Catarrh Cannot Be Cured

with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions, and in order to cure it you must take an internal remedy. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. Hall's Catarrh Medicine was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years. It is composed of some of the best tonics known, combined with some of the best blood purifiers. The perfect combination of the ingredients in Hall's Catarrh Medicine is what produces such wonderful results in catarrhal conditions. Send for testimonials, free.

S. S. GOSSMAN WRITES

Bowdle, South Dakota,
July 10, 1917.

Editor Lincoln County Leader,
Toledo, Oregon.
Dear Sir:—

Mr. Davis agreed to write you but he is a very busy man. He started from Toledo about June 9, made a stop of a day or so near Corvallis, was joined by us at Portland, and arrived at Lodgepole, So. Dak., about June 26, having travelled 1700 miles, with very little auto trouble.

With delay on account of business and on account of being obliged to leave the main road due to unprecedented high water on the Yellowstone River, and wandering about over the buttes and mud holes of Montana, we took more time than necessary. We estimated that we could have made the straight run in 11 days.

As it was we spent over a week in Montana, traversing it at its greatest length. Consequently Mr. Davis as yet isn't able to bear even a look at the map of that state.

Everyone arrived well and sound, especially the youngest members of the party.

Roads were various: The Columbia Highway the best and most scenic, Washington and Idaho roads largely good macadam, some splendid road in Montana but that state also has a great deal of gumbo left in bad condition by recent rains.

Eastern Oregon and Washington crops looked good; Montana and western Dakota are backward, but this region is well advanced though needing rain badly.

Bowdle has nearly 800 people, and is well supplied with trees, gardens and flowers. It will pass with a native Oregonian.

We can highly recommend the trip by auto to anyone desiring to travel. It should be taken a little later in the season than we started, and the tourist should be equipped to camp and thus dodge the pirates who are to be found disguised as rooming house keepers, hotel managers, and the professional wreckers who parade as garage men. The trail is well marked and you can get detailed information from the Goodrich Company.

With cordial wishes for our good friends of Lincoln County, we are

Yours truly,
Gossman & Davis.

TIME TO GET BUSY ON THE RIVER ROAD

Elk City, Oregon,
July 15th, 1917.

Editor Lincoln Co. Leader,
Toledo, Oregon.
Dear Sir:

If we are going to have that Yaquina High Way from Elk City down the river to Toledo, now is the time to get busy.

Next year the county will be financially able to help on this new high way, that should of been in use for the last forty years.

I will offer as a suggestion to all the farmers, along this road, who will be benefited more than any one else, that we exert our selves by cutting some brush along on the survey, or grading a piece of road, so that next spring when the County Court comes to look over the proposition, we will have something in the way of a showing.

Now here is something else. Some day, in the near future. Lincoln County will be running five hundred automobiles over our highways. Do you think they are going to be satisfied with two or three months out of the year in which to travel? I say no! We are going to have a road we can travel at any time.

And now comes the question. Where is the road going to be established, up the gorges and over the ridges? or follow the Yaquina river, where, if you would stack all the hills one on top of the other, from Newport through Elk City to the head of Little Elk, there wouldn't be one Pioneer mountain, or the same as far as Harlan on the Big Elk.

And again on the 27th of July, at 2 P. M., in Elk City, we will have the pleasure of hearing B. F. Jones from Newport, to talk this proposition over with us. We all know Jones is a go-getter. Once on our side, the battle is won.

Yours truly,
W. E. Simpson.

THE BIRTH OF A NATION

The Birth Of A Nation!—and how the mere mention of it, to those who have witnessed it, stirs the senses and makes memories pulses thrill!

This was the first great production, and now—since half a dozen similar attempts have been made—people are just commencing to realize what a wonderful accomplishment it really is, for today it stands out resplendent in its true appreciation—the master of all master achievements.

Mr. Griffith's sublime realization does not depend upon its novelty to attract overflowing houses any longer—it has a far more potent and lasting factor—that of having proven by age and comparison its overwhelming superiority to every other attraction man can create.

Very often really wonderful accomplishments are first accepted without giving them their full measure of credit, simply because they are Daniels and standing alone of their kind; then later, when rivals commence to appear on the horizon, the public sees the original in its true light.

After two successful years of continuous production before all portions of the country—in which fully two thirds of the people have witnessed it—The Birth Of A Nation still outstrips every other offering before the public, as an attraction.

It will be presented at the Midway in Newport on July 23 and 24 at 8 P. M. each evening. Also there will be a Special 2-o'clock Matinee on Tuesday, for the benefit of children—Matinee prices 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children—Evening prices are 75 cents and $1.00 and all are reserved seats—Seat sale opens July 14 at Armatage Drug Store. The Production is accompanied by a splendid, specially adapted three hour Musical Score, played by the organizations own director—There will be no childrens prices at night, owing to the limited seating capacity also on account of the length of the performance.
