Mrs. A. E. Rodriguez of Nampa, Idaho, is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Peter Berg, and family on Olalla. Mrs. Rodriguez has a son who is in the employ of the Standard Oil Co., having charge of their business at Athens, Greece. He writes that the war is causing much suffering there on account of a lack of food.

G. G. Steven's relatives, late of New Salem, Kansas, who autoed overland to Oregon to visit here, returned to Monmouth a week ago yesterday from a two weeks' trip through California after going as far south as Los Angeles. They say that they have found Oregon to be the most agreeable yet of any country passed through in their tour. They reported it to be much hotter in Southern California than in the state of Kansas. It is expected that they will locate near Monmouth at which place they are now staying.
