;

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That we, the members of Do Good Lodge, No. 70, extend our heartfelt sympathy to our bereaved sisters in their affliction and commend them to Him above who doeth all things well.

Elma Waugh,
 Charlotte Crosno,
 Martha Goin,
 Committee.

A GAMBLING JOINT

Have a recall election. Clean out the gamblers at the courthouse and elevate the moral standard of Toledo and Lincoln county.

It was an old scheme but they fell for it. They fell hard, but a sofa pillow worth 99 cents at a bargain sale saved their lives. It did not save their pockets. Nor their reputations. They fell. Sixty cents, seven dimes, three quarters of a dollar—but why go on? What are a few plunks to the courthouse crowd!

Two ladies of ravishing beauty enticing ways and votes for women held the pillow. Also they held 100 tickets, supposedly marked from one cent to ninety-nine. It was like trading for a boy's jackknife unsight and unseen. And not even a guarantee of "whole blade and whole handle" to go on.

A sofa pillow! Tired nature's sleep in a whole skinthmemem sweet restorer! "It is good to sleep in a whole skin," says the proverb, but the gamblers didn't. They were skinned.

Here is a problem in arithmetic for Surveyor McM. who is said to be an expert at figures: If a sofa pillow costs 49.5 cents and is gambled off for $49.50, what percent Easy Mark is the buyer of a 99th chance to win it? Please report. I pass that.

A problem for our Judge: If A borrows 50c. of B to buy a lottery ticket and both are arrested for gambling, what is the legal penalty the law assesses to the Judge? Please report. I pass the buck.

Query for Deputy Clerk: In what book was that affair recorded? And how much are you out of pocket? Please report.

Our valiant Sheriff: Did you say to the proprietors of the gambling outfit, "Ladies, I regret to say you are shattering the law I am sworn to uphold. Consider yourselves under arrest for skinning these other courthouse innocents. I shall confiscate the sofa pillow for evidence?" Nix, so far as heard from.

But why continue! They fell. So far as I know the only one who resisted the combined charms of the two ladies and the sofa pillow was a humble school-teacher, who refused to gamble. Modesty forbids my mentioning his name. C. M. Drake.

M. E. CHURCH NOTES

There will be services at the Methodist Episcopal Church next Sunday. The pastor will preach at both services. This will be Rev. Allen's last Sunday before going to Conference. All friends and strangers are invited to attend.

All members of the Choir are requested to meet for practice on Saturday night at the Church.

The Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church of all Oregon will convene in Roseburg from the 22d until the 26th of this month, at which time the pastors will be assigned to the different churches for the coming year. Whether Mr. Allen will be returned to Toledo for another year will be decided at this time.

Remember the Grange Fair at Toledo Thursday and Friday.

R. W. Stow, the moss man, went to California last week.

M. W. Simpson of Elk City was a county seat visitor Tuesday.

Alex and Clyde McMillan went to Agate Beach last Saturday to do some surveying.

Percy Neuman has accepted a position as clerk in Hill Bros. store at Siletz.

Here's one fresh from the farm: If the moon had a baby would the skyrocket?

J. C. Hoeffel of Coburg has been visiting relatives here and at Yaquina for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Starr went to Otter Rock last Saturday morning for a week's outing.

Do you believe it? They say that the next time the water in the reservoir gets low they will let a safety razor.

Mrs. George Hodges of Salado was visiting in Toledo over Sunday, returning to her home Monday morning.

Miss Gertrude Baird returned to her home in Portland Saturday morning, after a visit with friends and relatives here.

The Misses Hanson returned to Portland Tuesday morning, after a visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Hanson.

Mrs. A. H. Newton and two children arrived over from Corvallis last Saturday evening for a visit at the Swearingen home.

Miss Genevieve Tillotson commenced teaching school Monday in the district lying between Siletz and Orton.

Born—Thursday, Sept. 9th, 1915, to Mr. and Mrs. Bush Davis, at Newport, a ten pound boy.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gordon departed for California Wednesday, after an extended visit with her parents here.

A. C. Everson, a Tillamook real estate man, was in the city several days this week visiting with his old friend Ennis Currey, the liveryman. While here Mr. Everson drove, in company with Mr. Curry, up to the fine ranch owned by E. T. Raddant on Upper Siletz. Mr. Everson says that it is one of the best ranches that he knows of on the coast.

Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Turner came up from Newport Sunday evening to visit among old friends. Mrs. Turner was formerly Miss Anna Chambers, daughter of Mrs. C. G. Copeland, now of Newport. For several years Dr. Turner was stationed at the Siletz Agency as physician, but is now out of the Indian service and is practicing his profession at Canton, South Dakota.
