CIVIC CLUB MEETS IN REGULAR SESSION

The ladies of the Civic Club met in regular session in the City Hall, January 19th, at 3 p. m., with Mrs. Ross, president, in the chair. It was an enthusiastic meeting; everyone present anxious and desirous, on their part to help in forwarding the interests of Toledo, in the way of improvement for the community uplift and advancement of our town. Committee was appointed to interview and consult with the city council as to the advisability of conducting a campaign to procure grounds for a county fair. Other conditions were discussed of which the city will hear later. This Club meets every 2d and 4th Wednesday of each month. They desire all women of Toledo to become active members. The dues are but 50c. per annum, and the President wishes all members to feel they must attend, and would like others, not already affiliated, to come and join. Corresponding Secy.

FROM THE JUNGLES

The Crescent Ridge Literary Society at its last meeting discussed the question, "Resolved, That old bachelors be taxed to support old maids."

H. M. Henry proposed that all the bachelors be provided with a certificate, which, if properly signed by either a young lady or an old maid, would exempt him from the dreadful burden of the old maid pensions for a period of ninety days. One of the ladies argued that strychnine in large doses was the only remedy. Her name must be held anonymous. Charley Easley maintained that preparedness might prove an effective remedy for some of our social evils. Pete Olds said to vote for a party that proposes to take away the cause for social and economic evils and everything would be lovely, and Peterson, the Big Swede, said amen!

Is it not a wonder what a power a prosaic and matter of fact Englishman can have over a skeptic audience when he presents statistics and facts and figures from such authorities as Carol D. Wright?

The question of old bachelors and old maids is still an open question and some of the bachelors have decided to charter the Norwegian Tramp Steamer, Oscar II and sail for Hamburg as soon as the controversy in Europe is settled.

At a previous meeting the following resolution was passed by unanimous vote: "Resolved, By the members of the Crescent Ridge Literary Society and visitors present, That we are directly opposed to Senator Chamberlain's policies in regard to our military affairs; furthermore, that we have lost faith in his ability as an exponent of the people's rights."

This is open for criticism. Chitwood, January 25th.
