CORRESPONDENCE Continued from first page

mutilated. Suspicion pointing to wild cats because of tactics employed by the aggressor.

Frank Mulvany and Zeb Kessi go to Toledo Tuesday the 9th to act as witnesses for Chas. F. Lindley who will make final homestead proof at that time.

Mr. Lindley came here from the Lone Star state and has been an A number one homesteader, having carved from the forest and coaxed into fruitfulness meadow land and apple trees into bearing. I fancy those are the sort that Uncle Sammy aims to help by his generous Homestead Act. "So mote it be."

Mr. Editor and gentle reader news is so scarce here that one (this one) needs almost romance in order to furnish our quota for the pages of our highly esteemed county paper, so please permit me to reminisce the last article from Little Elk being responsible for my train of thought. It carries me back to the reign of State Supt. McElroy he of the high brow. Did you know him? It carries me back to those old days at Normal when life was in the green. Back to those old days when the Roll of Honor was abroad in the land and pedagogues needs show their hand. I remember, I remember as if it were only yesterday how my knees knocked together as I got a sun burst of future conditions at St. Peter's gate. Brainy was no name for it—"Facto non verba" his motto, or as John Chinaman said of Admiral Dewey when he wiggled at Manila Bay during the Spanish-American War, "Melican man no talky, he Dewey." Many will bear me witness of Supt. McElroy's great influence for good in those days of foundation building. One of the most efficient school clerks I know over in old Benton was his follower.

Efficiency was the watch word during his reign therefore the carefully notated report of affairs at Little Elk school impresses that the teachers—whether masculine or feminine "no talky but Dewey" for the teachers like poets are "born and not made". The true pedagogue is to be treasured as ingots of gold. Their work is not for a day or year but for a life time. Blame this upon Little Elk for they gave me of the apple to eat.

Maine Briggs was making calls here Sunday.

Geo. Tubbs is attending to Mr. Kessi's ranch and stock while the latter goes to Toledo.
