

MR. BENSON OF PORTLAND WRITES

Editor Leader:—I noticed an article in your issue of December 17th, 1915, which leads me to believe that your County Commissioners are under the impression that we have received State money in building our highway. For your information I wish to state that Multnomah county has never received one dollar of State road money. This Highway in Multnomah county, costing One Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($1,500,000.00) has been paid for entirely by Multnomah county.

At the last Legislature a number of us tried to get the State highway fund raised from one-fourth of a mill to one mill which would have produced One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00) per year, but we were unsuccessful, chiefly through the opposition of outside counties.

We would like to see a high State road levy and, although Multnomah county pays forty per cent of same, we do not expect or do not want one dollar of it spent in Multnomah county as we realize that if we can improve the roads in other parts of the State it is bound to be to the benefit of Portland.

Hoping you will give this publication, I remain,
Amos S. Benson.

Supt. E. L. Chalcraft of the Siletz Agency departed Monday morning for a business trip into the state of Washington.

Miss Maude Miller came down from Eddyville Friday evening to spend the holidays with her parents, Judge and Mrs. R. R. Miller.

Oca Hoefflein arrived Monday evening from Viaqua, Wisconsin. After a short visit with his parents, he will return to Wisconsin.

Malcomb Miller returned to Toledo Friday evening after an absence of about a year. Mr. Miller was formerly off-bearer in the mill.

Mrs. James Salvage and children arrived over from Albany last Friday evening for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Salvage in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Garrett of Washington have been visiting the past two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Horning in this city. Mrs. Garrett was formerly Miss Ida Hurley.

Deputy Clerk Gldersleeve issued a marriage license Monday morning to Chas. W. Johnson of Detroit, Michigan, and Irene C. Brooks of Newport. The couple was married by the Rev. Allen at the Methodist parsonage.

Miss Blanche Jeffreys arrived down from Milwaukie Friday evening to spend the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Fish in this city. Miss Jeffreys is teaching domestic science in the Milwaukie schools. She has seventy-five girls under her instructions.

A Waldport mother, moving into a new house, gave little Mary a room all by herself and said, "Mary, dear, there is nothing to fear, for God stays right with you all the time." She was tucked in her little bed and along in the night a faint voice came from the darkness: "Mamma, I wish you would come in here and get in bed with God, and let me sleep with papa."

Norman Fisher, Vance Daniels and Vern Folmsbee of Big Elk were arrested last evening charged with giving intoxicating liquors to a minor. The minor was Alvin Schlecht of Mill creek. The father of the boy, H. A. Schlecht, made the arrest and brought the three to town turning them over to Sheriff Geer, who lodged them in jail. In justice court this morning they waived examination and were bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $500 each.

A Newport man went to Portland recently on pleasure and left Friend Wife at home. Shortly after his return he and his wife were invited to a party. The wife laid out her husband's overcoat, and lest she should forget her gloves, she placed them in the overcoat pocket. On his way to the party Friend Husband put his hands in his pockets, discovered the gloves and immediately had a nervous chill. A few minutes later, at a dark place in the street, he threw the gloves away. After the party the wife asked her husband for her gloves. "I have not had your gloves," he replied. "Yes, you have; I put them in your pocket before we started." Gradually the husband saw a great light, and the next day it cost him $1.75 for new gloves.

L. H. Payne was up from Newport yesterday.

Prof. S. S. Gossman of Chitwood was a Toledo visitor the first of the week.

Joe Wilson, Jr., and bride of Corvallis passed through to Newport last Friday evening.

Services will be held at the Episcopal Church next Sunday morning and evening. Morning services at 11 o'clock.

Let us take your orders for magazines. It will save you the trouble of sending your order in and it will allow us to make a little commission besides.

Some of the boys evidently got Christmas and Halloween mixed, the way they acted Christmas night. A couple of the boys contributed to the City treasury for their fun and it is thought some more of the boys will come forward with their contributions.

