

The price of three pounds of butter will more than pay for a subscription to

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

It will keep you up-to-date in your dairy every week for a year

The Business of Dairying is a weekly page of information for the man who depends upon cows for his living. There are timely hints when you need them on breeding, feeding, sanitation, milking, cooling, bottling, butter and cheese making and marketing. It will give you veterinary advice—your own problem will be answered without charge. Also a weekly page of Live Items About Livestock, and special articles giving the practical experience of practical dairymen, stockmen and farmers everywhere.

It is just as easy to be a business farmer as it is to be just a farmer—and you make more money at it. The Country Gentleman treats farming as a business—with articles and suggestions every week for every activity of the farm. Field crops of every sort, livestock of every class, fruits both large and small, truck for market and home, poultry for meat and eggs, plans of buildings and equipment, and a big woman's section with fashions, recipes, club reports and helpful hints—all these are within the scope of the great national farm weekly, presented by a large staff of practical farm workers.

Answers to Your Hard Questions Free by Mail. Simply write to the "R. F. D. Letter-box," enclose stamped envelope, and you get the advice of one of 100 experts.

52 times a year—every week—less than two cents a copy. For four years it has been sold at $1.50 a year. Now I am able to offer it for $1 a year.
