WE ARE FOR HUGHES

As it seems to be the custom, at this time for some of the papers, to offer apologies as to their political status, we will speak our little piece.

We are not trying to straddle any issue by claiming that we are independent, because we are not. We are for Hughes, and the Republican party, first, last and all the time.

We have lots of Democratic readers on our list and we respect them and their views, and hope to keep them on our list.
 But we want them to know where we stand, and that we are not trying to seek favors from both parties by trying to straddle the issue.

THE FINAL RESULT

Following is the way we have it doped out:

For President, Chas. E. Hughes Vice President, Chas. W. Fairbanks

Rep. in Congress, W. C. Hawley Joint Senator, W. T. Hanley Joint Representative, W. V. Fuller

County Attorney, C. E. Hawkins
 Sheriff, Bert Geer
 Clerk, R. H. Howell
 Treasurer, Ira Wade
 Commissioner, W. F. Wakefield
 Assessor, A. G. Schwartz School Supt., R. P. Goin Surveyor, A. J. McMillan
 Coroner, F. M. Carter

Merchant Edw. Mauch of Eddyville was in the city last week on business.

Miss Leah Ruffledge of Eddyville made proof on her homestead before County Clerk Howell last week.

AN APPEAL TO ALL GOOD AMERICAN CITIZENS

Newport, Ore., 9, 30th, 1916.
 Get out and register before Oct. 7th. No matter if you are Republican or Democrat, Prohibitionist or Socialist, positively the only chance for you to make your opinions count is for you to vote.

Don't wait until election day to swear in your vote, as in the hurry mistakes are bound to happen and you might not get it right.

Republicans this year have especial reason to be at the polls to support progressive American principles. The man who made the millions of the Life Insurance Companies stand up in a row and be good in the investigation that first made him famous will accord justice to rich and poor alike. American ideals, American citizens and American industries will all be protected, and what he starts he will go thru with.

He is the first example of a man upon whom the Presidential nomination has been forced, and the only criticism he meets is because of the fact that he does not agree with the policies of the present administration.
 Vote for Hughes and Republican principles down the line, and cut out States Rights, Watchful Waiting and Timid Temporing.
 L. C. Smith,
 Secy. Republican Co. Com.

TWENTY TWO YEARS AGO

Items of long ago of that date taken from the files of the Leader.

Judge Hufford was over last evening on legal business.

John and Ruben Butler returned home last Monday after an absence of nearly two years.
 They have been up in Idaho, Eastern Washington and Eastern Oregon. They drove down from the Walla Walla country and will stop at the home place this winter.

B. F. Wade came over from Turner to visit his people last Saturday.

Commissioner M. L. Trapp is making preparations to take up his residence in his handsome dwelling in this city.

Harry Deninger after spending the summer upon his father's farm near this place, has gone to Portland to resume his law studies.

John McCluskey brought a sample of wool to this office last Monday, taken off of one of his sheep. The fleece weighed twenty-two pounds and some of it measured twenty-eight inches in length. The fleece was taken from an old ewe. Mr. McCluskey lives a short distance from Toledo on the Siletz road and is one of the most enterprising farmers of Lincoln county.
 It is reported that a sturgeon weighing 755 pounds was caught in the Columbia river one day recently.

ELEVEN YEARS AGO

Taken from the files of the Leader of that date.

Mrs. Mabel McClure, Miss Verna Ross, Sheriff J. H. Ross and Shed Rosebrook, the latter with his violin accompaniment, furnished some unusually good music at the M. E. Church services last Sunday, which was thoroughly appreciated by the congregation.

F. H. Lane was up from Newport last Saturday.

M. Roddy of Winant was in the city Wednesday.

J. H. McNeil is in charge of G. R. Schenck's Meat Market during the absence of Cutter Schenck.

Among the visitors to the fair last week was Mrs. Samuel Center and son, Newton. Mrs. Center, by the way, has only good words for the Lincoln county exhibit.

R. R. Atkins, who is head sales man for the New England Furniture Store in Minneapolis, is visiting with his brother-in-law, Norman Anderson of this place.
 Mr. Atkins has concluded to make Oregon his home next Spring.

John Lloyd and Frank Lane of Siletz were visitors to the Fair last week.

Hans L. Line, who has had charge of John Kentta's hotel and store at Siletz for several months, came to Toledo yesterday and departed this morning for Minnesota, where he was called by the illness of his little son. Mr. Line expects to return to Lincoln county.

CHANGING SEASONS BRING COLDS

"Stuffed-up head," clogged up nose, tight chest, sore throat are sure signs of cold, and Dr. King's New Discovery is sure relief. A dose of this combination of antiseptic balsams soothes the irritated membranes, clears the head, loosens the phlegm, you breathe easier and realize your cold is broken up. Treat a cold persistently; half-way measures leave a lingering cough. Take Dr. King's New Discovery until your cold is gone. For 47 years the favorite remedy for young and old. At your Druggist's 50c.