Notice is hereby given that a watch meeting will be held tonight at the Skookum schoolhouse to watch for 1916 to arrive. Only soft drinks will be served. To keep awake until after midnight we shall discuss some New Year resolutions. At present the following have been posted up for study:

1. Resolved, That the U. S. should investigate the stone said to be in a Pennsylvania museum saying it was Noah and not Eve who ate that apple. Widow Jones says her sex has been blamed wrongfully for that crime for more than 5000 years. Besides, Noah was one who needed the new Oregon prohibition law and was none too good to hook apples by what she read of him. And I am thinking a coat of government whitewash would help out those fig leaves myself. All of Eve's pictures I ever saw were taken at bed time.

2. Resolved, That the U. S. is not prepared to kick up a row about the Filipinos having more than one wife. Sourdough says the Filipinos may have his share of wives. I admit honest brown babies are as good as white war babies.

3. Resolved, That Chamberlain's bill excusing rich folks from drilling if they pay $500 is a class outrage. Our postmaster put that up. The first thing he knows his head will come off for pernicious political activity. Pour oil on the troubled waters—coal oil.

4. Resolved, That our teachers should forbid the children's

Smile at Yourself in The Mirror

And probably several important things will be suggested to you. Your teeth may be decayed bad enough to interfere with your natural expression when you talk or laugh. Some of them may trouble you when you are eating or drinking. Again, they may keep you awake nights. If you recognize any of these conditions as being part of your experience, I wish to suggest that you ask yourself these questions:

First—Considered from a business standpoint, would not your time be worth more to yourself or employer if your teeth were good?

Second—Is it dread of pain or on account of the expense that you neglect your teeth?

Patients of my office know that dental operations are not so painful, after all. They know that I guarantee my work to be the Best, and they know that my charges are the lowest.

hairbrushes, nail brushes, manicure sets, sponges, soaps, perfumery, etc., are a few of the articles we carry in our Toilet Department. TOLEDO DRUG COMPANY playing "London Bridge is Falling Down." Its a breach of our neutrality and there are so many breeches of that nowadays we may break some that will expose our unpreparedness to our foes.

5. Resolved, That we approve Senator Lane's plan to have the U. S. make all of the powder. And we ask that the first batch be sent to our valorous Boy Scouts who can make believe they are shooting Japs and Germans for preparedness. And why not a government monopoly of tooth powders and face powders, for revenue only, as the Democrats say. Even Bryan could use those. But Seiditz powders are the best for was jingoes. By the way, the latest Webster's International says face powder is obsolete. Come to Skookum on Sunday, Noah, or Toledo.

6. Resolved, That we hear with untold horror that Mrs. Galt did not have her wedding notices printed in the attiquetted way. It was a mistake not to patronize the Leader office. Where could Lansing have been? He was not seen at Skookum.

We had a notice from the Oregonian that we could still be allowed to pay 75 cents for it if we hurried. Dear Oregonian, the tax collector got our last 75 cents, the Leader got our blessing and we resolved to live without you during 1916. You are too warlike for my blood. I cannot af-Ford you.

"Practice what you preach" is an old maxim. No one does it. But we all fuss because the other fellow doesn't do it. Yet there are limits. A young teacher parading the streets with a pipe in his mouth is certainly out of bounds. Swear off today.

A real teacher loves to teach just as sure as a born preacher loves to preach. But why does so many teachers avoid the local papers? A few mention the ones who are not absent or tardy, but every school has funny things happen in it every day. Not to laugh at the little folks, but to laugh with them. Children ought to be taught to enjoy a joke on themselves and to smile at it.

Last week I got a copy of a magazine that offered a free sub. for the addressed of four people who could stand skookum reading. I sent the names of four of the courthouse officials. I knew those who could stand it to read the tax roll could stand anything except an Appeal to Reason.

As the magazine is trying to revive a belief of 5000 years ago I should have sent the names of four Democrats. But I don't know four Democrats. I am particular about my associates.

The minister said at the Christ mas tree last week, "This is our treat." Swear off, Preacher. The lid goes down tight at 12 p. m. tonight. Make a good New Year resolution.

I have just been reading a book called "The Life of Jehovah." I think an authentic life of the other one would be vastly more interesting. He has more followers, it is claimed.
