NEWPORT

The Patsy went out over the bar Sunday morning on her way to Siuslaw. The bar was so rough that several big breakers struck the cabin, but no damage was done. A big storm has been raging off shore for several days and the ocean has been so rough that the bay has been covered with sea foam.

The Ahwaneda came in Saturday evening from Bandon with twenty-five tons of coal for the Abbey. She had gone to Bandon with 85 tons of freight for that city. She went out Sunday bound for Astoria.

H. L. Collins and F. B. Skinner of Portland and R. E. Collins of the Leader stayed over night in Newport, Thursday, while on their way to Yachats on a big fishing tour. They rode down the beach on their bicycles. The Yachats is a great place for fishing and hunting and the scenery is grand and inspiring. The roads are good and the travel has been better in that country than ever before.

The excursion train Sunday brought in 50 persons who spent the day strolling on the beach enjoying the roughness of the ocean and the great waves and breakers that was caused by the recent storm. It is a grand sight to see the ocean in a storm. A good many people come in from the Valley for that purpose.

Sunday was a dull day for Newport. The Sunday closing law took effect on that day. The business houses were all closed, no places of amusement or pleasure kept open, even the drug stores were closed and the druggist went fishing. Said it did not pay to keep open for the little medicine they might sell. One gentleman, a visitor, ate a lot of crabs which gave him the stomach ache and he came near dying for lack of medicine. Another man came in from Siletz, walked all the way. He wanted a bath but everything was closed up so he could not get it. All places of amusement and profit were closed, such as bowling alleys, billiard rooms, candy stores, fish markets, cigar stores, soft drink houses, ice cream parlors, etc. This is an old "Blue Law" passed in 1864, amended in 1908, and now at this late date is being enforced. The next things to be excluded are tea, coffee and tobacco. Tobacco and coffee being narcotics will no doubt be placed under the Harrison Law. Our liberties are gradually slipping away from us and soon it will be no pleasure to live. The laws are so complex and numerous that it is impossible to keep them all. It is like the old rules that use to govern the district schools—so many rules that you could not help breaking them. The game and fish laws are so complicated that it is hard to enforce them and it is hard to convict when they are violated. You can not hunt deer with hounds and if you don't keep down the predatory animals they will kill the sheep, deer and goats, so there would be no chance for them to increase. If a breed of dogs could be raised that would run predatory animals only then the game would increase as well as the goats and sheep. The underbrush is so thick in this country that it is almost impossible to find the deer without dogs. Wesley Satterlee owns a ranch of 400 acres near Tidewater and he says on his place there must be fifty deer. You can hardly ever see one of them because the brush is so thick. But few deer have been killed this year for the reason you can't find them still hunting. I am told a single cougar will kill twenty deer within a year.

B. F. Jones of Roseburg was in town during the week. He is interested in developing his property at Otter Rock.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Trapp of Toledo, accompanied by their son, Harry, and wife of Los Angeles, were visitors at Newport Sunday. Mr. Trapp, Jr., says he enjoys the green forest and mild climate of Oregon. Los Angeles has no shrubbery or trees except as they are planted.

The steamer Fifield came in today (Tuesday) at 9 o'clock a. m. on high tide and passed on up to Toledo for a cargo of lumber. While the bar has been shoaled for the past week the lumber vessels have no trouble in passing in and out.

S. T. Loudon was in Newport the first of the week soliciting exhibits for the Portland Land Show which commences on the 25th. He is much interested in this kind of work.

FIGLES CREEK

Sunshine tinting the glory of the Autumn leaves!

Miss King, who is teaching a very successful term of school in our district, made a flying trip to her Corvallis home this week.

Besides her regular grade work Miss King is instructing pupils of the tenth and eleventh grades of the high school work. Thus bringing the possibilities of higher culture to us here within the recesses of our mountain homes. A beautiful thought?

The road work is going on apace. Geo. Tubbs, Ralph Darting, Jay Buford and Frank Mulvany are busily engaged with the Racks creek and Sweet Home contingent.

Lake Bros. have been visiting Chas. Lindley.

Mr. Buford, Sr., visited Robt. Black of Harlan last week.

Mrs. Frank Mulvany is hoping to return to the Figles Creek home soon. Mrs. Mulvany has been confined to her home during five months with inflammatory rheumatism in the acute form, fighting the inevitable inch by inch. Mrs. Mulvany is one of Figles Creek's ardent boosters and will gladly return to a locality much admired.

Fred Scheddler is really building a bona fide home on his homestead. Chas. Lindley is doing the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Boies recently announced the marriage of their daughter, Bertha, to Mr. DeWitt Doxsee of Crescent City, California.

Isaac Boies and family occasionally beam in upon us.

John Rankin has vacated for a season in order to serve Uncle Sam in the Indian service.

That bridge across Big Elk at Harlan looks good to us. Yea, very good. Judging from the way others than Figles Creekers use it it looks accommodating in their eyes, too.

SILETZ

Superintendent Chalcraft returned home Sunday, from Portland, where he had been on business.

Luman Butterfield and Mr. McNeill passed through Siletz Friday on their way to Toledo.

Mrs. M. S. Collins is home again, after an absence of nearly three months.

LOUDON—ALDRICH

Married at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aldrich, near Eddyville, October 20, 1915, Miss Rena Aldrich and Roger Loudon, Rev. Devenport officiating. The room was nicely decorated with ferns and Autumn leaves. The bride was dressed in white and carried a bouquet of white dahlias. The bride is one of Eddyville's most popular young ladies and Mr. Loudon is a prosperous young farmer on Little Elk, and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Loudon. The many friends join in wishing them a long and pleasant journey through life.

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH YAQUINA? Yaquina is on the map as far as public highways are concerned and it is quite a novelty, as in the past nothing but cow trails ever entered Yaquina, but during the Summer our Supervisor has opened up a fine thoroughfare from Toledo to Yaquina, and a fine grade it is, too.

Today, the 20th of October, the first automobile run between Toledo and Yaquina and if we hadn't been so fortunate as to have been where people call "outside" and seen such wonders before, we surely would have had a nervous shock to see an automobile. But the ice is broken, the first automobile has come and gone, and in the future we expect to see more automobiles and motorcycles and all kinds of vehicles. Everybody is welcome.

Come and get your fish, crabs, clams and oysters and boost for Yaquina bay.

District No. 7 can be proud of its beginning on this road, between Toledo and Yaquina.

An old reader in Dist. 7, J. J. McDonald.
